The high estimation in which one of the successful business men and financiers of this city is held abroad is pleasantly told in the following paragraph from the Financial Review, a leading New York journal devoted to finance, insurance, real estate and building, which, under the heading, "A New Baltimore Corporation," says: "The formation of a new Baltimore corporation, The Fraternal Trust and Banking Company, has brought into the board of directors several leading business factors in Maryland—some of whom are known in the money world of this city because of their high standing. Among these is the able Westminster, Md., banker, W. B. Thomas, whose banking house was established thirty-two years ago, and who is one of the most conservative and successful men of affairs in the State. Mr. Thomas has had such experience in finance that his association with this enterprise will be of considerable value to his colleagues on the board of directors." This is a well deserved compliment.

Mrs. Matilda C. Caltrider, wife of Mr. Daniel Caltrider, of Frizellburg, died suddenly on Sunday, of paralysis, in the eightieth year of her age. Her husband and an only daughter, Mrs. Harvey C. Freeman, survive her. She was a member of the German Baptist Church and her remains were interred at Meadow Branch burial ground.

We learn from the New York Architecture and Building of May 27th, that at the recent competition of the Society of Beaux-Arts Architects, held in the rooms of the Architectural League, 215 West 57th street, New York City, a "second mention" on programme "B," Soldiers' Monument—Order Problem—was awarded to Paul Reese, of this city. This competition is open to all students of architecture and there were only two other "second mentions." Even of "third mentions" there were only five.

Mr. John W. Knight, a former well known resident of this city, died at the home of his sister, at Hereford, Baltimore county, on Saturday last, in his 77th year. His death was quite sudden. He was found lifeless in bed on Saturday morning. His remains were brought to this city on Monday and interred in Westminster Cemetery. Rev. Dr. Joel Brown, of Centenary M. E. Church, officiated at the burial. He leaves a family of sons and daughters, of whom Mr. F. S. Knight, Mrs. James Warner and Miss Annie Knight, were present at the interment. Mr. John Vandersloot, of Philadelphia, a son-in-law, was also present.

Luther Bair, of Hagerstown, son of Isaac Bair, formerly of this city, shot a young man named Harry Jones, at Pen-Mar Park, on Tuesday, wounding him seriously. The young men had an altercation and Bair was set upon by Jones and several friends, but got away from the crowd and ran down the mountain, the others following. Near the pavilion they met again and Bair shot Jones in the breast with a 32 calibre revolver. A lynching was threatened but Bair ran to Edgemont, where he boarded a freight train to Hagerstown and upon his arrival voluntarily surrendered to the sheriff and was placed in jail. It is said that Jones expressed a desire that Bair should not be prosecuted.

Copies of the mortgages recently given by Mr. John K. Cowen, president, and Mr. Justis W. Woolford, secretary of the Baltimore and Ohio Railroad Company, executed in the reorganization of the company, were filed for record in the office of the clerk of the Circuit Court for Carroll county on Thursday. Some idea of the magnitude of these documents is conveyed by the fact that one of them is for the sum of $165,000,000 and the other for $75,000,000. Internal revenue stamps to the value of $37,500 is affixed to one of the mortgages and to the value of $31,500 to the other. The cost of recording in the clerk's office here was $233. The mortgages must be recorded in every county in which the property of the company lies.

The case of Grove A. Shipley vs. C. J. Moore, executor of Robert G. Moore, removed from the Circuit Court for Carroll county to Hagerstown, was tried in the court at that place last week and a verdict rendered for the defendant by the jury. The verdict seems to have been rendered under instructions to the jury by the court "that the estate of the defendant, Robert G. Moore, had been settled in Baltimore county before the summons had been issued against the executor while the case was in Carroll county and before its removal in 1895, and therefore the plaintiff could not recover against the estate. As a result the jury brought in a verdict for the defendant," so that Mr. Shipley lost the case upon a legal technicality rather than upon its merits. It was what is commonly known here as a hulless oats case. D. N. Henning, Esq., of this city, was of counsel for the defendant.

