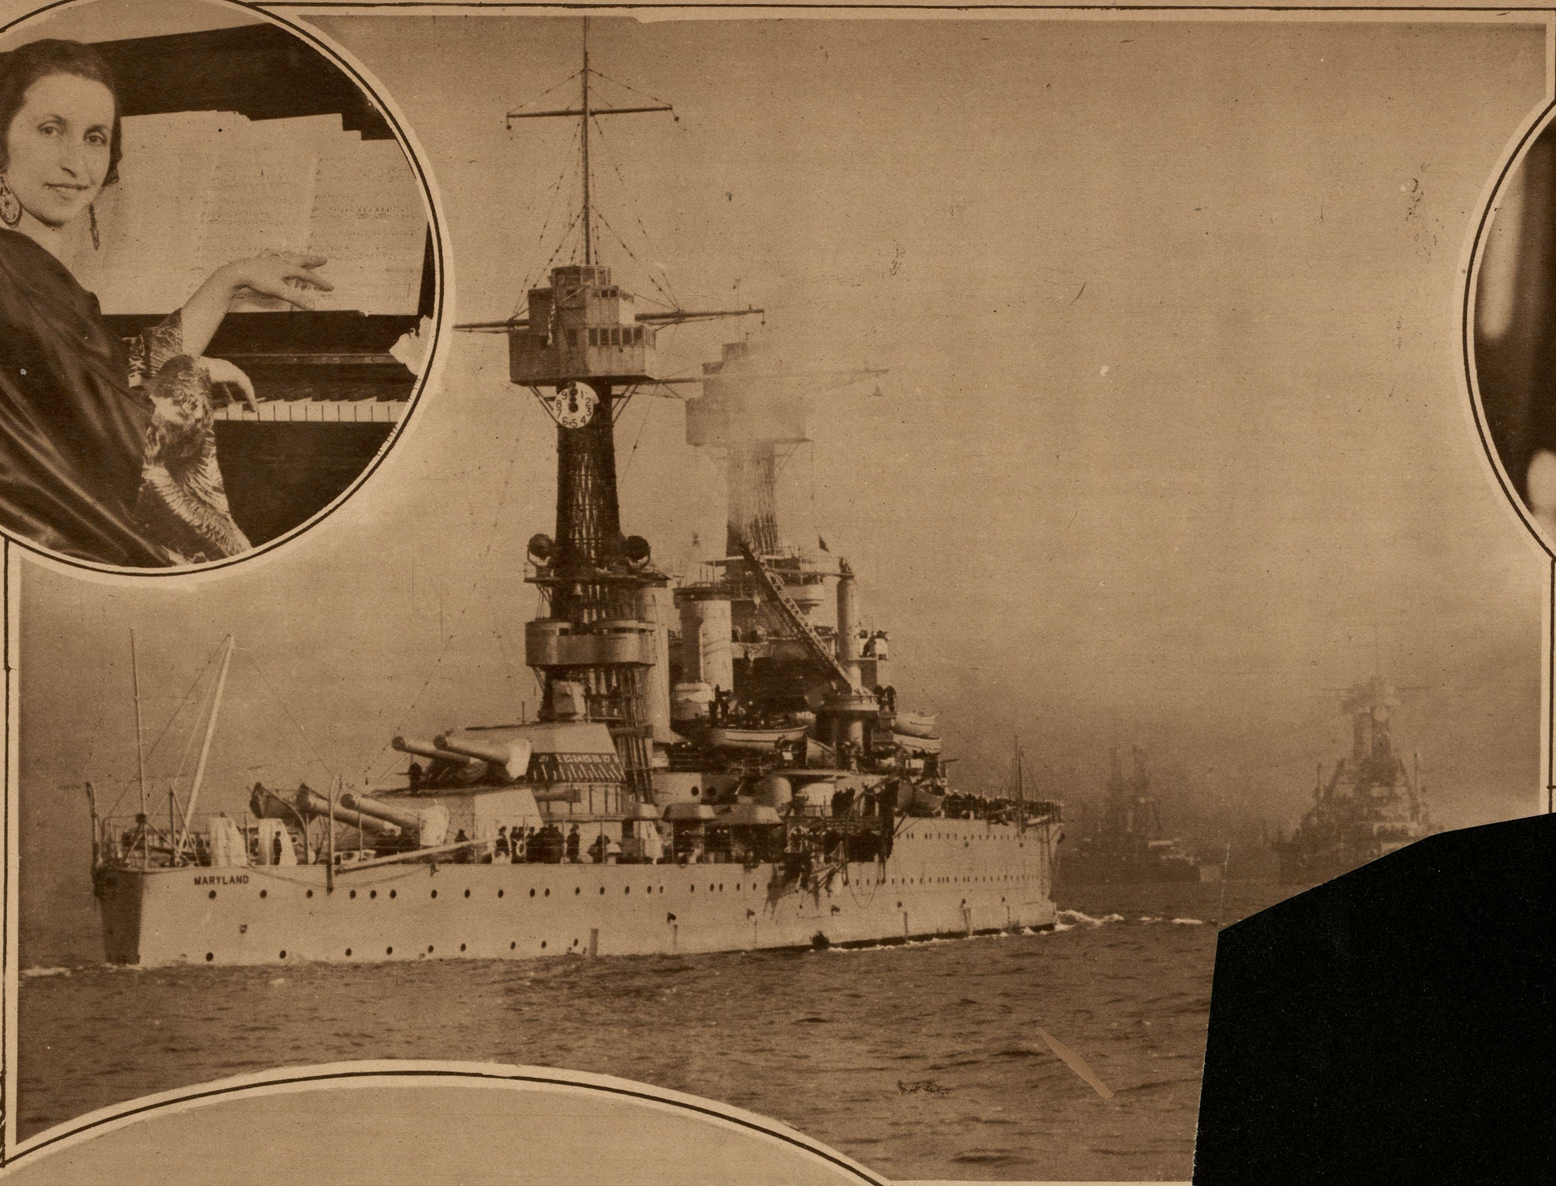
SONGBIRD WHOSE GLORIOUS VOICE HAS THRILLED THOUSANDS.
Amelita Galli-Curci, Metropolitan Opera Star and one of the most famous sopranos of the world, as she appeared prior to her last concert of the year in Philadelphia.
International



