1742 Oct 20 Hammond, Phil. to John [Galloway] 1994

SIDE ONE

[illegible]

[illegible] Maryland

[illegible] you

[illegible] friends

[illegible] meet with

[illegible] Great Pleasure

[illegible] Friend & Serv.

A Gunner Ship to Lieut Colonel

[illegible] Hammond

Phil Hammond

Friend John

I wrote you by Mr Baltimore what Mr Bennett &

I actually have but little to add at Present this only is left for Jamaica post hath been a Great Confinement at Home being afflicted with a Hoarse in my Head & Cough which came upon my Hurrying and which still continues. We have not got in all our Pitch y^e

Tobacco belonging to Mr Northward but as ye now expects

Mr to do what can be done that way I remit them with as little delay as I can look for our Letters and cannot discover any thing more as you desire in your letter to me on that head. I find Mr Baltimore is willing due to Mr Risby for what you have received from Mr Baltimore 22.5.0

which last I shall by taking to your Credit Mr Ellis Mandifew and deducting with my approval bill of your own upon Mr Rivermouth on Mr Thomas Lloyd which Sum I understood I was to receive to my credit on the money now to be collected and which Mr Thomas Offley says he had actually received Mr £22.5.0 and afterwards paid

Mr a part of it in Discharge of that private debt

You conceiving that Mr ½ of what ye received was your own and that therefore you might retain what a ½ part more you shall have for Mr which that you received was your own and Bream Mr for what he disposed

And where you [illegible] that you should [illegible] it can't be right that you [illegible] for if that way is [illegible] to our Credit [illegible] of Mr Thomas [illegible] to our Credit [illegible]

Phil Hammond