Miss Goldie Alma Steele, only daughter of Mr. Wesley A. and Mrs. Lizzie O. Steele, died at the home of her parents, on Pennsylvania avenue, this city, on Saturday morning last, after an illness of nearly three weeks, of typhoid fever, at the age of 15 years, 7 months and 12 days. The sad event has occasioned deep and widespread regret, and great sympathy for her sorely bereaved father and mother. Funeral services were held at the house on Monday afternoon, Rev. A. S. Weber, of Baltimore, assisted by Rev. Dr. Brown, of this city, officiating, after which the remains of the deceased young lady were interred in Benjamin's Cemetery. The pall-bearers were: Messrs. J. Walter Grumbine, W. Scott Zepp, Jesse C. Reese, Ralph R. Royer, W. Frank Thomas, J. Gloyd Diffendal. Many beautiful floral tributes were sent by friends and relatives, among them particularly appropriate and handsome designs by her classes at the College and in the Sunday School.

Mrs. Catharine Light Ward, one of most highly esteemed ladies of this city, died at the home of her son-in-law, Rev. T. H. Lewis, D. D., president of Western Maryland College, on Thursday morning, in her seventy-sixth year. She had been in feeble health for some time, but her demise was not expected. Mrs. Ward was the widow of the late Rev. Dr. James Thomas Ward, one of the founders and the first president of Western Maryland College, and later president of Westminster Theological Seminary, until his death about two years ago. Her maiden name was Catharine A. Light and her home was at Beddington, Va., where her marriage with Dr. Ward occurred in the spring of 1845. Their union was remarkably congenial and happy and their married life of fifty-two years almost ideal in character. In all his labors Dr. Ward found in his life's companion a most faithful and loving helper and one who made his home a very happy place. It seems scarcely a matter of regret that after being so long united in life their separation by death was comparatively brief. One only daughter, Mrs. Lewis, survives Mrs. Ward, and she leaves six grandchildren. Funeral services will be held at Dr. Lewis' residence at 2 o'clock this afternoon, after which Mrs. Ward's remains will be interred by the side of her husband in Westminster Cemetery.

Memorial Day Exercises.

Memorial Day exercises were held in this city on Tuesday under the supervision of Burns Post G. A. R.; at Winfield under the supervision of Pickett Post, G. A. R, and Pickett Corps, W. R. C.; at Taneytown and Uniontown by benevolent and patriotic orders and citizens Reports of these exercises are made by our local correspondents, except for this city. Here, indoor exercises, preceding the strewing of the graves of deceased soldiers with flowers, were held in Odd Fellows' Hall. Rev. Dr. Graham opened the exercises with prayer, and Rev. Dr. Brown closed them with the benediction. Music was rendered by a select choir. An interesting feature of the affair was the rendition of the "Memorial of the Flowers," by members of the Boys' Meeting and children of the Kindergarten and public school, who were in charge of Miss Mary B. Shellman. The children marched into the hall in admirable order and to the platform, each girl carrying a flag, and each boy a miniature musket. They were full of enthusiastic patriotism, and went through the exercises without a break. They were subsequently greeted and welcomed with brief remarks by W. L. W. Seabrook. The color-bearers were Masters Lawrence Fairfax Reifsnider and Mordecai Gist, direct descendants, respectively, of Admiral Foote and Gen. Mordecai Gist. The oration of the occasion was delivered by Prof. G. W. Ward, Ph. D., of Western Maryland College, who gave an interesting review of the liberty-loving character of the Teutonic race.

Other features were the recitation of Lincoln's Gettysburg address, by H. H. Price, of Reading, Pa., a student at Western Maryland College, and "Old Glory," by Miss Eva Rinker, of Westminster, and at the conclusion of the exercises the presentation of a handsome gold badge, by the post, to Miss Mary B. Shellman for her services to the organization. A happy presentation speech was made by Mr. George R. Gehr, president of the Board of County School Commissioners. Miss Shellman was without previous knowledge of the purpose of the post to present her with this testimonial of appreciation of her faithful assistance on memorial and other occasions and was well nigh overcome by emotion as she returned thanks for the beautiful and appropriate gift.

