1742 October John Galloway incoming letters 1914

SIDE TWO

which I hope will not tell you come to hear it as I do not Doat it for I think if Adams have shipes in time in the Country he may have the best part of the Job. that will be made here for the acct. Mr Adams sent by Capt Dunkin is so pleasen to the people for being so sure and so good that there is none like him as for my part ~~[illegible]~~ think he hast Told my Job so well that I think nobody Cold Told it better if you plas to let my good be packed in a bag ~~[illegible]~~ ~~chest~~ Chest plas to let me hear from you as sure as you can and I shall take it very kind no more at present but ~~[illegible]~~
shall all ways be Ready to serve you and yours

Charles Denny

Chas Denny for Apothecary wares

Mr John Galloway
at his Job yule Adams
Tyrone