The funeral was held Saturday morning, with reqiuem mass in the Church of the Immaculate Conception. Burial was in the adjoining cemetery.

LEVI K. BOWEN

Levi K. Bowen, of Wilmington, died Sunday night at the home of his son, Knowles R. Bowen, in Kennett Square, Pa., after a brief illness. For many years he and his family lived in Newark, and while there Mr. Bowen was publisher of the Newark Ledger.

Sunday he went to Kennett Square to see his grandson, Knowles R. Bowen, Jr., confirmed. While leaving the church he suffered a heart attack and was taken to the home of his son, where he died several hours later.

Mr. Bowen was born in Cecil county, Md., on July 4, 1857. He and his brother, John Mitchell Bowen, learned the printing trade together, and later started The Newark Ledger, which they published for many years.

Three daughters, one son, 13 grandchildren and one great-grandchild survive. Interment was made in Christiana cemetery, Wednesday afternoon.

PHILLIP F. BARRETT

Mr. Phillip F. Barrett, aged 79 years, of Havre de Grace, died at his home on North Stokes street in that town, Thursday morning after a long illness. He was born in Rowlandsville, Cecil county, May 21, 1858, the son of the late Theodore and Margaret Logan Barrett. He was a railway mail clerk for many years, running between New York and Washington, having been retired about eighteen years ago.

Mr. Barrett leaves a widow, Mrs. Sarah Mace Barrett, and four children, Stanley M. Barrett, one of the owners and editor of the Havre de Grace Republican; E. Allen Barrett, and Misses Helen M. and Marian C. Barrett, all of Havre de Grace. He also leaves one granddaughter.

The funeral was held Saturday afternoon at 2 o'clock at his home. Interment in Hopewell cemetery.

WEST NOTTINGHAM CARDS TWELVE GAMES

A hard schedule of twelve games has been arranged for Gress Hanna's West Nottingham Academy basball tossers this spring. Opening in Lancaster on April 14 with the strong Franklin and Marshall Academy nine, the high spots are Manchester, a leading high school team of York county, Pa., Goldey College, Newark, Del. H. S., Gilman School, Franklin Day School, and Bel Air H. S. A number of these teams, notably Gilman, is smarting from pastings received from last year's crack team, and will be seeking revenge.

If the current Maroon team, captained by William Reynolds of Rising Sun, Md., can dig up a reserve pitcher and a first baseman, it should go places.

The complete scedule follows: Franklin and Marshall Academy at Lancatser, April 14; Manchester High School, at West Nottingham, April 17; Goldey College, at Wilmington, April 21; Conrad High School, at Wilmington, April 24; Avon Grave High School, at West Nottingham, April 27; Bel Air High School, at Bel Air, May 1; Newark (Del.) High School, at West Nottingham, May 5; Gilman Country School, at West Nottingham, May 15; Goldey College, at West Nottingham, May 18; Franklin Day School, at West Nottingham, May 21; Conrad High School, at West Nottingham, May 26; Bel Air High School, at West Nottingham, May 29.

MARYLAND CROP SALES

The Maryland Crop Reporting Service estimated receipts from farm produce in the State during the first two months of this year were $6,582,000.

This is a substantial increase over figures for corresponding periods during the last four years.

The report estimates crop sales for the two months at $1,592,000 and live stock receipts at $4,490,000. The livestock total for the two months this year exceeds the entire farm-products total for 1934—$4,459,000.

Government payments under the AAA program this year were reported at $155,000, bringing to $6,737,000 the total income of farmers for the two months.

John Wallace McKinney, Plaintiff

vs.

Verna Alberta McKinney, Defendant

In the Circuit Court for Cecil County

In Equity No. 5178.

The object of this suit is to procure a Decree for divorce a vinculo matrimonii by John Wallace McKinney, Plaintiff, from Verna Alberta McKinney, the Defendant, and to obtain the custody of the children born of the said marriage.

The Bill of Complaint recites that on or about the 16th of November, 1924, the parties to the cause were married in the Town of Elkton, and that the Plaintiff resided with said Defendant in the said County during the first part of 1929, until on or about the latter part of April, 1929; that since said date, the Plaintiff has been a resident of said County; that, though the conduct of the Plaintiff towards his said wife, the asid Verna Alberta McKinney, has always been kind, affectionate and above aproach, the said Verna Albera McKinney has, without any just cause or reason, abandoned and deserted him, and had declared her intention to live with him no longer, and that such abandonment has continued uninterruptedly for at least three years and is deliberate and final, and the separation of the parties beyond any reasonable expectation of reconciliation; that three children were born as a result of said marriage, viz: Ethel Margaret McKinney, aged eleven years, Jean Gregg McKinney, aged ten years, and George Wallace McKinney, aged nine years; that since the latter part of April, 1929, when his said wife so deserted him as aforesaid, the Plaintiff has had the custody of said children, and has provided for their maintenance and support; and that the said Verna Alberta McKinney is at present a resident of the City of Wilmington, in the State of Delaware. The Bill of Complaint then prays: (1) that John Wallace McKinney may be divorced a vinculo matrimonii from Verna Alberta McKinney; (2) That the Plaintiff may be awarded the custody of the infant children of said marriage, that is, Ethel Margaret McKinney, Jean Gregg McKinney and George Wallace McKinney; and for such other and further relief as his case may require.

IT IS THEREUPON, this 29th day of March, A. D., 1937, ORDERED, BY THE CIRCUIT COURT FOR CECIL COUNTY, IN EQUITY, that the Plaintiff, John Wallace McKinney, by causing a copy of this Order to be inserted in some newspaper printed and published in Cecil County, once in each of four successive weeks on or before the 30th day of April, 1937, giving notice to the said absent Defendant, Verna Alberta McKinney, of the object and substance of this suit, and warning her to be and appear in this Honorable Court, either in person or by Solicitor on or before the 17th day of May, next, and show cause, if any she may have, why the relief hereinbefore mentioned should not be granted as prayed.
