WESTMINSTER, MARYLAND.

W. L. W. Seabrook, - Editor.

Entered at the Postoffice at Westminster, Md., as Second-class matter.

SATURDAY, NOVEMBER 13, 1897.

Tabulated official returns on the vote for and against the constitutional amendment received at the executive chamber from Baltimore city and seventeen of the counties show: For the amendment, 15,580; against, 82,255. In Baltimore city the vote was: For the amendment, 11,370; against, 47,266.

The official canvass of the votes in all the counties of Maryland was made by the various boards of election supervisors last week. The result as given last week is not changed by the official summing up. The ballot shows a Republican majority of 17 on joint ballot of the General Assembly, 10 of which is in the Senate and 7 in the house of Delegates. Goldsboro's plurality in the State over Smith is 7,310. Rutherford has 6,876 majority over Ford. The House of Delegates stands 49 Republicans and 42 Democrats. The Senate has 18 Republicans and 8 Democrats. On joint ballot the Republicans have 67 and the Democrats 50; making a total of 117.

Apparently, Mr. Nicholas W. Steele has good reason to feel aggreived by the treatment he received from his party during his recent campaign in this county. While he was marshaling his forces and, for the most part, successfully preparing to elect the nominees of the Democratic county convention, by transferring Freedom district by a big majority from the Republican column, adverse forces were working against him with ceaseless energy, in other parts of the county, and the resistance to those forces by his party friends does not seem to have been of the most zealous and active nature. He saved his party from a decided defeat, but the party did not save him, and, apparently, did not make a very strenuous effort to do so. After-election gratitude cannot salve the injury inflicted by failing to prevent a humiliating defeat.

Given an opportunity the people of Maryland have declared their hostility to the kind of "civil service reform" inflicted, of late years, upon the country by act of Congress. The result of the recent election in this State, on that question, is indicative of a strong popular antagonism to the system inaugurated and forced upon the country by the efforts of Dorman B. Eaton and others. That antagonism has been intensified within the past year, by the action of Presidents Cleveland and McKinley, and Maryland's voice concerning it would find a responsive echo in other States, if the people could express their views upon it by a direct vote. Lacking that privilege they will, ere long, find a way to make their influence felt in the National Legislature, by forcing the issue in party conventions if it cannot be otherwise accomplished. Congress will only obey the popular behest by modifying the existing system in more ways than one.

The Advocate in its last issue savagely assaults those Democrats in this county who contributed to the defeat of Messrs. Steele and Crouse at the recent election. It would not be the province of the SENTINEL to assume their defence, if one were needed. The Democratic party, as an organization, has strayed so far from the principles of Jefferson and Jackson, that at any election involving an effect upon national legislation contrary to those principles, the true Democrat honors himself by refusing to follow his party in the destructive tendencies which have been engrafted upon it by its acceptance of Populistic ideas. The less the Advocate says about the use of "Republican cash," however, the better. Evidently the Democratic managers in this county were abundently supplied with "boodle" and used it freely. The SENTINEL is confident that if money had been used only in a legitimate manner in this county the Republicans would have had a fair majority on the entire ticket. That result would have been accomplished, at any rate, against all the potent power of Democratic cash, if the Republican party had been united and working together in harmony. The Republicans have good cause to be hopeful of future success. Neither party can boast a large margin on the registered vote, but the Republicans are standing by their principles and the honor and integrity of their country and can expect, again, the support of those Democrats who are not ready to stultify themselves by following the heresies of Bryanism, or to give their consent to the revival of 'Gorman methods and Gormanism," as they were practiced in this State previous to 1895, and partially in that year.

ELECTION BRIBERY.

The Baltimore Evening News of Wednesday contained a well-timed editorial article on the subject of "Election Bribery," in which the danger to our free institutions from this cause and the necessity for finding and applying a corrective are forcibly set forth. Other methods of corrupting and prostituting the ballot in a fraudulent manner are fairly well restricted by the new election system, but the improper use of money during the late campaign was carried to an almost unprecedented extent. The News says that the Democrats expended $10,000 and the Republicans $8,000 in the little county of Caroline. A prominent Democratic official in that county was overheard berating the State Committee, for not sending more money there. "We wanted $15,000," he said, "and, with that amount, could have elected every man on our ticket." Just how much was sent by the State Committee to the Democrats in this county, is not known, but it is known that money was freely spent by that party to influence the election here.

Now, when the result of an election is contingent upon the amount of money corruptly expended, the principle of government by the people is entirely subverted and Republican institutions fail of their purpose. The voice of the people is stifled and inevitable decadence of popular government ensues.

If the people of America mean to maintain their liberties they must deal with this question promptly and effectively. Means must be devised to discover and punish election bribery, by the imposition of penalties commensurate with the enormity of the crime. Men, no matter high their social standing, wealth, or honor, who commit this crime, directly, or indirectly, must be branded, in public, as the felons they are in private.

The attention of our legislators should be directed to providing a law, at the coming session, that will not be a dead letter, but which can be enforced against these murderers of human liberty and the rights of man.