Memorial and Other Events in Hampstead.

Saturday last was a stirring and lively day at Hampstead, a carnival, parade and memorial exercises having attracted about two thousand visitors to that thriving and enterprising town. The parade took place in the morning and was probably the largest demonstration ever witnessed in Hampstead. Three bands of music—the Carroll County Reed Band and the Manchester and Alesia Cornet Bands—were in the procession, which was made up of the following organizations.: Manchester Fire Company, with chemical engine and 50 men; a detachment of 20 members of the Westminster Fire Department, in uniform; 25 members of the G. A. R.; Red Jacket Tribe, I. O. R. M., 40 men; Hampstead Council, Jr. O. U. A. M., 50 men; detachment of Pleasant Hill Council, Jr. O. U. A. M., 30 men; detachment of Trenton Lodge, I. O. M., 40 men on horseback; a cavalcade of 50 horsemen from the surrounding country; citizens in carriages, making the line half a mile long.

After the parade the Manchester Fire Company gave an exhibition of the power of its chemical engine by extinguishing a large bonfire in an incredibly short time.

Following these events were the regular memorial exercises, which were held in the cemetery of the M. E. Church, in charge of Burns' Post No. 13, G. A. R., of this city. Addresses were delivered by Messrs. Charles T. Reifsnider, of this city, who was the principal orator of the occasion; F. D. Ensor, of Fowblesburg, and Harry E. Goodwin, of Glyndon. Pleasant Hill Council, Jr. O. U. A. M., of Fowblesburg, assisted the members of the G. A. R. in the decoration of graves.

A fair and festival was held during the day and evening for the purpose of securing the nucleus of a fund for the equipment of a fire company in Hampstead and realized $75 over all expenses. During the afternoon a game of baseball was played between the Hampstead club and the Cloverdale Athletic Club, of Baltimore, in which the home club was victorious by a score of 18 to 17.

Firemen's Convention Notes.

The several committees of the Westminster Fire Department are leaving nothing undone to promote the success of the meeting of the State Volunteer Firemen's Association, in this city, next week, and their efforts to give an appropriate welcome to their brother firemen, and make them comfortable while here, will be supplemented by the like efforts on the part of citizens generally. Along the line of the parade, the program of which is given below, barrels of ice water will be placed for the use of the firemen. The streets are to be thoroughly cleaned and sprinkled, so that the annoyance of a dusty march will be entirely obviated.

Messrs. Miller Bros., Wm. F. Derr and T. W. Mather & Sons invite visitors to make their stores headquarters on the occasion. Messrs. Miller Bros. and W. F. Derr will have entertaining music during the time, and the former will give firemen's souvenirs to all callers.

Work on arches and reviewing stands, in course of erection, is progressing and it is designed to have everything completed and ready for the parade.

Citizens generally are providing themselves with ample supplies of flags and bunting, and decorations of this character will be more profuse than on any previous demonstration of any kind in this city.

As heretofore stated ample hitching grounds have been provided so that horses and vehicles can be kept off the streets during the parade, contests, drills, fire fighting exhibition &c., and thus avoid the danger of accidents.

The dinner to the visiting firemen will be given at the old Westminster City Hotel, which will be thoroughly renovated and put in excellent condition. The committee having the dinner in charge solicits donations of provisions of all kinds, which will be thankfully received. It will be very much to the convenience of the committee if such donations be sent to the City Hotel on Tuesday evening.

The carload of cots ordered several weeks ago arrived promptly and they are being distributed among citizens who will receive visiting firemen into their homes.

The Western Maryland Railroad will sell excursion tickets over all its lines, at special low rates, beginning on Monday, 5th inst., and from that date to the 8th. Tickets will be good to return until and including the 10th.

