A meeting of the Republican County Central Committee and the candidates nominated on Monday last, will be held at the Sentinel office on Wednesday, October 3rd. Every member of the committee and every candidate should be present on the ocasion.

A Democratic county convention will be held in this city on Monday, October 9th, for the purpose of electing delegates to the judicial convention of the party, which will be held at Ellicott City on Wednesday, October 11th. The primaries to elect delegates to the county convention will be held on Saturday, October 7th.

The nomination of Judge Bond for Chief Judge of the Fifth Maryland Circuit, by the Republicans of the circuit, was the logical outcome of the party's determination to eliminate politics, as far as possible, from the judiciary. In most of the Northern States men are selected for the bench because of their qualifications and without considering their political sentiments. The Republicans of the neighboring State of Pennsylvania have repeatedly nominated and voted for Democrats for important judicial stations. In this respect Maryland has differed greatly from her big neighbor, Republicans of the Fifth Circuit being almost alone in having endeavored to ignore politics in elections for judgeships. The appointment of Judge Bond by the Governor and his nomination by the Republican convention furnishes an example which should be followed by both parties here and elsewhere in the State. Judge Bond is the logical successor of Judge Roberts. He has had experience on the bench, his legal attainments are extensive and his ability unquestioned. As a judge he will be strictly impartial. He ought to be elected without opposition.

At the meeting of the Republican State Central Committe, in Baltimore on Monday last, Senator Wellington resigned the chairmanship and Gen. Thos. J. Shryock, of Baltimore, was promptly elected to fill the vacancy. Gen. Shryock immediately secured excellent headquarters at the Eutaw House and is determined to make a vigorous and aggressive campaign, showing the financial and other benefits which have resulted to the people of the State by Republican administration, and, on the other hand, not suffering the vulnerable record of the Democratic party, for thirty years of misrule, to escape attack. The attacks made upon the Republican party by the Democratic press and Democratic orators are, in most cases, utterly groundless. For an example of this read the Sentinel's editorial this week on "Gov. Lowndes and the Public Schools." These attacks are made for the purpose of attracting attention from the unsavory record of Democratic bossism in this State, previous to the overthrow of the Ring in 1895, but they will not serve their purpose. Republican control of State affairs cannot fail to meet the approval of thoughtful citizens and the record can, in a great measure, be left to take care of itself, with an occasional word to correct false representations by the enemy. It will not need an electric searchlight to reveal the vicious character of the history made by Ring Democracy in its many years of misrule. A farthing rushlight may do that, and point the way for the aggressive campaign just inaugurated.

The warship Olympia arrived in New York harbor on Tuesday, with Admiral Dewey on board. She came two days sooner than expected, but the great naval commander received a rousing welcome and great demonstrations of regard have been exhibited for the Hero of Manila. New York is literally crowded with visitors, who have flocked to the scene, by millions it is said.

GOV. LOWNDES AND THE PUBLIC SCHOOLS.

The editors of Democratic newspapers in the counties of Maryland must place a low estimate upon the intelligence of their readers if they imagine the evidence adduced by the Democratic Editorial Association to sustain its indictment of partisanship against Governor Lowndes, in the matter of the public schools of the State, exhibits the Executive in an unfavorable light before the public. The evidence referred to, which has been published in all the newspapers connected with the association, proves, beyond controversy, that the Governor has taken a long step in the way of divorcing the public schools from politics and placing them upon a business plane. For instance, by the showing of these Democratic editors themselves, the school boards in seventeen of the twenty-three counties of the State, when Governor Lowndes was inaugurated, were wholly Democratic. These counties were: Allegany, Anne Arundel, Baltimore, Calvert, Caroline, Charles, Dorchester, Garrett, Howard, Kent, Prince George's, Queen Anne's, Somerset, St. Mary's, Talbot, Wicomico and Worcester. Under Governor Lowndes' administration every one of these counties has a Democratic representation of one-third the number of the board. Cecil county, which had one Republican school commissioner out of three, now has two Republicans and one Democrat. Frederick is really the only county in which there were more Republicans in the board under Democratic administration than there are Democrats under Republican administration, with one exception. The only county in the State in which there is not a Democrat on the board is Garrett.

The claim is set up that Carroll county had two Republicans under Democratic rule, and has only one Democrat at this time. That matter has been fully ventilated heretofore in the Sentinel and it has been shown that both the Republican Commissioners, as they were termed, invariably and always voted with the Democrats on every question upon which there was a division. One of them who is still in the board, is not recognized as a Republican in that relation.

Another feature of the matter is that the Democrats have been permitted to name the commissioners to represent them, while the few Republicans on the boards under Democratic appointment were named without any consultation with their party associates. The Democrats now have genuine representation on the boards, while, in reality, Republican representation when the Democrats were in control of the State Government, was only nominal, on the few boards in which they were recognized at all. Some of the counties still have Democratic examiners, and, we believe, where Republicans have succeeded Democrats in that position, it has only been when vacancies occurred, by expiration of terms of service or by resignation.

