CORRESPONDENCE
1765

Samuel Galloway

incoming Letters

MS. 1994

SIDE ONE

London the 5 of may 1765

Mr Samuel Galloway

D Sir

I have Wrote you by Sundry Opportunitys in which you had the State of my Transactions for you which I hope was to your Satisfaction I have nothing now to offer only that if you Build any more Ships that you would make them more Broad on the Floor & Straiter on the Futtock Such Ships will Sell for the best Price as beinge more Suitable for the Baltick & Cole Trade

I hope the Bounty on Hemp will incourage the People in your Province to imbarke in that undertakin the Price for that Sort of good Stuff is now 29 to 30 pr Ton for ordage, 34 a 35 Bbs

Wheat is here Extremly dear & its expected the Port of London will be opened should this be the case & for a time that would allow Sinding from your Quarter its would answer landing will for you to Send your Snow here with a Cargo the Price now pr Bushell is 6/6

Trade is very Slack & but little imployment for Shiping from which you may gess the Price of Ships but low money very Scarce hope you will favor me with a Remitance for the Balance of my Acct 35..1..8

paid Tudman ----- 5-- more for ingrossin the agreement then charged in my Acct which was Ten & Sixpence but paid him 15/6

I am D Sir your Humble Sert

Wm Tippell

Wm Tippell
May 5. 1765

To
Mr Samuel Galloway
Merch at Nel River
Maryland

Fr Wm Tippell
May 5 1765