"The courage of conviction" is a phrase frequently applied to persons who stand by their principles at the risk of personal sacrifice. The Democratic party of Maryland is either lacking in this quality or is without conviction upon the important subject of the currency. Its recent State convention entirely ignored the question.

STILL FOR FREE SILVER.

Democrats who hope to evade the free silver issue in 1900 must feel serious disappointment at the action of the Democratic State convention of Nebraska, which met at Omaha on Tuesday, bodily endorsed the Chicago platform of 1896, and declared uncompromisingly for free coinage at the ratio of 16 to 1. Col. Bryan was a delegate to the convention. Populist and Silver Republican conventions were also held at Omaha on Tuesday and the three conventions fused in nominating Ex-Gov. Silas A. Holcomb for Justice of the Supreme Court, and Messrs. Edson Rich and J. L. Teeters for Regents of the State University. Mr. Bryan addressed all three conventions and among other things declared the free coinage of silver the main issue before the public. Reports have been in circulation to the effect that Mr. Bryan was weakening on the silver issue. Boss Croker, who runs the Democratic party of New York, recently dropped Judge Van Wyck, for whom he had launched a presidential boom, and announced his purpose to support Bryan. It was given out that the latter was willing to have the silver question kept in abeyance and make the fight on an anti-expansion, anti-trust platform. This statement gave great satisfaction to Democrats in the Eastern States, even those who announced their adherence to the free coinage theory in 1896 being glad to abandon that issue. But if Col. Bryan, to gratify his ambition to become again the Democratic candidate for the Presidency, was for a time willing to abandon his free silver idol, he has repented of the weakness, and is again a rampant, irreconcilable devotee of fifty-cent dollars.

And now, what are Democrats in the East going to do about it? They cannot eliminate free silver as an issue, even from local contests in the West; much less will they be able to put it out of sight when the national fight will be on, in 1900. It is a more alarming apparition to the Democratic party than was Banquo's ghost to Macbeth. It will not down, though all the Crokers of the country join in adjuring it to retire from the contest. Under the circumstances the legitimate and logical station of sound money Democrats will be in alliance with the Republicans to save the country from the disaster of depreciated currency and repudiation.

Mrs. Georgia Pearre, wife of Mr. L. V. Pearre, of Unionville, died at 11.55 last Sunday night, from the effect of morphia, taken for the purpose of relieving an intense headache with which she was suffering. She was in the habit of using another remedy for the disease, to which she was subject, but had none of it on hand and resorted to the morphia as a substitute. The pain was so severe that an excessive quantity was required to subdue it and when she fell asleep it was found impossible to waken her. Mrs. Pearre was in her thirty-first year. She was a daughter of Mr. John R. and Mrs. Joanna M. Stevens.

The Commissioner of Pensions reports that the Civil War pension rolls are decreasing. A small balance remains from the appropriation of $140,000,000.

CORRUPTING COLORED VOTERS.

It would be an interminable task to point out all the inaccuracies of the leading editorial in last week's Advocate, purporting to be a reply to an article in the SENTINEL of the previous week in relation to Democratic efforts to corrupt the colored voters of this State and the effect of such efforts upon the lives and conduct of such voters and of the colored people generally.

The SENTINEL, for the purpose of exhibiting the falsity of the assertion, made in the resolutions of the Democratic State convention, that the colored people depend upon the political influence of members of the Republican party "to secure them immunity from punishment for violations of law," called attention to the fact that bribery and attempted bribery of colored voters is a notorious practice of Democratic politicians in this county.

The Advocate has little respect for the intelligence of its readers if it expects them to believe its assertion, in toto, that the Democrats, in order to force the Republicans to use their money to hold the colored vote, "made offers to buy the Negroes," not expecting any other result of such offers than that these "Negroes" would thus be led to demand pay from the Republicans for their votes. No doubt that has been regularly a part of this Democratic scheme of bribery, which the Advocate has the grace not to deny. It may have been, in all the years of such bribery, a practical feature of it, but certainly not its sole purpose, and the Advocate, in attempting to confine it to this complexion, is trading upon the ignorant innocence of those of its readers who are without knowledge on the subject. It was begun at a period when the Republicans had no money to spend in bribery in this county. In fact ever since the colored man was enfranchised there has been more or less of it at every election. That it has been a potent factor in debauching the colored people, politically and morally, no intelligent person will deny, and the conclusion is logically inevitable that the Democratic party is responsible for this result of its wrong doing, not the Republicans upon whom its State convention falsely lays the blame.

