Dover Novem.r 5th 1742

Hearing that the Constantine is near sailing from Philadelphia I take this opp.ty to tale thee I am well hoping this may find thee in London enjoying all the felicity as this World affords, or that tho desires. I intend in a fortnight to W.t River in order to settle my Quarter if Bro Jamme hath bought me a Negro but I know not whether he has or not for the last Time I heard from him there was a ship in Patuxent of Lee's and he had not bought any though I hear they were at £20 & 21 the Choice, I hope to be at a certainty by the return of Uncle Cheow & Peter who are both in Maryland. from thence I shall write thee again and as I expect to have more Subjects (to write upon I shall add more) for want of w.ch I now Conclude with Prayers for thy Health & safe Return to thy Friends Dear Father Thy most Dutifull and Affectionate Son