The editor of the Sentinel cannot speak of the character of the changes made in this respect, in any county except Carroll, but it may be said, without fear of successful contradiction, that the schools have lost nothing here by the substitution of a Republican for a Democrat, either as examiner or assistant. This is said without any purpose to disparage the predecessor of either, for each of whom the Sentinel has a kindly regard.

Reference will be made to this subject again, as the Sentinel is determined that, as far as it is able, the people shall know the whole truth about the treatment of the school question under the rule of the opposing parties. For the spokesmen of an organization so thoroughly partisan in its conduct in relation to the schools as the Democratic party has always been, to arraign Governor Lowndes and his administration, in the matter, is nothing short of brazen effrontery.

REPUBLICAN JUDICIAL CONVENTION.

The Republican convention of the Fifth judicial circuit of Maryland, called to nominate a candidate for chief judge of the circuit, met at Odd Fellows' Hall, in this city, at noon Wednesday, and was called to order by George E. Sharrer, chairman of the Republican committee of Carroll county. Hon. J. Wirt Randall, of Annapolis, president of the Maryland Senate, was elected chairman, and W. W. Burton, of Ellicott City, secretary.

Upon assuming the chair, Mr. Randall spoke briefly, but strongly, in eulogy of the record made by the Republican administration of the state during the last four years.

A committee on credentials, consisting of Charles T. Reifsnider, Col. George W. King and B. T. Perkins, was appointed, and reported the following as entitled to seats in the convention:

Anne Arundel County—Dr. H. B. Gantt, Hon. J. Wirt Randall, T. Arrington Thompson, F. H. Stockett and B. T. Perkins.

Carroll County—Charles T. Reifsnider, for himself and as proxy for Arthur F. Smith, Joseph D. Brooks, Ivan L. Hoff, W. L. W. Seabrook—the last named as proxy for John H. Cunningham.

Howard County—George D. Day, Col. George W. King and W. W. Burton.

Jos. D. Brooks, as a committee on resolutions, presented the following, which was unanimously adopted:

> "Convinced that every good citizen who desires to have justice impartially administered believes that the judiciary should be absolutely independent of all political influence and entanglements, and satisfied that the true tests of fitness for the bench are capacity, integrity and legal acquirements, the Republican party presents to the Fifth Judicial Circuit of Maryland, without reference to party affiliations, James A. C. Bond as an eminently suitable candidate for the position of Chief Judge of the circuit; and laying out of view and rising above all considerations of a political character, as the Republican party has frequently done in dealing with the judicial office, this convention directs that the name of Judge James A. C. Bond be placed upon the official ballot under the Republican party emblem as a candidate for Chief Judge of the Fifth Judicial Circuit of Maryland.
> "If parties or political favoritism, rather than fitness and capacity, are to control the selection of judicial candidates, the judiciary will speedily degenerate from an independent to a subservient branch of the State Government—it will cease to be respected and lose its usefulness precisely in proportion to its subordination to the demands of partisanship."

The presiding officer deemed the adoption of the resolutions a nomination of Judge Bond, but entertained a motion of Colonel George W. King that Hon. James A. C. Bond be declared the nominee of the convention, and the motion was adopted by acclamation.

The appointment of a committee of one from each county of the circuit, of which the presiding officer should be chairman, was then moved and adopted, and Messrs. Reifsnider and Day were named as his associates to formally notify Judge Bond of the action of the convention. The convention then adjourned, subject to a call of the chairman.

The committee on notification promptly discharged the duty imposed by the convention, proceeding at once to the residence of Judge Bond, on East Main street, and making known to him officially the action of the convention. Judge Bond responded verbally, signifying his intention to accept the nomination, and to at once notify the committee in writing to that effect. Before the committee retired, his letter of acceptance was submitted, and is as follows:

> "Gentlemen of the committee:
>
> "I fully agree with the sentiments which the resolutions adopted by the judicial convention embody. I do not believe that political considerations should enter into the selection of a judge. I do not believe that he should owe his selection to any political party. These views are held by many, if not by most of the conservative and thoughtful people of the county today. The questions with which a judge has to deal are essentially different from those that concern the politician and the voter in an ordinary election. A judge can best serve the state, and best discharge the duties of his high and responsible office when wholly independent of political surroundings. I accept the nomination in the spirit in which it was tendered. The office is, in its very nature, a non-partisan office. I pledge myself, if chosen by the voice of the people, to act with rigid impartiality and with unvarying fidelity, knowing no party, no class and no creed, and devoting my utmost energy to the arduous duties which the position imposes.
>
> Yours truly,
> JAMES A. C. BOND."

Judge Bond entertained the members of the committee, a number of delegates and others at a handsome collation.

The action of the convention meets the hearty concurrence of the Republicans of this county, and some prominent Democrats express the opinion that the nomination of an opposing candidate by the Democratic convention will be ill-advised and improper.

