"That is welcome!" exclaimed Herr Schwartze. "Wilkommen! That is the German's welcome to his goot frient—his American frient."

"How good you are!" said Anne, and all the story of her gratefulness, her new zest in life, seemed to breathe in the words. "I—I never was happy before. I never had a friend. I didn't know what it was to"— And then she stopped, confused, and quick tears welled to her eyes.

"You haf been what they call the unter dog in the fight," he said. "I haf seen it. I haf watched. I know. And my heart hass melted for you, beholding your patience and loving service to all, who loved you none at all in return."

In his heat and earnestness Herr Schwartze's talk grew more and more broken, but Anne understood him, and her pale cheek flushed. She steadied herself with one hand against the door, and, seeing this, he led her to the big chair by the fire, so carefully, so tenderly, that quiet tears gleamed again in her great dark eyes.

Herr Schwartze looked at her a moment, then held out a strong, impulsive hand. "I haf not much to offer you, but what I haf and am iss yours," he said. "Will you take it, mp goot Mees Anna? This hand knows how to work for those it loves, and you I love; yes, dearly, dearly."

When Aunt Holmes, drawn by some deep instinct, softly pushed upen the sitting room door she nearly fainted at the sight she saw. Anne, Anne, the dull, the incapable, holding Herr Schwartze's ample hand and looking as if all the sparkles of the stars had stolen into her eyes.

"What does this mean, Mr. Schwartze—Anne?" she demanded in righteous wrath.

Mr. Schwartze made her his gravest bow, though his face was radiant.

"It means, my dear madam, that Mees Anna here iss tomorrow my wife, and we go out to build our home place together."

And the audacious boarder, before her very eyes, laid a protecting hand upon the head of Miss Anne, the dependent.

HEALTH "DON'TS."

Don't neglect your house drains, nor the drainage about your house. The first condition of family health is a dry and sweet atmosphere. With dry walls, a dry cellar, and drains that carry off refuse without letting in foul gases, half the battle for good health is won.

Don't let your wells or springs be infected by drainage or from other causes. Pure water is indispensable for health at home or anywhere.

Don't keep the sun out of your living and sleeping rooms. Sunlight is absolutely necessary for a right condition of the atmosphere that we breathe and for our bodily well-being.

Don't sleep in the same flannels that you wear during the day.

Don't wear thin socks or light-soled shoes in cold weather.

Don't catch cold. Catching cold is much more preventable than is generally supposed. A person in good physicalcondition is not liable to colds, and will not fall victim to them unless he is grossly careless. Keep the feet warm and dry, the head cool, the bowels and chest well protected; avoid exposure with an empty stomach;take care not to cool off too rapidly when heated; keep out the draughts; wear flannels; and with the exercise of a little common sense in various emergencies, colds will be rare. If colds were a penal offence, we should soon find a way to prevent them.

Don't neglect personal cleanliness, but use the bath with moderation and in accordance with your general health. The daily cold bath is right enough with the rugged, but it is a great tax upon the vitality of persons not in the best health, and should be abandoned if the results are not found to be favorable, and tepid water used instead. Each man in these things should be a judge for himself; that which is excellent for one is often hurtful for another.

Don't have much confidence in the curative nature of drugs. The above is from the Phrenological Journal, which adds: Remember that Dr. Good Habits, Dr. Diet, and Dr. Exercise are the best doctors in the world.

Laura—Charlie must be very devoted, for he always seems to be bobbing up like a cork in your vicinity?

Nonie—Yes, but he's not the right sort of a cork or he would pop.

Mr. Kissam—What sort of fireworks do you like best, Miss Sears?

Miss Sears—Oh, the torpedo.

Mr. Kissam—Why?

Miss Sears—Torpedoes pop so delightfully.

"Would you please help me?" said the poor begger to the pedestrian. "I have a wife and five children at home, and an installment to pay on my bicycle tomorrow."

The devil has relations to burn.

"That joke," he said, "is no good."

"What's the matter with it?"

"Why, I never saw the point of it at all until it was explained to me, and when a diagram has to be sent along with a joke it is evident that something is wrong with the joke."

"Or with the reader."

A lady teacher in Tennessee told one of the boys to name all the presidents, and when he replied that he couldn't, the teacher said: "When I was as old as you I could name all the presidents in their order." The boy replied: "There was only a few presidents then."

"That woman told me that she wanted to make her photograph look pretty."

"What did you say?

"I told her I would if she would sign a contract not to make a fuss if it didn't look like her."

