Carroll County Veterans Offer Their Services.

That the fires of patriotism burn as brightly as ever in the hearts of the veterans who fought to maintain the unity of the country, is forcibly indicated by the following correspondence:

HEADQUARTERS BURNS POST, G. A. R.,
Westminster, Md., March 28th, 1898.

To His Excellency, Hon. William McKinley, President of the United States.

HONORED SIR:

Since developments indicate that a serious crisis in our national affairs is now impending which may lead to actual war, and while we know that in your hands and under your guidance nothing will be done by this government to precipitate a conflict unless the honor and dignity of this nation demand such a course, we, comrades of the G. A. R., do hereby tender our services to the government whenever needed, with a full company of one hundred men, to defend the honor and dignity of the United States, of which you are the honored head, and in whose hands we feel that the National honor is perfectly safe.

We, having seen service in the field and having vivid recollections of the horrors of war, the suffering and miseries, the agonies of death of our more unfortunate comrades, still most respectfully request to be called upon, whenever the emergency arises, to show our loyalty to the Country and Flag.

Most Respectfully Yours, in F. C. & L.,
JAMES S. BAER,
Commander.

A Successful Former Westminsterian.

The Coatesville, Pa., Times has the following complimentary allusion concerning Mr. G. Edwin Weaver, younger son of Mr. J. Edwin Weaver, of this city, who went to Coatesville a few years ago, and is now a resident of that place:

Wm. R. Jackson and G. Edwin Weaver, two of Coatesville's well-known young men, have purchased the store of the late L. Harvey Humphrey, and taken possession of same. We bespeak for these young men success in their undertaking. Mr. Jackson was for eight years manager of Mr. Humphery's store and has a thorough knowledge of the boot and shoe business. Mr. Weaver learned the printing trade in the TIMES office, and is a young man who makes friends of all with whom he comes in contact, and is one of those many characters that is destined to achieve success in life in any calling he may adopt. The new firm is a strong one, and both being young men of the strictest integrity, success will follow their undertakings.

Westminster Mud.

MR. EDITOR.—The ladies of this city and many of the gentlemen thank you for your occasional allusions to the need of street crossings. Did the people of Westminster agree to spend $25,000 or more that they might have the privilege of wading through mud shoe-deep when compelled to cross the street? Keep hammering away at this matter, Mr. Editor. The people are with you. Street crossings are, just now, the most imperative necessity and they should be provided without further delay. If they cannot be obtained in any other way they should be made an issue at the next election.

The wet weather of the past week has been quite a hindrance to the farming community and, if continued through another week, will crowd the work for many who have changed homes, or who did not take advantage of the fine March weather.

At this writing our town and community are up side down—a regular seesaw of teams, up and down, in and out of town, loaded with the effects of many families who are changing their homes. The all absorbing topic of conversation and discussion of this community is the probable war between Spain and the United States. The excitement has nearly reached fever heat, and you can hear the matter discussed on evey street corner, by-road and alley, by the old as well as the young. Even those who have reached the age of three score and ten can hardly be restrained from shouldering their muskets and marching to the front.

Mr. M. H. Zile, the well known proprietor of the creamery of this place and a leading member of Washington Camp No. 15, P. O. S. of A., presented the camp at a regular meeting of the same with a beautiful portrait of the illustrious Washington, in a very neat, touching and patriotic speech, which was replied too by other members of the camp, and on motion, Mr. Zile was tendered an unanimous vote of thanks by the camp, showing their great appreciation of his kindness, and of the picture of America's greatest patriot.

Will Case Decided.

The contested will case of Elscroad and others vs. Mary Elizabeth Armacost, which had engaged the attention of the Orphans' Court of this county for several days last week and this, has been decided in favor of the caveators. The case excited much interest in Woolery's and Hampstead districts, of which the parties interested are residents.

The will caveated was that of Cornelius Armacost, who devised his entire estate to his daughter, Mary Elizabeth Armacost, charging her with the care and support of her mother, the testator's wife. The will was caveated by Ellen Elscroad, daughter of the testator, and her husband, Columbus Elscroad, and others, and the widow of the testator united in the petition to set it aside. The court decided that the testator was of unsound mind and incapable of making a valid will or contract. One of the judges dissented. The estate is valued at $5,000. Michael E. Walsh appeared for the caveators and George L. Stocksdale for the caveatees.

Gist Items.

Mr. and Mrs. Francis Shauck, of this place, visited Mrs. Shauck's parents at Pikesville, on Saturday and Sunday last.

