A Will Caveated.

A caveat to the will of the late Reuben Pool, of Freedom district, has been filed in the Orphans' Court of this county. Mr. Pool, who was a successful farmer, was accidentally killed by falling under the wheels of a wagon, loaded with corn, which ran over his head. His will was admitted to probate in October last. By it his son, Benjamin Peyton Pool, was constituted sole executor and all the real and personal property of the testator were left to his wife, Rachel Pool, during her lifetime, and after her death to the said Benjamin Peyton Pool, who was charged with legacies of $400 each to his brother Lloyd Pool and his sisters Mrs. Ruth N. Parrish, wife of Moses Parrish, and Mrs. Caroline Barnes, wife of John T. Barnes. The interest only of the legacy to Mrs. Barnes is required by the will to be paid to her annually during her lifetime, and after her death the principal is to be paid to her sons, Wm. J., Geo. B., Thomas H. and Roger E. Murphy, share and share alike. No bequest was made to testator's sons, Geo. W., Nathan and Reuben E. Pool, and his daughter, Mrs. Mary Jane Gorsuch, wife of Wm. H. Gorsuch, the will alleging as a reason that he had already provided for them. The caveat against the will was filed by Messrs. John M. Roberts, Wm. H. Thomas, and Reifsnider & Reifsnider for Lloyd Pool, Mrs. Barnes and her husband, Mrs. Parrish and her husband, and Mrs. Gorsuch. It alleges, in the usual legal phraseology, undue influence, mental incompetency to execute a will, &c. The answer, which was filed for the caveatee by Messrs. Bond & Parke, denies the allegations. Further proceedings in the case will be taken in due time.
