1747 - 1748 Samuel Galloway incoming letters 1994

SIDE ONE

Philad^a ye 27th 11mo 1747/8

Loveing Cousin

I wrott thee by Atwood & Shute about two weeks ago in Answere to thine wrott upon poor Cousin Jenneys Death

The Reason of my Writing Now is as thee knows I acted in thy father & mothers Affaires by Vertue of two powers of Attorney the Own in Relation to ye hundred a year thy mother had to receive out of w^m Fishborn Estate During her Life which Now reverts back to his Estate the Other was a power from them as Guardians to Sa^m and Saley Fishborn, Both being Now Dead happy would it a been if Dear Cousin Jenny had Lived to Come to Phila^a her Self Willm Fishborn Saith Little yett but I Expect Soon to be applyed to and as I apprehend a Division of ye Reversion of Wm Fishborns Estate is to be Devided amongst his four Children should be glad to know what Cousin Jenneys Mind hath been in that Respect and Suppose Saley Fishborn must Come up to Phila^a in Order to Chuse other Guardians however I Dont know whether attendance is Necessary it be I shall Lett thee know; we are Generally all well and with kind Respects to thee and wife; Susey; Saley Fishborn; Conclude thy Loveing Cousin

John Dillwyn

Letter
John Dillwyn
Nov. 11 1747/8

Samuel Galloway
Merch^t
Westchester
Pass Thomas Hartshorne