The convention of the Prohibition party of Carroll county, called for the purpose of sending delegates to the State convention, which will meet in Baltimore on the 15th inst., and to nominate a county ticket, was held at Babylon's Hall, this city, on Friday, 26th ult. It was called to order by the county chairman, J. A. Weigand, who was made the presiding officer by acclamation. Calvin R. Chew, of Patapsco, was elected secretary. The first business transacted by the convention was the election of the following delegates and alternates to the State convention: Delegates, John Geiselman, James E. Evans, Geo. Stull, John Houck, Joseph E. Shreeve, Charles R. Woods, Rev. Samuel J. Derr, H. S. Witter, Randolph Taylor; alternates, Edward Schaeffer, David Abbott, Luther Weimert, John Uhler, Rev. S. W. Coe, Rev. J. W. Murry, Rev. S. B. Craft, John Burgoon, D. C. Derr.

A motion to proceed to the nomination of a county ticket provoked considerable discussion. The sentiment in favor of the proposition was, however, predominant, and the motion was adopted by an almost unanimous vote of the convention, which proceeded to carry it into effect, with the following result:

The members of Trinity Mite Society met at the home of Mrs. J. M. Motter, on South Main street, on Tuesday evening, and were excellently entertained by the Rev. H. J. Decoration day is over and another laurel crown has been placed upon the brow of Pickett Post, G. A. R. The crowd was larger than ever before and the exercises if anything better. The music was superb while the speeches were varied and pleasing. Mr. D. N. Henning, of Westminster, won for himself new honors. His "War and Warriors" was an effort eloquent in every particular. Mr. Harry E. Goodwin, of the Baltimore bar—a Carroll county boy—gave a fine oration on the flag, the preservation of which, he said, was the cause of the Civil War. Rev. Anthony Bilkovsky, of Baltimore, gave a very fine address on "Peace and its Attainment," while Rev. B. F. Clarkson captured the audience with his reminiscences and wit. The parade, headed by the Winfield Band, started to the cemetery at 10 o'clock, and from that time until the Carroll County Band played "Home Sweet Home," in the evening, there was not a break, or dull spot, on the program. The order of the parade was as follows:

1. Chief Marshal, H. M. Zile.
2. Winfield Band.
3. Pickett Post, G. A. R.
4. Camp 15, P. O. S. of A.
5. Camp 12, P. O. S. of A.
6. Morgan Chapel Band.
7. Camp 30, P. O. S. of A.
8. Ebenezer Sunday School.

At Ebenezer appropriate services were held, and the procession reformed and marched to "Little Round Top." There were in attendance during the day fully 7,000 people. A large and appreciative audience always greeted the speakers.

It was, without exception, a most orderly crowd. No serious accidents were reported. The Bands furnished good music, while the home band added new laurels to their crown. The program given was as follows:

Singing, choir, "My Country 'Tis of Thee;" prayer, Rev. W. J. Meeks; oration, "War and Warriors," D. N. Henning, Esq.;" singing, "Our Dead," choir; address, "Peace and its Attainment," Rev. Anthony Bilkovsky; music, by Band, (and intermission for dinner); singing, "Comrades Rest," choir; address, "Our Flag," Harry E. Goodwin, Esq.; singing, "Bring Hither the Beautiful Blossoms," choir; address, "Reminiscences," Rev. B. F. Clarkson; singing, "A Crown for the Living a Wreath for the Dead," choir; reading President Lincoln's Gettysburg address, Rev. B. F. Clarkson; solo, "The Unknown, Grave," Mrs. S. Sayers; benediction, Rev. W. J. Meeks; open air concert, by Carroll County Band.

The members of the choir were the following: Soprano, Mrs. H. M. Zile and Mrs. C. W. Barnes, and Misses Debbie Zile, Lelia Zile, Amelia Cover, Effie Cover, and Nellie Zile; altos, Mrs. Celia Stitely and Mrs. Carrie Farver; tenors, Messrs. G. W. Grimes, Sr., Geo. W. Jenkins and A. Streaker; bass, Messrs. Geo. W. Hess, Chas. W. Barnes and M. A. Aldridge; leader, Mr. Gus Brown. Solo parts were taken by Mrs. H. M. Zile and Mr. Geo. W. Grimes.

Mr. Gass. Rawlings was master of ceremonies and to him largely, both before and during the exercises, is due the credit of the success. May the members of Pickett Post live to see many repetitions of Tuesday's success.

