THE FARM MAN'S BURDEN.

Take up the farm man's burden,
 Send off the best you've got,
Unto the city markets
 For some one else's pot.
Go meet your daily labors
 In brown Kentucky jeans,
You're sure to get a living,
 If only pork and beans.

Take up the farm man's burden
 And sing your little song,
No matter if your work days
 Are eighteen hours long.
Don't holler if your products
 Don't bring you what they're worth;
You've Rural Free Delivery—
 You can't expect the earth.

Take up the farm man's burden
 And bear it with a grin;
Go work with mind and muscle
 While the sweat rolls off your chin.
Quit cussin' those Republicans;
 Don't blame the Democrats,
There are lots of chances open—
 Why don't you raise "tomats?"

Take up the farm man's burden,
 Then with perspiring brow,
Go juggle with the harrow
 And wrestle with the plow.
Don't fret about your trouble,
 Put on a smiling face,
The next electric road, perhaps,
 Will come right through your place.

Take up the farm man's burden
 And bear it with a will,
(There wouldn't be no hollow
 If there wasn't any hill);
So when the load gets heavy,
 Just whistle up a tune;
Good times are on the road now,
 They'll get here pretty soon.

If you want to enjoy new sensation, tell a man you have heard something about him. He will think it is something mean, of course, for a man never hears anything else. Then tell him something pleasant. He will glow like a school-boy, and both of you will feel better all day. Don't tell people the mean things you hear about them. That is inexcusable.

An Englishman and an Irishman met one day, and the former, wishing to have some fun with Pat, asked him if he was good at measurement.

"Oi am thot," said Pat.

"Then, could you tell me how many shirts I could get out of a yard?" asked the Englishman.

"Well," said Pat, "thot depends on whose yard yez get into."

Wall Paper! Wall Paper!

I wish to call the attention of my friends and the public in general to the fact that I now am ready to show one of the ever exhibited in this county, bought direct from the factory, in full bundle lots, so you get it only from second hands, no two or three profits coming off it. Of course the consumer pays them all. Sam Jones says it takes a pointer pup nine days to get his eyes open. I have known some people to get their's open in fifteen minutes in a wall paper deal. They thought it was two pieces instead of one, and the border they did not understand, &c. That is always their plea. Remember I am the only paper hanger in the county that carries a stock and don't have the expense of running a store, therefore I have no opposition. If you think I can't save you money, come and see me and bring size of your room, or send size by mail and I will tell you what your job will cost, and send samples and convince you that Gladhill's is the place to save twenty-five cents on a dollar on all Wall Papers.

Finest and Cheapest Lines of WALL PAPER
