1767 Samuel Galloway incoming Letters 1994

SIDE TWO

drawn and sent home by one of the Ships that are near sailing, Mr Shippen told me last Night that if I do not get security from him and take his own Bond, emediately on the Award I may detain him if he does not give me security then, I shall be entirely directed by Mr Chew & him, and write at you here from me by every oppo tunity. I enquired of Tod the price of the Top for a Carriage he says the lowest price with 32 ℔ in the manner you want it neatly painted with a gold Mauldin or three pound less if not gelded.

I am just setting of and am
