CORRESPONDENCE
1758

Samuel Galloway

Incoming letters

MS. 1994

SIDE TWO

advanced to supply the deficiency of the Money you received of me when you were up. God bless you & send you a good & pleasant Voyage is the prayer of

Your affectionate Brother

Phila. Nov. 5. 1758

Benjamin Chew

Mr. Chew
Nov. 5. 1758

Mr Chew's Letter

66:4
3
294
220
150
770

not to be had, I leave it to your Discretion to get one a new one plain, strong and genteel without being decorated & showy by much painting which will make it come very dear. Mr. Grove has upwards of £50 St. of mine in his hands which you may command for this Purpose, and I will supply you with any Sum you may further want either by a Bill or paying it here to your Order. Our publick Prints will inform you of the most material News we have lately received from Europe more fully than I can, or have Leisure to do. The Victory gained by the Heroick King of Prussia in person over y. Russians with an Army vastly inferior to them, after a surprizing and almost incredible March of 254 Miles in 9 days, has astonish'd all the World, and at the same Time that it exalts his Character as a General, has effectually snatch'd his Country out of that Ruin, that the numerous Armies rais'd against him threatned it with. We expect every Day to hear of an Action between Prince Soubise & Prince Ferdinand who has lately been reinforced with 10,000 English under the Duke of Marlborough. Genl. Amherst is appointed to succeed Abercrombie in the Command in America, but the Campaign is over in that Quarter, at least as to Operations on one Side. Forbes by our last Accounts was march'd from Raystown to Loyal Hanning with an Intent to proceed immediately for the French Fort, if he did not arrive there before our late Rains within these 2 days I am afraid the Roads are impassable for our Artillery without which nothing can be attempted. About 50 Indian Warriors went to join him