NOTES DISRESPECT FOR DOG LAWS.

More rigid enforcement of the Dog Laws throughout Baltimore County is advocated by the Grand Jury for the May term of Court, which convened this week.

In its report, the Grand Inquest stated it found the citizens of the County to be law-abiding, with the exception of an increasing number of violations of the Prohibition laws.

Modification of existing laws to conform to the wishes of the majority of the people of the County and State was suggested as a possible remedy. . . . . .

ORDER OF PUBLICATION.

WALTER P. MEINHARDT
vs.
ALEXANDRIA MEINHARDT,
nee ALEZANDRIA RADOJEWSKI.

IN THE CIRCUIT COURT FOR BALTIMORE COUNTY, IN EQUITY.

The object of this suit is to procure a Divorce a vinculo matrimonii by the Plaintiff, Walter P Meinhardt from the Defendantt Alexandria Meinhardt, nee Alexandria Radojewski.

The bill recites that the parties were married on the 5th day of February, 1907, in Charlottenburg, in Berlin, Germany; ;that two children were born to the parties as a result of said marriage; that while the conduct of the plaintiff toward the defendant has always been kind, affectionate and beyond reproach the defendant without any just cause or excuse abandoned and deserted the plaintiff on or about December, 1909, and has declared her intention to live with him no longer, that said separation has continued uninterruptedly since said time and is deliberate and final and the separation of the parties is beyond any reasonable hope of reconciliation. The bill further states that the defendant, Alexandria Meinhardt, nee Alexandria Radojewski, has committed adultery in various times and occasions in Charlottenburg, in Berlin, Germany, and elsewhere since their said marriage and said offenses have not been condoned by your orator; that your orator is a citizen of the United States, residing at Halethorpe, Baltimore County, Maryland, and has been a resident of said State for more than two years prior to the institution of said suit.

That the defendant is a non-resident of the United States, residing at Charlottenburg, in Berlin, Germany.

That the two infant children, aforesaid, are being maintained in Boarding Schools by the plaintiff and that the said plaintiff desires their guardianship and custody.

It is thereupon this 15th day of May, 1924, ordered by the Circuit Court for Baltimore County, in Equity, that the said plaintiff by causing a copy of this order to be inserted in some newspaper published and printed in Baltimore County once in each of four successive weeks before the 16th day of June, 1924, give notice to the absent denfenant of the object and substance of this bill and warning her to be and appear in this Court in person or by Solicitor

On or before the 2nd day of July, 1924, to show cause, if any she may have, why a decree should not be passed as prayed.
