CORRESPONDENCE
1766

Samuel Galloway incoming Letter

MS. 1994.

SIDE TWO

and my Sister will not pick up by any Means with L. Disappointment in Polly coming run with you, so that you will not at any Rate prevent her the Pleasure of my Nieces Company — My Compliments to Nancy Galloway, if I can get down to the Races by any possible Stretch of Prerogative you may depend on seeing me but I have a thousand Doubts about the Matter — If you see Mr. Hampble, pray tell him I shall send the Ballance his Bills Rech.d by the first Oppty, I hear they sell for 65, tho I am not certain about it — I am in Haste to go to Bed

Yours affectionately

John Hood

* Probably the Ann Galloway who married Jos Pemberton, Jr of Philadelphia — She inherited the land now known as Pemberton and lived there after her husband lost his fortune —