Washington Camp No. 15, P. O. S. of A., moved into the new hall on Saturday last. In the early evening as the members were collecting, the Winfield Band gave the camp a serenade in front of the hall. The interior of the camp hall is decorated with patriotic wall paper and elegantly furnished. The Winfield Camp has perhaps the best hall in the State, outside of Baltimore, and one that will compare favorably with any there. The exercises of Saturday evening were a decided success. Besides an initiation eloquent addresses were made by President T. J. Gunn, and District Pres. H. M. Zile. With its present surroundings the camp ought to live in peace, prosperity and patriotism.

The Winfield Band will furnish music both evenings at the Academy commencement.

The birthday party given by the ladies of the Aid Society, on the 22nd ult., was a thorough success. Music was furnished by the Union Mills Orchestra and Rev. H. J. Macalister with his gramophone. The tables were handsomely decorated and were abundantly supplied with tempting viands, which were served in fine shape. The net proceeds were $31.77.

Mr. Noah C. Wantz, a well-known farmer of near Pleasant Valley, this county, is the proud possessor of as splendid a specimen of the bald eagle as has ever been seen in this locality. The great bird was captured by Mr. Wantz's son under rather peculiar circumstances. Young Wantz noticed a great commotion among a flock of crows in Mr. Yingling's orchard, and going to the spot saw the eagle perched in an apple tree. The crows were attacking him in considerable numbers, darting upon him one at a time, giving him a peck with their bills and quickly retreating.

Young Wantz joined the crows in the battle, and, picking up a stone, threw it with all his power at the eagle. The missile struck the bird's head and knocked it helpless to the ground. Before it could recover its human assailant seized and bore it to the house, where it was promptly caged. It is now very much alive and apparently unharmed. It measures six feet six inches between the tips of its wings.

They will receive a hearty welcome if they ever come into our midst again. Rev. Jesse Shreeve offered prayer. Rev. B. W. Kindley had charge of the order of exercises; Miss Fannie Myers, organist. The citizens decorated their homes very tastefully, with "Old Glory."

Our farmers are about through with corn planting for this season. Some of them are having some replanting to do, from some cause or other, and others who plantad early are cultivating their corn. Grain and grass in our vicinity is making some headway in growth. Neither will be very heavy, as the weather has not been very suitable for its growth. Some fields of wheat will be light in consequence of being winter killed and fly eaten. Other fields not thus affected promise a fair yield. The apple crop will be somewhat uncertain, as they have begun falling off considerably. Yet there may be enough left to go around.

One night last week Mr. Cyrus Grossnickle came very near losing two of his horses by death. He left them in a pasture field and sometime during the night they took a whim to visit some of their neighbors. They went to Mr. Bub Horton's barn and finding the little door of his barn open they went into the barn and then into the hay mow. There was not much hay in the mow and one of the horses fell down between the sleepers to the horse stable below without being much hurt. The other one, in falling, hung on something and would have died before morning had it not been that Mr. Horton, hearing the noise in his barn, went to their rescue. The last horse was considerably bruised but will get over it.

Mr. C. Grossnickle is making great improvements on the Gorsuch farm on which he now resides and also on the Evens farm which he recently bought.

Base Ball.

Saturday afternoon, May 27th, the Marston Baseball team was defeated by the New Windsor team by the score of 9 to 13. Marston was first at the bat and scored 2 runs. New Windsor then took its turn, and the first five men up made as many hits, including one homer and two doubles. Whitehill was then put in the box and he distinguished himself by striking out the next three men. In the seven innings pitched by Whitehill but seven hits were made off of his delivery and he struck out no less than ten men. In reality but four hits should have been counted against him, as his support by the infield was exceedingly poor. Sundergill also played a good game for Marston. For the home team Davis and Lambert played a fine one handed stop.

Score by innings	1	2	3	4	5	6	6	8	9	T'l
Marston	2	1	0	2	0	1	0	1	2	9
New Windsor	4	0	1	2	0	1	5	0	x	13

Hits—Marston 13, New Windsor 12. Errors—Marston 4, New Windsor 3. Umpires, Sailor and Smith.
