CORRESPONDENCE 1754 [redacted] Samuel Galloway Letters Ms.1994

SIDE ONE

My Dear Nancy

Linhaven Bay Octob 11. 1754
on board the Neptune

I wrote to you yesterday and is cover to Coldhunter then was in hopes of leaving this place which we have been three days with the Wind very foul so that we cant get to Sea

Tell Capt Willson to bring one 8 or 10 bushl of potatoes we have none on board and pray let me hear from you by all opptY Shortly pray God may have the pleasure of hearing of your and my Dear Babys health let me know what Allen is about and when they both will sail

Capt Blackbourn is Dead his Ship sailed about 10 days ago wth Mr Hollyday his Mate Master this you will soon get by the post I have been very well our mess is better Ship light and Slung in good order on board Sorely want a fair wind which we see no signs of now, am very lonsom for want of a companion our Capt no Compn my Dear love to all Friends kiss my babys for me I am Dear Child your Most Affectionate husband

Sam Galloway

Dr Brother Tony

Write to me and let me know how Allen and Wilson goes on get the Sewn from on board the Grove before she sails if Willson can sell them let him do it or if he finds more convenant to carry the Baker home he may. I hope John Talbot will not sell his Land before I return let me know by first opp.y what is done in John Walkins land whether he has Got of the intale or no

Yr Affte Brother

S Galloway

X Northampton Co. Va.