Owing to the inclement weather of last week the oyster supper which was billed for Wednesday and Thursday evenings, by the P. O. S. of A., at their new hall here, was postponed and held on Friday and Saturday evenings. A large crowd was present each evening, and all seemed to enjoy themselves very much. The gross receipts were about $53.00.

Mr. D. N. McQuay received quite a scare last Saturday night whilst returning from the oyster supper held at this place. He says a ghost of some sort, seemingly like a large dog, got hold of his cart and followed him some distance, he being unable to drive away from it until he met a gentleman on the road with a lantern, when the ghost suddenly disappeared. This happened near our town, but we can give no account of the 'ghost.' We venture to say, however, that we have some widowers and bachelors as well as widows in our town and this may be used as a key to the mystery.

Mr. Cornelius H. Shipley had a sale of personal property on Thursday of last week. Everything sold well. His sale amounted to over $850.00. Mr. Shipley has moved to the house he purchased of D. E. McQuay, and Mr. McClellan Wagner has moved into the house vacated by Mr. Shipley.

One of our young men had the misfortune to lose his overshoes in the mud last Saturday night. That was bad but the other fellow got the worst—he lost his girl.

We are very much gratified to learn that Mr. D. E. McQuay, who was reported seriously burned by the explosion of melted babbitt, two weeks ago, is able to be out and, whilst his face is seriously scarred by the burns, we are happy to say he will not lose the sight of his eye, as it was feared he might do. We also accept the sympathy for Mr. McQuay tendered him by our esteemed Taylorsville friend.

Mrs. Simon Keefer is on the sick list with a bad cold.

"The goat's dead," is the report from Taylorsville, as the result of our esteemed correspondent from that place being initiated in the order of the P. O. S. of A., of which we are, ourself, a member, and therefore welcome him into the fold. But poor "Billy" is dead. He was hardy and strong. He could give and take, and generally thought any old thing would do, but our brother correspondent's initiation settled him. He died a short while afterward. We are glad, however, that "Billy" helped him to take another good step in life, before his sudden demise.

Mr. Wm. Grimes is very sick with inflammatory rheumatism and pneumonia.

The recent wet weather has thrown farmers back with their spring work.

Grain and grass are looking well since the warm weather.

We haven't heard much about the railroad project recently, but will say that the Morgan Run route would be by far the most profitable.

A bill is before the Legislature to divide Freedom district into two election districts instead of two precincts. The bill should be so amended that the present road commissioners could work the two districts and there would then be no additional expense to the county. The bill in that shape should be passed at once.

New Windsor Items.

On the evening of the 31st ult., the Carroll County Cornet Band, of Westminster, consisting of thirty-five well trained performers, gave a grand concert in Odd Fellows' Hall, this place. From its earliest announcement, it became the star attraction among the music-loving people, and a large and appreciative audience greeted the performers. Every reserved seat had been disposed of, long in advance of the occasion. The performance was a most creditable affair, and elicited applause to the echo. The following program was exquisitely rendered:

Harney Items.

We are having quite a spell of wet weather and farmers have been delayed with their spring work, which they had commenced during the nice weather two weeks ago. Some oats have been sowed, potatoes planted and garden made. The peach buds are much developed and the trees will be in full bloom after a few days warm sun.

Mr. Daniel Hess, Jr., moved into our town last week and is now a citizen of Harney. Mr. John King moved here the week before, thus making two new families in our town. Mr. Edgar Shriver moved from here to a farm beyond Gettysburg. The wet weather the past two weeks has made moving very unpleasant.

Rev. J. O. Clippinger, pastor of the U. B. Church here, will preach a temperance sermon next Sabbath evening. His text will be "Wine is a mocker." All are invited.

Mr. W. J. Robinson left his home in Pennsylvania, last week, and is now living with his daughter in this county.

The grain through this section of country is looking well, except in low ground. The grass and wheat is as forward now as they were last year the middle of April.

A One-Sided Game.

A one-sided game of ball was played on the New Windsor College grounds last Saturday between the Unionville nine, consisting of players from Frederick and Carroll counties, and the college team. The game was close and exciting, and the result was in doubt until P. Whitehill was knocked out of the box. Nicodemus was put in then. He was invincible and had the college boys at his mercy. They did not make a hit off of him or score. Wolf was an easy mark for the visiting team. They hit at will. The features were Nicodemus' fine pitching, and R. Danner's stick work. 1 home run, three 3-baggers, one 2-bagger one single. Davis did fine work behind the bat for the Unionville.
