1741 John Galloway incoming Letter 1994

M[illegible] 25th 1741 — Maryland —

Mr Galloway —

Sir I have had Esq. Benis advice On Mr Emms's Deed which I have, and he tells me it does not appear to be his Deed unless there be Evidences there to See it Signd and Delivd which will Prove it in this Countrey to be his Act and Deed. I therefore Write you p. the Baltimore as you told me to Do with a Copy Inclosd Desiring (as I hope you receive it) you'd get it Done Authentickly. and as my Chief Dependance is upon Mr Galloways Word I hope he will not Fail —

Ps I Inclose this ~~[illegible]~~ in a Letter to Mr Adams by reason I Do not know where to Direct for you —

I am Sr Yr Hble Servt
