Annapolis June ye 2 1744

I have now rec.d yours and shall carry Sam.l his tomorrow — I shall be a full ship by the middle of next week and shall sail the next, I do not know how to act as to my going with or without convoy to Carry Convoy will be very distructive & I am afraid as Advice is gett to London of my Arrivale so am afraid no Insurance is made Either on Ships or tobacco so pray give advice the first Opportunity. I expect to be stopd in Virginia if so the Advice will be at home before I gett away — In short I come to town to day to be out of the way of many People for it is take more time to give the Preference to one before another yes great affronts which I would av made as poss ible for had Mr Adams Ships he might have full in the tobacco made in Patuxent January I have to heer of Mr Chews Ill ness
I should be glad to hear he was in a good
