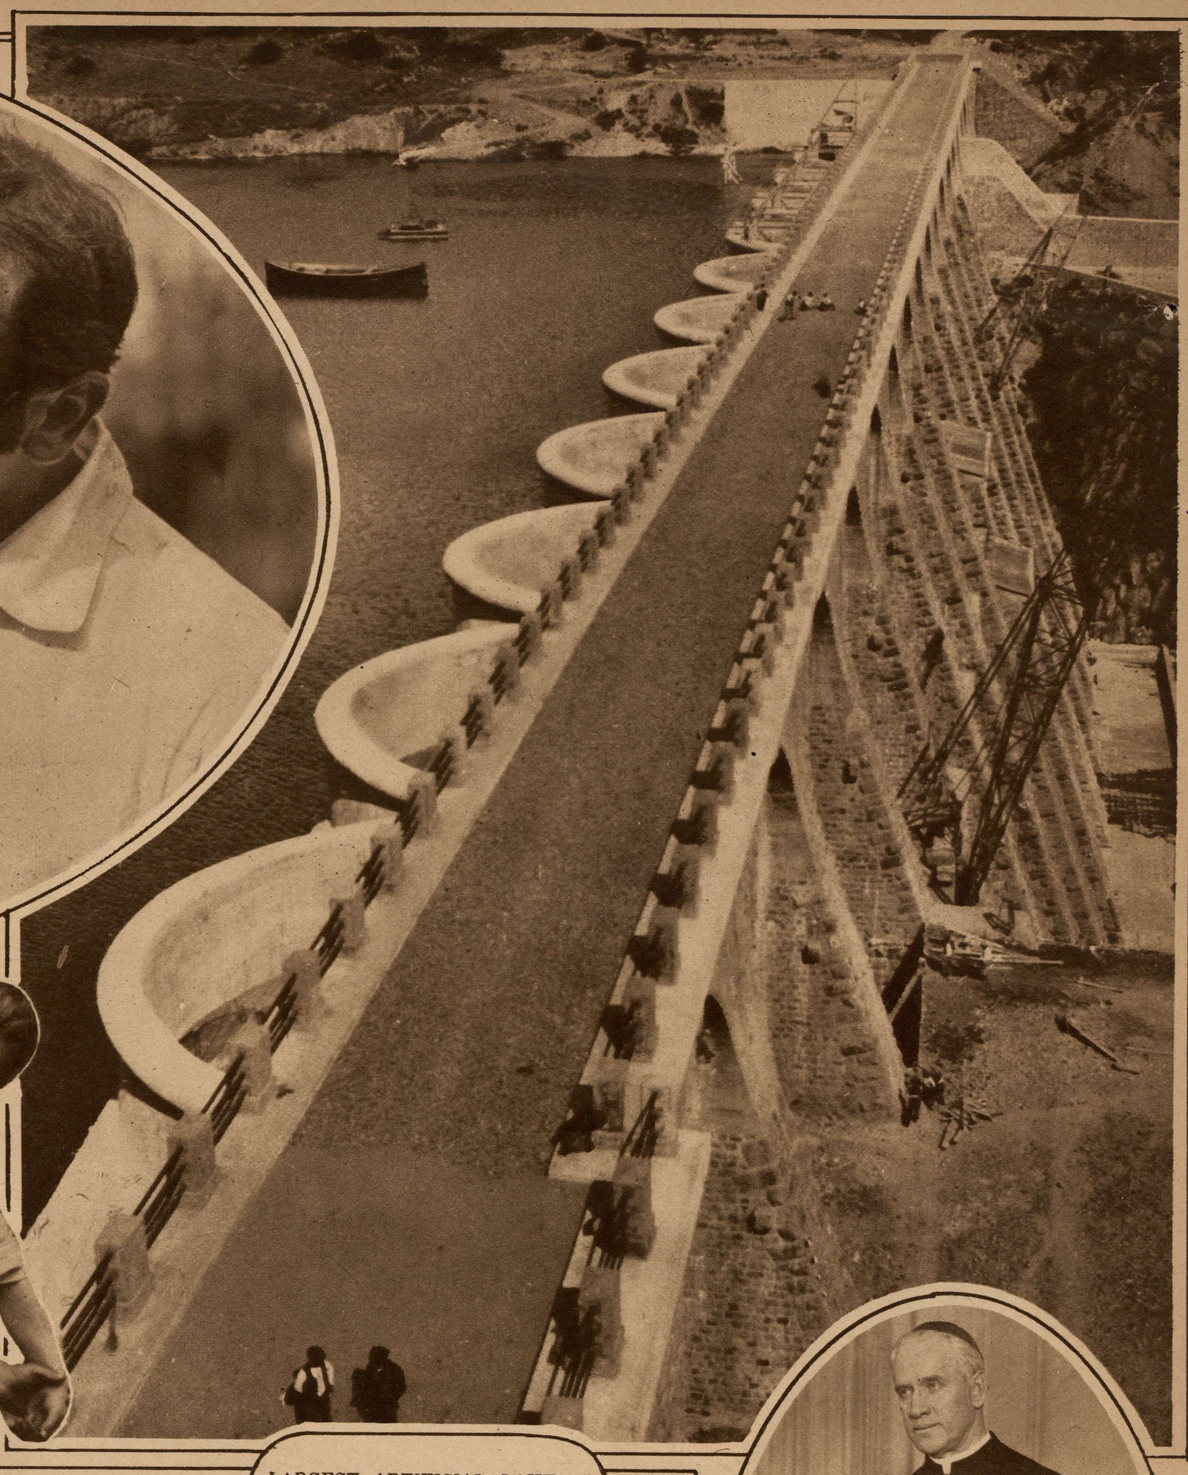
"GIVE US A LIGHT, BOSS." George Carrossella, animal trainer at the Selig Zoo in Los Angeles, showing the usual courtesy of one smoker to another to one of his pets, which is said to be the only cigar-smoking tiger in captivity.

International



LARGEST ARTIFICIAL LAKE IN EUROPE.—Colossal dyke that hems in the Lake of Tirso, Italy, which is twelve miles long, five miles wide and whose waters develop 100,000 horsepower of electrical energy.

International

CAN'T COME TOO HOT FOR NICK.
Clown of the diamond, Nick Altrock, with a "stingless" glove, presented to him by admirers, defying the pitchers to make his hands burn during a recent visit of the Washington team to Boston.

Wide World Photos

AT SEVENTEEN THE HEAVIEST BOY IN ENGLAND.—George Sparks of Highbury, who weighs 287 pounds, supporting with perfect ease on his shoulders a full-grown man weighing 168 pounds.

Kadel and Herbert

CLEVEREST SKATING TEAM IN THE WORLD is the distinction claimed for these experts in the skating palace of Milan, Italy, whose remarkable "stunts" on the ice have created a sensation in that country.

Wide World Photos

FIRST AMERICAN CARDINAL TO BROADCAST A MESSAGE.—Cardinal Hayes, Archbishop of New York, speaking to hundreds of thousands of invisible auditors from a radio station of the metropolis in behalf of Catholic charities.

International

MORE SPECTACULAR THAN EVER.
Dazzling illumination of Luna Park, Coney Island, which opened recently with ten acres of amusements added, making it one of the greatest entertainment centers of the world.

Weiss

FIVE FLYING NYMPHS IN THE AIR AT ONCE.
Girls of the Christie Players at Hollywood clearing the hurdles, an exercise which they claim is necessary to retain the slender forms demanded by the bathing suits and straight line costumes of the present season.

International

© Maryland State Archives mdsa_sc3410_1_81-1019.jpg