The Advocate says "the SENTINEL speaks as though none but Democrats use money in elections." When, or where has the SENTINEL spoken in that fashion? What sentence, in any editorial article ever printed in the columns of the SENTINEL intimates such an opinion? This paper has not pursued the course of the Advocate and excused Republican bribery of Democratic voters because Democrats thus tampered with Republicans, white or black. It believes that Democratic politicians in this county were the pioneers in bribery, but it does not agree with some Republicans that the only way to meet and nullify the effect of such bribery is to do likewise. No sentence ever written by the editor of the SENTINEL can be tortured into such meaning. Consistently, and under all circumstances, this journal has deprecated elections bribery and counseled the adoption of measures to prevent it. It does not deny that Republicans have been guilty of the practice and it does not excuse them because they were driven to it by the Democrats. The Advocate calls "the use of money to influence elections a deplorable practice," but in its issue of June 18, 1898, it declared that the only way the Fifth Congressional District of Maryland could have a respectable representative was "to demoralize the Republican voters with cash." No sensible man doubts that cash and other considerations of value have been used freely by the Democrats for that purpose, not only in the Fifth Congressional District, but in other portions of the State, including Carroll county, and if the practice be deplorable it is also deplorable that a reputable newspaper not only countenances but counsels it.

Concerning the SENTINEL's statement of two weeks ago in relation to the colored man who was released from prison upon bail furnished by the chairman of the Democratic county central committee, it is sufficient to say that it was made upon information received from a reputable citizen of Westminster, who avers that he heard the man repeat the story as it was told in these columns. The SENTINEL did not accept the colored man's story as veracious, but expressly qualified it in terms which should have been satisfactory to the party whom it was said to he implicated. The truth of the latter's word on the subject would not be questioned by the SENTINEL.

There is undeniable evidence, however, that the effect of the transaction on the colored man was such as to lead him to utter words, after his release, which indicated that it had affected his intention in regard to his vote.

If the Advocate is correct in its assertion concerning the estimate commonly placed upon the SENTINEL by Democrats there are a good many members of that party who are hypocritical in their attitude toward this paper. Some of the most reputable and intelligent Democrats in the county have, on more than one occasion, contrasted the course of the SENTINEL towards its political opponents with that of the Advocate, very much to the detriment of the latter. For partisan rancor and unfairness the Republicans, generally, and many Democrats believe the Advocate has few equals.

BALTIMORE COUNTY NOMINATIONS.

The Republican convention of Baltimore county, held in Towson on Tuesday, nominated the following ticket:

Register of Wills—Dr. James H. Jarrett, of the Ninth district.

State's Attorney—C. Ross Mace, of the Fourteenth district.

Sheriff—William N. Mays, of the Sixth district.

Treasurer—C. Harris Collings, of the Eighth district.

County Commissioner—Geo E Lynch, of the Second district.

County Surveyor—Newton D. R. Allen, of the Seventh district.

Judges of the Orphans' Court—John W. Hicks, of the Seventh district; Charles G. Snavely, of the Eleventh district; William T. Rollins, of the Fifteenth district.

State Senator—William B. Sands, of the Ninth district.

House of Delegates—James E. Ingram, Jr., of the Third district; Guy B. Groff, of the Fourth district; Labin Sparks, of the Tenth district; Henry Reifschneider, of the Twelfth district; John T. James, of the Thirteenth district; Frank West, of the Fifteenth district.

John Alfred Brown and Armstead Taylor, colored, were hanged at Rockville on Friday of last week, for the murder of the Rosensteins at Slidell, Montgomery county. Taylor, who testified at Brown's trial that the latter killed Rosenstein, disavowed the statement as the time of execution drew near, and then asserted to the last that he, himself, was alone guilty of the double murder, and that Brown was entirely innocent of complicity in the crime. Both men died protesting Brown's innocence. Governor Lowndes, it is said, declined to interpose executive clemency because Judge McSherry refused to recommend it. Many persons believe that Brown had nothing to do with the murders and died an innocent man.

The Republicans of Pennsylvania nominated the following State ticket, on Thursday: Supreme Court Judge, J. Hay Brown, of Lancaster; Superior Court Judge, Joshua R Adams, of Philadelphia; State Treasurer, Lieut. Col. James E. Barnett, of the Tenth Pa. Regiment. The convention was controlled by the friends of Mr. Quay.

Mrs. Sophia Renner, widow of the late Isaac Renner, of the German Baptist Church, died recently at New Midway, Frederick county, aged eighty six years. She leaves five children, thirty-three grandchildren and twenty-eight great-grandchildren.

Lightning struck the barn of Mr. Frank Harsock, near Lisbon, Howard county, on Monday afternoon, partially shattering it, but doing no further damage.

It is said that Governor Lowndes will, by proclamation, designate September 4th—Labor Day—and September 12th—Defenders' Day—as legal State holidays.

A MOTHER TELLS HOW SHE SAVED HER LITTLE DAUGHTER'S LIFE.

I am the mother of eight children and have had a great deal of experience with medicines. Last summer my little daughter had the dysentery in its worst form. We thought she would die. I tried everything I could think of, but nothing seemed to do her any good. I saw by an advertisement in our paper that Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy was highly recommended and sent and got a bottle at once. It proved to be one of the very best medicines we ever had in the house. It saved my little daughter's life. I am anxious for every mother to know what an excellent medicine it is. Had I known it at first it would have saved me a great deal of anxiety and my little daughter much suffering. Yours truly, Mrs. Geo. F. Burdick, Liberty, R. I. For sale by W. He uses Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy and says he never found anything that would give him such quick relief. It is for sale by W. Scott Zepp, Druggist, Westminster.
