WESTMINSTER, MARYLAND.

W. L. W. Seabrook, - Editor.

Entered at the Postoffice at Westminster, Md., as Second-class matter.

SATURDAY, NOVEMBER 19, 1898.

Indications point to an increase of exports from this country, for the current year over the last, which were the largest in the history of the country, having reached twelve hundred millions of dollars. One of the prime causes of this extraordinary condition is the conviction among business men that the present tariff will stand for years, except as it may become necessary to adapt it to our changed relations with Cuba and our recently acquired possessions in the West Indies and the Pacific.

While race troubles, such as have just been occurring in North and South Carolina, may be of occasional recurrence in the South, it is preposterous to talk about a war of races in that section. The whites are dominant and will remain so. While numerically less than the colored people in some localities, they are in all respects better equipped for a contest than the blacks, who must inevitably, in any conflict in the future, go to the wall, as they have always done in the past.

An official plurality of 399 for Mr. Baker in Carroll county is too much to be borne with equanimity by the newspaper whose prophetic ken discerned, in advance, a directly opposite result. Hence the Advocate is grievously disappointed, gives utterance to a bitter wail of sorrow, and takes its fellow-bimetallists who refused to vote for Mr. Tippett to task in no gentle fashion. In view of Mr. Baker's large plurality it is not clear that "all the conditions," as the Advocate says, "were favorable to Democratic success." They were certainly not so on election day, or a different result would have been recorded. Evidently the Advocate realizes that Democratic supremacy in Carroll county is seriously threatened and its grief in contemplation of such a party catastrophe is profound and deep.

The justice of the claim of Carroll county Republicans to the nomination of one of their number for Congress, by the Second District convention, two years hence, has been rendered invulnerable by the result of the recent election. Ignored in the party conventions of the district for more than fifty years, the county again came to the front at the recent election, as in 1895, with a plurality which assured Mr. Baker's return to Congress. Against many obstacles a triumph was achieved far beyond the wildest hopes of any Republican in the district. Many Republicans, in advance of the election, would have been glad to have compromised on 100 plurality, and Mr. Baker, we believe, in his estimate of the result in the district, placed the century figures under Mr. Tippett's name. If that estimate had been verified Mr. Baker would have been defeated. But old Carroll did vastly better than the most sanguine Republican anticipated, and now confidently turns to her sisters of the district and asks that, when two years shall have rolled away, she shall receive justice at their hands.

"Both Parties Win," says the Advocate, but the share of the Democratic party in the victory is too small to be discovered by the naked eye. In fact it would not materialize under a microscope of a million diameters. The contest was for control of the Senate and House of Representatives of the Fifty sixth Congress, and the Republicans have secured a majority in both—in the Senate nearly two-thirds and in the House a good working majority. The repetition of the immense majorities of 1896 in many of the States was not anticipated in this "off" year, but sufficient ground was held in the East, combined with the magnificent gains in the Pacific and far Western States, to give the Republicans a safe majority in the House over Democrats, Free Silverites, Populists and Fusionists. Optimistic, indeed, must be the Democrat who can discern the least measure of Democratic victory in this result.

The Spanish Peace Commissioners continue the invention of objections to the acquisition of the Philippines by the United States, but, apparently, without moving the representatives of this government from the firm stand taken in relation to the subject. Probably the Peace Commission will terminate in Spain's acceptance of the terms proposed by the United States, although there is a possibility that her commissioners may decline to sign an agreement. They have it in their power to nullify the work of the commission, but will hardly do so unless instigated by assurances of assistance from some other European Power, a contingency that is not likely to arise. If negotiations shall be broken off, however, the renewal of hostilities will follow and an American fleet will be sent to Spain without much delay. This government is prepared for an emergency. It is said the Oregon and Iowa, which sailed for Manila several weeks ago, are still within call from Washington and can be added to the fleet to operate directly against Spain, if that shall become necessary.

ILLOGICAL.