Slobbs—"I wonder why people will foolishly donate big sums for South African heathens?"

Blobbs—"It's only a natural effect to make their money go as far as possible."

Mrs. Bacon—Did you offer Crimsonbeak your umbrella when he went out?

Mr. Bacon—No, I didn't have a chance; he took it.

Blankets and Comforts.

Our display in this department is well worth seeing. Blankets from 39c to $9.00. Comforts from 50c up. We buy direct in this line, in the original packages, and consequently are in a position to sell you cheaper than others who buy from second hands.

Carpets.

We have made radical changes and completely renovated this department. Everything new in Brussels, Tapestrys, Velvets and Ingrains. A particularly strong line of Brussels at 50 cents.

Hats for Men.

We have been the Hatters for the town—never more so than this season. We sell the celebrated Beaver and Hopkins Hats. We are showing green stiff and flange Hats among our novelties.

Men's Shoes.

It has long been an axiom, "to get a good pair of Shoes go to Orndorff's." We sell the celebrated lines of Parker, Holmes & Co's. and W. L. Douglas' Patent Leathers, Black and Russet Enamels, Black and Russet Boxcalves, Black and Oxblood Seal Skins; Cordovans and Calfskins. A particularly strong line at $4.00 and $5.00.

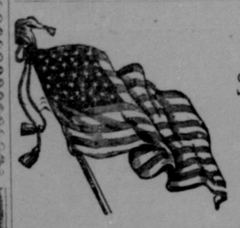

LADIES' SHOES.

There is no shoe that is better known than the justly famous Moody Shoe. We have had exclusive control of this line for 10 years. Any of our customers on these shoes can tell you all about their durability. We are showing some handsome shapes in purples and greens.

SPECIAL BARGAINS IN EVERY DEPARTMENT.—Our two Stores make the greatest mercantile establishment in Wsstern Maryland. In most instances it enables us to buy from first hands, thus saving the middlemen's profit. This we give to our patrons. Quality for quality you can buy cheaper at the Underselling Stores than anywhere else.

A Word with You.

It is worth your while to give attention to some reasons why you should be a reader of THE PHILADELPHIA PRESS.

THE PRESS is the greatest home newspaper of the United States. Its record of each day's events, in all parts of the world, is more complete than that of any other paper. It has no space for sensationalism or anything tending to lower the moral tone.

No other Philadelphia paper has equal facilities for obtaining prompt and accurate reports of news events, wherever they may occur. Reporters for THE PRESS are in every section of Philadelphia every day; special correspondents of THE PRESS are stationed at every county seat and important town in Pennsylvania, New Jersey, Delaware and Maryland, and at every news center in the United States and the old world.

No other Philadelphia paper equals THE PRESS in its special departments—the woman's page; the literary page; the market page; the pages devoted to church news, society news, G. A. R. news, school news, sporting news, etc.

THE PRESS is an advocate of the principles of the Republican party, but it prints the news of all political events more fully than any other paper; hence THE PRESS should be your paper, no matter what your political opinions are, if you wish to be well informed. In a word, THE PHILADELPHIA PRESS prints all the news all the time.

Send in your address. Sample copy of THE PRESS will be mailed free. If you are fair-minded you will read it regularly.

THE DAILY PRESS is mailed to subscribers for $6.00 a year (50 cts. a month) payable in advance; THE SUNDAY PRESS, $2.50 a year; THE DAILY and SUNDAY PRESS, $8.00 a year (70 cts. a month); THE WEEKLY PRESS, $1.00 a year. A liberal commission is allowed to persons who solicit subscriptions or to persons who will place THE PRESS on sale in localities where there are no agents. Wall Paper! Wall Paper!

I wish to call the attention of my friends and the public in general to the fact that I now am ready to show one of the ever exhibited in this county, bought direct from the factory, in full bundle lots, so you get it only from second hands, no two or three profits coming off it. Of course the consumer pays them all. Sam Jones says it takes a putter pup nine days to get his eyes open. I have known some people to get their's open in fifteen minutes in a wall paper deal. They thought it was two pieces instead of one, and the border they did not understand, &c. That is always their plea. Remember I am the only paper hanger in the county that carries a stock and don't have the expense of running a store, therefore I have no opposition. If you think I can't save you money, come and see me and bring size of your room, or send size by mail and I will tell you what your job will cost, and send samples and convince you that Gladhill's is the place to save twenty-five cents on a dollar in wall paper.