PACIFIC ARMADA VISI
U. S. S. Maryland, among t
dreadnoughts of the Nav
of the Pacific fleet, pa
to the metropolis fo
and now at anchor

HERO OF TITANIC DISASTER PROMOTED.
Captain Arthur Rostron, present commander of the Mauretania and former captain of the Carpathia when she rescued many of the survivors of the ill-fated Titanic. He has just been appointed a Royal Naval Reserve aide-de-camp to King George.
Wide World Photos

THE WORLD'S LA
is said to be this immen
tion, built on the Holly
The sign is 33 feet long,
with 20,000 electric bulbs
letter is 50 feet high. Cost w
Intern

FORMER KING OF THE PLAINS PERPETUATED IN ART.
Herman Palmer, one of the most famous of the world's animal painters, sketching a buffalo in the Zoological Garden at Central Park, New York.
Fotograms

QUEEN OF THE SEAS GETTING READY FOR MORE TRIUMPHS.
Giant Leviathan in drydock at Boston to be thoroughly overhauled, following her grounding last December in New York Harbor. She will resume her transatlantic sailings early in April.
International

A CADDY OF UNUSUAL QUALITIES.
Miss Helen Lee Worthing and the pet deer that serves as her caddy in her game over the Ormond Beach golf links. He is strictly honest, steals no balls and never criticises her game.
Fotograms

DESCENDANT OF LAFAYETTE PORTRAYED IN SCULPTURE.
Mlle. Marthe de Chambrun, great-granddaughter of America's friend at the time of the Revolution, standing beside the plaster cast of a bust of herself by the American sculptor, George F. Waters.
Wide World Photos

ENGLISH BEAUTY AS HOSTESS.—Lady Diana Manners, who has achieved such marked success as Madonna in "The Miracle," entertaining the American Girl Scouts who will assist her when she serves tea at the International Flower Show at the Grand Central Palace.
Wide World Photos

RISING RAPIDLY IN THE WORLD.
One of the amazing ski jumps at the competition at St. Moritz, Switzerland, that attracted a host of contestants from all quarters of Europe.

© Maryland State Archives mdsa_sc3410_1_81-0646.jpg