In an editorial article published during the week preceding the election the Baltimore Sun declared that President McKinley had been consistent with his "new policy of imperialism," in abstaining from action in the mining troubles at Pana, Ills., and in the anti-negro-government movement in North Carolina. "He," McKinley, says the Sun, "proposes the forcible annexation of millions of Filipinos, who are to be treated as 'subjects,' not as sovereigns. That is all right under an imperial system. But it has consequences. If a Filipino citizen of the United States is to be treated as a subject, why should not the colored brother in Illinois or north Carolina be treated in like manner?" The Sun's logic in this instance is utterly at fault. Constitutional limitations are placed upon the power of the President to interfere for the preservation of order in a State. He may not employ the agency of the General Government to that end, except upon an appeal from the executive of such State, or to protect federal officers in the discharge of their duties. Illinois and North Carolina are sovereign States. Any analogy between their government and that of the Philippine Islands, if admitted to territorial relations with the United States, is without point. Such analogy might be drawn in the case of our possessions yet in a territorial condition—Arizona and New Mexico, for instance—but has no application where States of the Union are concerned. Both the executive and judiciary departments of territories are entirely under the control of the federal government and they are without a vote in either branch of Congress. In fact they are governed by the laws of Congress, though given certain legislative privileges in domestic government. Such privileges will probably be extended to the Porto Ricans and may, also, be given the Filipinos, if their Islands shall become an American possession.

It is surprising therefore, and a palpable sign of the weakness of its cause, to find the Sun employing inconsistent analogies, such as we have pointed out, as an argument against the acquisition of the Philippines. If the term "Imperialism" cannot be given a more logical basis, it is time to abandon it. Certainly, if no stronger argument against annexation can be made than the Sun's article contains, the annexationists have the best of it.

A QUESTION OF IGNORANCE.

The incompetency of the Clabaugh-Sharrer machine was well illustrated when the Supervisors of Election met on Thursday to receive the election returns and determine the result. Through the ignorance of some of the judges the returns were not in compliance with the law and the Supervisors had to adjourn until yesterday and the delinquent judges sent for to come and finish their work.

The above is from the editorial columns of last week's Advocate. It is suggestive of ignorance in another direction than among the officers of election. The Advocate, apparently, imagines that the sole responsibility in relation to making the proper returns of the recent election rested upon the Republican judges. At least that is the only fair construction to be placed upon its language. It is a fact, however, that under the present election law the Republican and Democratic parties have an equal number of the judges and clerks, and the Democratic judges and clerks were selected from names submitted by the party organization, of which Mr. B. F. Crouse is the recognized leader, just as the Republican judges and clerks were selected from names submitted by the proper party authority of which Mr. Sharrer is at present the head. Hence the responsibility for the making up of the returns was equally shared by both parties, and all the judges and clerks were particeps in the errors which made it necessary for the supervisors' board to adjourn for a day and have the defects in the returns rectified. Some of the defects were of an exceedingly trivial character. For instance, in signing the endorsement on the envelopes containing the returns, in several instances, the judges appended the title "judges," instead of "judges of election." There was no fatal defect in any return.

Charities and Correction.

The second annual meeting of the Maryland Conference of Charities and Correction will be held at Johns Hopkin's University, Baltimore, on Tuesday and Wednesday, 29th and 30th inst. State Senator J. W. Hering, M. D., of this city, will preside at the second session of the meeting. The program includes the discussion of such topics as, "Appropriations of Public Money for Charitable and Correctional Purposes," "How to Deal with Tramps and Homeless Persons in County and City," "The Formation and Reformation of Juvenile Character," and Public Baths. These topics have been subdivided and a speaker of eminence assigned upon each point, with general discussion of each topic by another speaker named. For instance the subdivisions of the first topic, and the speaker named for each, are as follows: (1) State Appropriations—Better Methods of Making and Administering—Hon. Ashley M. Gould; (2,) City Appropriations—Proper Administration of Public Charities Under the New City Charter—Charles J. Ponaparte; Discussion by Dr. Thomas S. Latimer. Attorney General Clabaugh is assigned to the discussion of the second topic, after addresses on its several subdivisions by other speakers. All sessions of the conference will be open to the public. A meeting and discussions of the character referred to ought to be of great public benefit.

The one hundred and thirteenth annual communication of the Maryland Grand Lodge of Masons, which was held at the Temple, on N. Charles st., Baltimore, this week, adjourned on Wednesday night, after the election and installation of officers for the ensuing year. Gen. Thomas J. Shryock was re elected grand master for the fourteenth consecutive term. The other officers elected were: Deputy grand master, John A. Russell, Havre de Grace; senior grand warden, William S. Henning; junior grand warden, Zebedee Householder, St. Denis; grand treasurer, George B. Baker; grand secretary, Jacob H. Medairy. The reports of officers and committees submitted during the communication were of a most satisfactory character.

