CORRESPONDENCE
1766

Samuel Galloway incoming Letters

MS. 1994.

SIDE ONE

London the 7 of Jan.y 1766

Mr Samuel Galloway

D.r Sir I have answered fully by Capt: Smith your Lappys of which I have this day Rec.d pr Rob.t Morris the whol of which Shall as the Circumstances may offer be Executed in the best manner for your Intrest as yet can say nothing about your new Ship I find you have wrote Mr Grove about her if he Expect she is to load for him I asked him if he would Charter her he said no that as you had wrote him you would Provide him faight he had no Reason to Charter I did not aquaint him with any part of your Order about Selling or Charter in that Ship as I found he Expected she was to Load for him this will make no alteration with me on act.t of Executing your Order I suppose you can Supply him with Fraight in another manner I have Just time to say thus much in answer to yours to save the Oportunety of this Ship but Shall write you more fully pr next Oportunety by that time may be able to Say Sumthing of the Distination of your New Ship but dare not Expect to Sell her on the 4 Instant had Mr Pirkins Ship Measured by a Proper person in that implayment which make her 233 11/94 Tons Capt: Kelsey have aquainted Mr pirkins that you allow one of the wheels in the Breath which would make 60 or 7 Tons Difference I am to Sattle for the Balance in 2 or 3 days and believe must Stay the 60 days for the Payment of this & Every other matter Shall aquaint you in my Next by the first Ship that Sail after this

I am D.r Sir your Humble Serv.t

Wm Tippell