RISING RAPIDLY IN THE WORLD.—Alfred Bakken of the Norge Ski Club, Chicago, making the spectators gasp in a hair-raising ski jump at the National Ski Tournament at Dartsboro, Vt.

Wide World Photos

HOW THEY DO IT IN PARIS.

Chair mender of the French capital, who is a familiar figure on the boulevards, with his tricycle loaded to the height of a dozen or more feet with furniture, he is taking to his shop for repairs.

Wide World Photos

STARS AND STRIPES PITTED AGAINST THE MAPLE LEAF

Dragon of the American goal by the Canadian hockey team in the final match of the Olympic games at Chamonix, France. The Canadians were the victors.

Pictorial

SOMETHING OF A SPILL.—Thoroughbred Ay Hath parting company with his jockey, Blessed, after jumping the ditch in the Stanley Cup Steeplechase at Sandown Park, England. Apart from a bad shaking up, the rider escaped serious injury.

International