Governor Lowndes has issued a proclamation naming the same date as has been fixed by the President as a day of public and private thanksgiving. The Governor says: "The year now drawing to a close has been marked by events which have brought us under special obligations to the Great Ruler of Nations. Upon land and sea our army and navy have been victorious. The earth has yielded abundantly of her increase for our comfort and happiness, and we enjoy all the blessings of a free and enlightened government."

A call has been issued by Mr. Charles G. Biggs, of Sharpsburg, Md., for the first annual meeting of the Maryland Horticultural Society, which will be held in Pacific Hall, Baltimore, December 14th and 15th, at 2 o'clock, P. M. An invitation is extended to all persons interested, whether members or not, to attend and take part in the proceedings. Suggestions are invited in the preparation of the program and for the advancement of the interests of the society. Persons who desire to become members should notify the secretary, Mr. James S. Harris, Coleman, Md.

An arrangement has been made by the State of Maryland and the Johns Hopkins University, with the reorganization committee of the Baltimore and Ohio Railroad, by which the new management takes the million dollars of preferred stock held by the University, and the hundred and eighteen thousand dollars held by the State, at $75 per share, the par value being $100. This will net the University, after deducting a small sum for expenses in connection with the transaction, nearly $750,000 and will assure it a fixed income, though considerably less than was realized when the stock was productive.

BUSINESS LOCALS.

A fair for the benefit of the public hall in Frizelburg, will be held in the building, commencing on Monday evening next and continuing every night during the week. A fine supper will be served on the evening of Thanksgiving day, for twenty-five cents.

THE BEST PLASTER.

A piece of flannel dampened with Chamberlain's Pain Balm and bound on to the affected parts is superior to any plaster. When troubled with a pain in the chest or side, or a lame back, give it a trial. You are certain to be more than pleased with the prompt relief which it affords. Pain Balm is also a certain cure for rheumatism. For sale by Joseph D. Zepp, Druggist, Westminster, and Lewis H. Dielman, New Windsor.

Mechanicsville Council No. 78, Jr. O. U. A. M., will hold an oyster supper in the vacant store of Walter McCrea, adjoining their hall in Gamber, on Thanksgiving afternoon and night, Nov. 24th, to which all are invited. Proceeds for the benefit of the Council.

A SURE SIGN OF CROUP.

Hoarseness in a child that is subject to croup is a sure indication of the approach of the disease. If Chamberlain's Cough Remedy is given as soon as the child becomes hoarse, or even after the croupy cough has appeared, it will prevent the attack. Many mothers who have croupy children always keep this remedy at hand and find that it saves them much trouble and worry. It can be depended upon and is pleasant to take. For sale by Joseph D. Zepp, Druggist, Westminster, and Lewis H. Dielman, New Windsor.

Raust Church Union Sabbath School will hold their annual Christmas service Saturday evening, December 24th.

No other remedy can take its place in our home, as in it we have a certain and sure cure for Coughs, Colds, Whooping Cough, etc." It is safe to experiment with other remedies, even if they are urged on you as just as good as Dr. King's New Discovery, they are not as good, because this remedy has a record of cures and besides is guaranteed. FROM NEW ZEALAND.

REEFTON, New Zealand, Nov. 23, 1896.

I am very much pleased to state that since I took the agency of Chamberlain's medicines the sale has been very large, more especially of the Cough Remedy. In two years I have sold more of this particular remedy than of all other makes for the previous five years. As to its efficacy, I have been informed by scores of persons of the good results they have received from it, and know its value from the use of it in my own household. It is so pleasant to take that we have to place the bottle beyond the reach of the children.

Oh, how sad and full of pain were our hearts,
When we heard our dear brother was killed.
Rather, thy gentle voice now is hushed,
Thy warm true heart is stilled.
We have kissed the lovely brow;
And in our aching hearts we know
We have no brother John now.

By his sister Katie.

Farewell, dear brother, for we know you are gone,
We were weeping at your pillow
For we knew you were dead,
Gone from earth, yes, gone forever:
Tear-dimmed eyes shall gaze in vain.
We shall hear your voice, no, never:
Nor kiss your lips good bye again.

By his Brother David.

Good bye, our darling brother, thou hast left us,
Tis hard to give thee up,
And parting give us pain;
Since our dear brother John is gone,
But our prayer is to Him above,
That we may meet again.

By his Sister Carrie.
