FEEDING THE LAND.

Plowin' down a clover lot
Might make city people wonder
Why you take the crop you've got
An' forthwith go an' plow it under.
"Feed the land," my father'd say,
"Feed it fat an' keep it smilin';
Then she'll fetch forth corn an' hay,
Oats, an' the hull kit an' bilin'."
I have heard him say, moreover"
"Nothin' feeds the land like clover."

Wheat despoils the virgin land,
Oats and barley both exhaust it.
Corn, unless its raised by hand,
Pays the soil 'bout half it cost it.
But a moshin' clover crop—
Agin't no way of gittin' 'round it—
Makes the land all rich on top;
Leaves it better than it found it.
Clover as a crop er dressin'
Is a everlastin' blessin'.

Bill McKnight, of Martintown,
Farms it on the river bottom.
If they's any snaps aroun'
Bill, he swears he's shorely got 'em.
Never have to feed his farm!
Bill, he says the river feeds it.
Fertilizer'd do it harm;
Says he don't believe it needs it,
Land so full of fact, that clover
'D simply spill and slop it over!

Farmin' on the river flat
Is a feast or it's a famine.
Frost an' flood an' sech as that
Keeps Bill braggin' er a dammin'.
Jest gimme the upland soil
An' a proper crop rotation
That'll pay it fer its toil,
An' leave it rich as all creation!
This 'ere flood of crimson clover
Beats the river flowin' over.

Smell that breeze now! Ain't that sweet!
Hear the bumblebees aboomin'!
Don't no grass grow 'round their feet
When the crimson clover's bloomin'.
Plowin' under this fine yield,
Bill 'ud call a foolish notion,
But I know 't'll make this field
Richer than the land o' Goshen,
Nothin' under heaven er over
Feeds the land like crimson clover!

The Springfield Asylum.

Dr. George H. Rohe, superintendent of the Second Hospital for the Insane in Maryland, located at Springfield, adjoining Sykesville in this county, has made his third annual report to the Governor, and in it gives some very interesting and valuable information. In the statistical portion of the report Dr. Rohe says:

"The first group of cottages was completed February 28, 1898. During March 100 patients from Bayview Asylum were placed in the cottages, and on July 12, 27 more from the same institution were entered.

"Buttercup Cottage was opened for epileptics on July 12, and there are now 19 of these unfortunates cared for in that building. The present number of inmates is 179. During the year, two were discharged as recovered, one is improving, one eloped and eight died."

Work was begun upon the second group of cottages, intended for women, on September 28.

The report of the treasurer, Mr. Chas. Weber, Jr., shows that the total receipts during the year were $45,755, and the expenditures were $45,189.90, leaving a balance of $565 10.

In reference to what is known as the "open-door-system," which has been adopted in the hospital, Dr. Rohe gives the following interesting statement:

"Many of the visiting officials from other states, who saw the buildings in course of construction, and who had studied the outline plans, expressed doubts of the possibility of caring for all cases of insane patients under the conditions of almost absolute freedom here obtaining. I congratulate the board upon having given the people of the state of Maryland the most perfect and consistent example of the 'open-door' hospital for the insane in the world. In the cottages no doors are locked except the linen closets and the doors opening on the fire-escape stairs. The main entrance and exit doors are never locked, either night or day. All windows on the first floor open freely to the top, while in the dormitories and single rooms a sash-lock prevents the raising or lowering of the sash more than six inches.

"The lavatory facilities in the dressing and toilet rooms are abundant, and cleanliness is enjoined upon all—officers, attendants and patients—as one of the greatest virtues. The present group of cottages is capable of accommodating two hundred patients without crowding. The cost of construction, including heating plant and plumbing, was $744 per bed.

"Much of the work on the farm and garden, in road-making, grading, terracing and trenching, has been done by the patients and attendants. The labor of patients has also been largely utilized in the kitchen, dining-rooms, in ward work, and the daily reports show that 73 per cent. of the patients have been employed.

"This general employment of patients is not exploited as a measure of economy, but because it is generally recognized by alienists that insane persons are much better when engaged in some occupation than when idle. The daily reports of the medical officers show that frequently several nights pass without a single dose of sleep producing medicine being required."

The treasurer also highly commends the system and in speaking of its effect upon the inmates says: "We are convinced by personal observation that, in consequence of the adoption of the 'open-door system,' as it is technically called, the condition of these unfortunates has been ameliorated to an extent hardly realized heretofore."

If one desires to use violets for the toilet, the following way of keeping fresh has been found excellent: Surround the stems with wadding, after dipping them in salt water, and cover with a layer of tinfoil. If they are used for interior decoration, place the stems in salt water and besprinkle the flowers. At night cover them firmly with tissue paper and see to it that they are not kept in too warm a place. In this manner they can be kept fresh for several days.

REAVER'S.

WHERE AND HOW TO BUY SHOES AND HATS.

That's the question. There are sufficient places in Westminster to make a Shoe or Hat purchase but will that purchase meet your expectation? You want the latest in style and lowest in price. Twenty-five years in business has taught us that what the people want borders on the best always. We have learned from our experience in the markets, that the best need not be the highest in price. Now, for instance, you want a Man's Shoe. There's an endless assortment here to choose from. Experience is a dear teacher. It has taught that poorly constructed Shoes are dear at any price. We have an elegant assortment of Women's and Misses'

SHOE AND HAT

Button and Lace Shoes, patent tip or tip same, in welted and stitched soles. Then we have an elegant assortment of

Stiff and Soft Hats, in all the latest shades and shapes, in prices from 25c to $3.00. We are also showing a great many styles of Umbrellas and Satchels.

These goods, purchased from the manufacturers in large quantities, entitle the buyer to an extra discount. This we get and share with our customers.

Wall Paper! Wall Paper!

I wish to call the attention of my friends and the public in general to the fact that I now am ready to show one of the ever exhibited in this county, bought direct from the factory, in full bundle lots, so you get it only from second hands, no two or three profits coming off it. Of course the consumer pays them all. Sam Jones says it takes a pointer pup nine days to get his eyes open. I have known some people to get their's open in fifteen minutes in a wall paper deal. They thought it was two pieces instead of one, and the border they did not understand, &c. That is always their plea. Remember I am the only paper hanger in the county that carries a stock and don't have the expense of running a store, therefore I have no opposition. If you think I can't save you money, come and see me and bring size of your room, or send size by mail and I will tell you what your job will cost, and send samples and convince you that Gladhill's is the place to save twenty-five cents on a dollar on all Wall Papers.

Finest and Cheapest Lines of WALL PAPER
