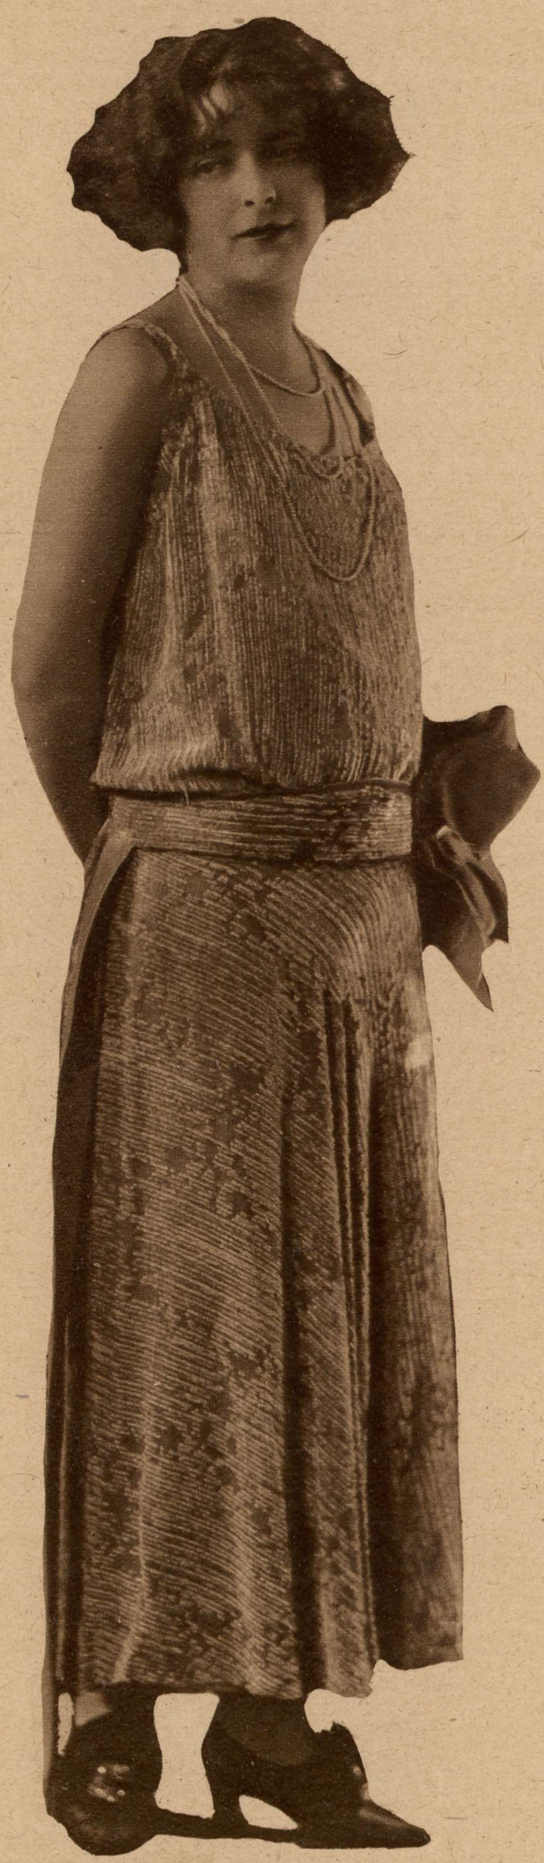
RADCLIFFE EXULTS OVER ITS FIRST MOVIE STAR.—Colleen Moore, the "flapper" in "Flaming Youth," in the center of an admiring throng of Radcliffe undergraduates on her recent honeymoon trip to Boston. More than 500 students assembled beneath the "Old Apple Tree" and cheered her enthusiastically.



READY FOR THE "VIEW HALLS."—Pack of the high class hunting dogs used by members of the Louisiana Gulf Coast Club on their hunting grounds near New Iberia, one of the most extensive preserves in the South.

SIMPLE, BUT DISTINCTIVE, is this gown of printed chim-ring, with large bow at the girdle and long drape extending down the back below the hem. The skirt is traced in artistic designs. Worn by Vivian Tobin.

Tornello

FOR SPORTS WEAR.—Little coat in bright colors, ornamented with lacquer red and dark blue crepe circular designs. A decidedly smart effect is given by the scalloped edges.

White Studio

© Maryland State Archives mdsa_sc3410_1_81-0806.jpg