CORRESPONDENCE
1742 November John Galloway Incoming Letters

MS.1994

SIDE ONE

Dear father

I have not yet had the pleasure to hear of thy Arrival in london but Hope I shall before the winter Sets in, tho we have had very cold weather Here already

Brother Sammy and Brother Johny have both been to See me Since Thee Went away and I had a letter from Brother Johny about a Fortnight ago, He was Going to Maryland to See Brother Sammy Who had Got Somthing of an Ague and Fever, but I hope is well again before now

As to any thing Thee Ordered me to mention for my Own Wear if Thee will be pleased to Send me a few pair of Gloves and Mittins because Good ones are very hard to Get I leave the Rest to be Just what Thee pleases. Dear Papa I know thee will be pleased to Hear that I am Well in Health and Could like Philadelphia very well if Thee and Some More of my Good Friends were Here, our Good Friend Robert Jordan Dyed Suddenly about Six weeks ago and Doctor Bond Is Lately Marryed to the Handsome Sally Weymond they Used to tell him of

I Hope this Letter will find Thee Well & am Dear Papa

thy Dutyful & affectionate Daughter

November the 17th 1742

Mary Galloway

Dear Polly's Letter 17 Nov 1742

Rec 30 Jan

To Mr. John Galloway
to the Care of Mr. Joseph Adams
Merchant
In London

By the Constantine
Capt. Elves