For the benefit of those who have faith in the accuracy of Weather Prophet Hicks' predictions, the following summary of his forecast for the remainder of the month is given: The 13th and 14th comprise a reactionary center of higher temperature, low pressure and storms. The 18th to 21st is a regular storm period, at the close of which expect a change to much colder. The 24th to 26th, inclusive, is a reactionary center at critical conjunction of storm causes. Gales, blizzard and cold wave following. The month will end with a storm brewing.

The United States Supreme Court has affirmed the decision of the Circuit Court for the California circuit refusing a writ of habeas corpus to William Henry Theodore Durrant, under sentence of death for the murder of Miss Blanche Lamont, in San Francisco in April, 1895. The case has attracted attention throughout the whole of the United States and the decision permits the law to take its course with the condemned man. Chief Justice Fuller announced the court's conclusion, but made no remarks in doing so, save to cite a few authorities on which the court based its decision. Judge Bahrs of San Francisco, ordered that Durrant be hanged yesterday, but the Supreme Court of California granted a stay of the writ of execution and the date is now uncertain.

The Society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Animals, in Baltimore, makes the following report of work accomplished by the society during month of October: Drivers dismounted from overloaded carts, 89; drivers cautioned concerning treatment of animals, 68; animals ordered off street, as unfit for work, 11; animals examined, 27; Arrests made, 4; convictions secured, 4; complaints unjustified, 4; total number of investigations, 206; remedied without prosecution, 199. Agents of the society notice much improvement in the general condition and treatment of animals, which together with the decreasing number of complaints indicates that the society's work is having the desired effect.

STATE CHRISTIAN ENDEAVOR CONVENTION.

The eighth annual convention of the Christian Endeavor Societies of this state was held at Central Presbyterian Church, Baltimore, this week. Mr. Geo. H. Birnie, of Taneytown, was elected one of the vice-presidents of the State Union for the ensuing year. At a junior rally, on Thursday afternoon, Miss Mary B. Shellman, of this city, delivered an address on the topic, "What Can Women Do for Christian Citizenship." She said, in part:

"The men of this country have a great work in politics to overthrow bossism, but women also have their work. The holy Sabbath is being made a day of recreation by too many of our young people. Compare them, however, with the vast number of young people who belong to our different church societies, and the future does not appear so gloomy. The young women of Baltimore have reason to congratulate themselves, for on the recent Sunday century run, in which fully three hundred and fifty riders participated, there were only thirteen young women who so far forgot their duty to God to thus desecrate the Sabbath.

"Good women do not want to go to the polls, but leave that desire to the few monstrosities of their sex who call themselves the "new women." Women have a great work to perform, but let each one work in her own sphere and our efforts will be crowned with success. Men may fight for clean politics, but unless women teach virtue and patriotism at home their efforts will prove futile. Hand in hand with Christianity goes total abstinence. Much good can also be done for social purity."

The three-year-old boy of J. A. Johnson, of Lynn Center, Ill., is subject to attacks of croup. Mr. Johnson says he is satisfied that the timely use of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy, during a severe attack, saved his little boy's life. He is in the drug business, a member of the firm of Johnson Bros. of that place and they handle a great many patent medicines for throat and lung diseases. He had all these to choose from, and skilled physicians ready to respond to his call, but selected this remedy for use in his own family at the time when his child's life was in danger, because he knew it to be superior to any other, and famous the country over for its cures of croup. Mr. Johnson says this is the best selling cough medicine they handle, and that it gives splendid satisfaction in all cases. Sold by Joseph D. Zepp, Druggist, Westminster, and W. R. Rudy, Mt. Airy.

In Memoriam.

"There is no flock, however watched and tended,
But one dead lamb is there;
There is no fireside, howsoe'er defended,
But has one vacant chair."

It was with universal regret and sincere sympathy for the bereaved household, that the news was received, on Sunday evening last, November 7th, that Hattie Huber, youngest daughter of Mr. A. H. Huber, a well known druggist of this city, had been suddenly taken from the happy home circle.

Death brings sorrow at all times, but when he carries away the fairest blossom, it is hard to breathe the prayer of resignation and say:

"Thy will, not mine, be done."

No fairer flower ever bloomed, no sweeter life ever ended than that of the dear girl whose amiable and affectionate disposition endeared her to many, and whose bright and promising young life has so early been cut down by the "Reaper."

As a student at Western Maryland College and at home, her bright and happy disposition made her a general favorite, and she possessed the pleasing faculty of making warm friends wherever she was known.

Her short life is ended; she is crowned without the conflict; her cross has been forever laid down, and she sleeps, for so "He giveth his beloved sleep." Her new-made grave was covered with floral tributes from friends, our tears have mingled and her memory will remain green in the minds and hearts of all.

But we will not wish Hattie back, for she is too fair for this earth.

We think it is a hard thing to be shut out from our friends, but Hattie is among loved ones. Though but 21 years of age, she was ready to go. Her body lies in the cold, cold ground, but her spirit has gone to dwell with the ransomed in heaven.

A FRIEND.
