DEATHS

ROBERT STEPHENSON

Robert Stephenson died in a Baltimore hospital on Jan. 3, from a lingering illness. Funeral services were held from the home of his sister, Miss Anna Stephenson, with interment at Hopewell cemetry. Most of his life was spent as a druggist in Port Deposit, Bel Air and Baltimore. He is survived by four sisters, Misses Anna, Helen and Mabel Stephenson, Mrs. John Tate of Boston, Mass., and a brother, Hugh Stephenson of Wilmington.

MRS. HARRIETT R. RACINE

Mrs. Harriett R. Racine, 81 years, died at her home in Elk Neck, Sunday, after a short illness. She was the widow of Charles D. Racine, for many years one of Cecil county's most progressive farmers. The following children survive him: William D. Racine, Wendell O. Racine, Geothe F. Racine, Elkton, R. D.; Irwin Racine, of Kennett Square, Pa.; Mrs. Harry Stafford, Newark, Del., and Mrs. Raymond Gillespie, Elkton. The funeral was held at 2 P. M. Wednesday from a funeral home. Interment in North East Methodist Cemetery.

MISS MARY E. TRIMBLE

Miss Mary E. Trimble, 47, daughter of Mrs. Eliza J. Trimble, Elkton, died Jan. 7, in the Wilmington General Hospital after an illness of several months.

The funeral was held Friday afternoon with services in the Trinity P. E. Church, Elkton, at 2 o'clock. Interment in the Elkton Presbyterian Cemetery.

The deceased had held a position for a number of years past in the office of the Triumph Fusee and Fireworks Company, Elkton. Besides her mother, she is survived by four brothers, Samuel Trimble, William Trimble, Charles Trimble and Amos Trimble, all of Elkton.

MRS. CARRIE B. RICHARDSON

Funeral services for Mrs. Carrie Bell Richardson, aged 51 years, who died in the St. Francis Hospital, Wilmington, New Year's Eve, as the result of a leg amputation, following diabetes, was held Friday afternoon from the Hirzel Funeral Chapel, Wilmington, at 2 o'clock. Rev. Walter Keene, at the Kingswood Methodist Church, officiated. Interment was made in Elkton cemetery.

The deceased was the daughter of the late Harry Walter Bell and Anna Elizabeth Soward Bell and was born in Elkton.

Besides her husband, William B. Richardson, she is survived by a brother, William H. Bell of Churchman's Road, New Castle, Delaware.

BENJAMIN O. BRISCOE

Benjamin O. Briscoe passed away at his home in this town on Friday, aged 73 years. The deceased was the last of a family of five sons and one daughter of the late Alexander and Rachel Briscoe. He was born on the farm just south of town, now owned by A. J. Long. His entire life was spent here, where he conducted a grocery business for a number of years, and later served as Justice of the Peace. His wife, Mrs. Ethel Briscoe, survives; also two nephews, Ernest M., of Balto., and Benjamin B., of Chester.

Funeral services were held at two o'clock Monday afternoon, with services at the late home, in charge of Rev. Thomas P. McKee, assisted by Rev. J. B. Dickerson. Masonic rites were held at the grave, the deceased being a member of Harmony Lodge of Masons, Port Deposit. Interment was made in West Nottingham Presbyterian cemetery. The pall bearers were Charles Crothers, Howard M. Wilson, Arthur J. Dinsmore, Job W. Kirk, Clinton Blackburn, Walter Todd and Thomas St. Clair.

MRS. J. FRANK FOSTER

Mrs. Lulu May Foster, wife of J. Frank Foster, died suddenly at her home, 1524 Carswell street, Baltimore, on Thursday afternoon. She was attending to her household duties, about one o'clock, when she suffered a stroke of paralysis, and passed away before medical aid could be summoned. The deceased was 70 years of age.

She was the daughter of the late Samuel and Rachel Trimble and was born at Chestnut Level, Pa.

The family for years resided at Colora, later moving to Baltimore. Surviving are her husband and the following sons and daughters: Rufus Foster, of Aberdeen; Mrs. Eva L. Breidenger, a missionary stationed in Africa; Philip Foster of Havre de Grace; Mrs. Margaret Powell, of Wilmington; Norman Foster, of Cherry Hill; Gorgan, Frank, Marshall, Mary Foster and Mrs. Frances Ford, of Baltimore. One brother also survives, Philip Trimble, of near Coatesville, Pa.

Services were held at the Tyson Funeral Home, in this town, on Sunday afternoon, at two o'clock, the funeral being largely attended.

Interment was made in West Nottingham Presbyterian cemetery.

Dressed in white lawn negligee Miss Betty Phillips, daughter of former Representative Alfred N. Phillips, Jr., and Mrs. Phillips of Worsell Manor, Cecilton, was featured in the first Pan-American costume revue, held recently in New York City.

The Reconstruction Period

Suppose your rented property should be damaged by fire. Who would pay the rent during the reconstruction? That's a question every property owner should ask himself. Unless you had insurance against this contingency, you would have to stand the loss yourself. Rent insurance will indemnify you for loss of rent during repairs or reconstruction due to fire, windstorm or other causes.

The cost is low.
