A Tract of Land, Containing 120 Acres, for Sale.

A TRACT OF LAND, CONTAINING ONE HUNDRED AND TWENTY ACRES, about forty acres well adapted to grass, and the balance upland, with an abundant supply of TIMBER and WOOD for all purposes of the farm. The improvements consist of TWO LOG HOUSES, one of which is very comfortable.

The above tract of land is situated within three miles of the Navy Yard Bridge, and adjoining the lands of Messrs. Young, Wankowiectz, and Captain Gibson, and a little east of the Piscataway Road leading from the bridge. Soil admirably adapted to garden purposes, and now under good inclosure. Possession will be given upon sale of the premises.

A plat of the land can be seen in the hands of H. Naylor, Esq., at the City Hall, Washington.

Letters of inquiry, addressed to the undersigned, Surrattsville, Prince George's County, Maryland, will meet with prompt attention.

$200 REWARD.

RANAWAY from the subscriber, living in the village of Nottingham, Prince George's County, Maryland, on Monday night, the 8th instant, negro girl MARIA, who calls herself

MARIA CHEW.

She is about eighteen years of age, about four feet ten or eleven inches high. She is very likely, and has a pleasant smiling face. She has a remarkably fine suit of hair for one of her color, has a good set of teeth, of a light copper color, and is, altogether, a fine looking girl.

I will give the above reward of two hundred dollars for her apprehension—no matter where taken—provided she is brought home to me or secured in jail, so that I get her again.

The Washington Star will please copy till forbid, forward one paper to advertiser, and bill to this office.

$100 REWARD.

RANAWAY from the subscriber, living near Upper Marlborough, Prince George's County, Maryland, negro man

ISAAC.

He is about fifty-five years of age: about five feet ten or eleven inches high; very black. One of his legs bend—but which one not recollected. There is one peculiarity about him, and that is, when spoken to, he is apt to raise his hand and scratch his head. He has a wife belonging to Samuel B. Anderson, Esq., living near Tenally Town, Montgomery County, where, I have no doubt, he is lurking. He has also relations belonging to the estate of the late Col. Trueman Cross, on his plantation, near Upper Marlborough.

I will give the above reward for his apprehension,—no matter where taken,—provided he is brought home or secured in jail, so that I get him again.

ROBERT A. CLAGETT.

September 24, 1856—tf

$50 Reward.

RANAWAY from the subscriber, living near the Brick Church, in the Forest of Prince George's County, Maryland, on Tuesday, the 16th of September, 1856, negro man BEN, commonly called

BENJAMIN DUCKETT.

I purchased him from Mr. Edmund B. Duvall, who owns his father. His mother belongs to Mr. Marcus Du Val, near Buena Vista Post Office, in this county; and he, no doubt, may be found in that neighborhood.

BEN is of a dark ginger color, about twenty-five years of age, five feet ten or eleven inches high; has an impediment in his speech, and when spoken to has a down look and pats his left foot. His clothing not recollected, as he has various kinds.

I will give the above reward for his apprehension—no matter where taken—provided he is brought home or secured in jail, so that I get him again.

Navy of the Revolution.

TO THE SURVIVING OFFICERS OF REPRESENTATIVES OF THE NAVY OF THE REVOLUTION.—Congress having at the last session of the navy officers of the Revolutionary army bill to provide "for the settlement of the claims of the officers of the Revolutionary army and for other purposes," granting half-pay for the widows and orphan children of those who served to the close of the war, which passed in the House of Representatives by a small majority, and only awaits the final action of the Senate on the third Tuesday of December next; and as said bill unjustly excludes all officers of the navy—no less meritorious than those of the army—the undersigned, being the sole surviving chief of the late Commodore Joshua Barney, in behalf of himself and of the orphan children of his deceased brothers and sisters, applied to the Senate to incorporate the navy with the army in said bill, but at too late a period to be acted on successfully; the bill was therefore postponed until December next.

In order to secure success to said amendment by concert of action of all those interested, he respectfully requests the heirs and representatives of said officers throughout the United States to forward to him, at Washington, their quarter bills, &c. in the navy of the United States at the close of the war, and he will employ agents to prepare their memorials and urge their claims upon the justice of Congress to the same compensation as may be awarded to the army officers.

Prompt action is indispensable, and therefore earnestly requested.

The History of the Russian War,

BEAUTIFULLY illustrated with steel line engravings, is now being issued by the London Printing and Publishing Company. It is nearly completed. As far as published, it contains all the dispatches, and Mr. RUSSELL'S (correspondent of the London Times) graphic letters—he having been an eye witness to nearly all of the scenes enacted in this great struggle.

The London Local Agent is now in the country, where our citizens may have an opportunity of obtaining this valuable publication. In addition to the above, the Agent is prepared to furnish copies of several other valuable works, comprising a beautifully illustrated edition of Shakspeare, containing portraits of all the principal actors; an edition of engravings of all the paintings of Hogarth; Lodge's celebrated Portrait Gallery; The Beauties of Moore; and the Flowers of Loveliness, by the Countess of Blessington, all superbly illustrated. July 16, 1856.

Flickinger's Threshing Machines.

THE above are undoubtedly the best, most durable and cheapest Threshing Machines in use at this time, and have given perfect satisfaction to all who have tried them. They will be delivered at any Depot between Laurel Factory and Washington, at the following prices, payable in cash on delivery: For the 4 horse power $100, the 6 horse power $120—each $10 less without the straw shaker. I refer to the following gentlemen who purchased last year: John B. Magruder, Marsham Warring, Dennis Duvall, William W. Hill, Robert Clark, John Higgins, Edward Herbert and Nicholas Snowden.

Orders addressed to the subscriber at Beltsville will meet with prompt attention.

E. G. EMACK, Agent.