THE REPUBLICAN NOMINATING CONVENTION.

As per the call of the chairman, Dr. J. Weaver, Jr., of Uniontown, the Republican county convention reassembled at Odd Fellows' Hall, this city, on Monday, for the purpose of nominating candidates for the General Assembly and county offices. The convention was called to order by Dr. Weaver at 11 o'clock, A. M. As it had been fully organized at its first meeting, no delay in the transaction of the business for which it had been convened was necessary. At the suggestion of the chairman an order of business was adopted and the convention immediately proceeded to the nomination of a ticket, with the following result:

State Senator.—Dr. Clotworthy Birnie, of Taneytown.

House of Delegates.—John R. Bennett, of Freedom district; Nathan Englar, of Union Bridge district; Louis E. Shriver, of Myers' district; Charles J. Flater, of Woolery's district.

Sheriff.—Jacob Thomson, of Westminster.

Judges of Orphans' Court.—Wm. Y. Frizzell, of Franklin district; Dr. Benj. G. Franklin, of New Windsor district; Marshall G. Shaw, of Uniontown district.

State's Attorney.—Charles T. Reifsnider, Jr., of Westminster.

County Commissioner.—George C. Richards, of Hampstead district.

County Treasurer.—Grove J. Shipley, of Woolery's district.

County Surveyor.—J. Wm. Earhart, of Myers' district.

The nominations of the candidates for State Senator, County Commissioner, County Treasurer and County Surveyor were made by acclamation.

For the House of Delegates six names were placed in nomination, and the ballot resulted as follows: John R. Bennett, 64½; Nathan Englar, 64½; Louis E. Shriver, 58½; Charles J. Flater, 54; Weldon B. Wooden, 13; Charles H. Sapp, 3½. Messrs. Wooden and Sapp were from the same district—Hampstead—and the delegation was divided.

For Sheriff, Jacob Thomson received 40 votes; Charles Elmer Wampler, of Woolery's district, 15 votes; James . Stoner, of Westminster, 10 votes.

For Judges of the Orphans' Court, Wm. Y. Frizzell received 56 votes; Marshall G. Shaw, 40 votes; Dr. B. G. Franklin, 39½ votes; Francis J. Leatherwood, of Freedom district, 19 votes; Ira G. Lawyer, of Myers' district, 5 votes; Wm. Landis, of Manchester district, 13½ votes; John H. Mitten, of Westminster, 2 votes.

For State's Attorney, Charles T. Reifsnider, Jr., received 45 votes, and Ivan L. Hoff 20 votes.

Messrs. Reid, of New Windsor, and Otto, of Middleburg, were the tellers.

Jacob Thomson was put in nomination by Wm. B. Thomas, of Westminster, in an enthusiastic speech, reviewing the situation and strongly commending the national administration, and the effect of Republican control of the government.

Mr. Thomas H. Shipley, of Franklin district, was put in nomination for sheriff, but, having been a delegate to the convention, withdrew his name in a brief, but very expressive speech, in which he declared that he held the success of the party above mere personal considerations; that he desired harmonious action by the convention and thought his withdrawal might aid in promoting that object; that he was always willing to step aside in such an interest and to give to the nominees his unqualified and hearty support. It was a manly, straightforward and patriotic speech, and Mr. Shipley deserves the warmest commendation for the self-sacrificing spirit manifested by him.

After the nomination of the ticket the convention elected the following delegates to the Fifth Congressional district convention, which was held in this city on Wednesday: Joseph D. Brooks, Charles T. Reifsnider, Arthur F. Smith, Ivan L. Hoff, and John H. Cunningham.

The County Central Committee was empowered to fill any vacancy that might occur on the ticket, and then, after selecting the head of Lincoln as the party emblem, the convention adjourned sine die.

The offices of registration will be open in this county on Tuesday next from 8 o'clock A. M. to 7 P. M.

THE REPUBLICAN COUNTY TICKET.

The ticket nominated for the General Assembly and local offices, by the Republican convention of Carroll county, which met in this city on Monday last is regarded, by common consent, both by Republicans and Democrats, as a very strong one in its general personnel. It is made up of substantial, intelligent and upright citizens and the character of every man upon it is above reproach. It represents the interests of all the people of the county as thoroughly as any ticket ever nominated by either party. From the candidate for State Senator down to the nominee for County Surveyor it is composed of pure, upright and honorable citizens.

Dr. Clotworthy Birnie, of Taneytown, who heads the ticket, is an ideal candidate—a man of modest unassuming demeanor, but a man of marked ability and culture. Neither party in the county could furnish a senator better equipped for the efficient duties of that high office than he, nor one who would more highly honor it by a nobler and better character.

Of the candidates for the House of Delegates, Mr. John R. Bennett, of Freedom district is an intelligent farmer, who possesses, in the highest degree, the confidence and respect of his neighbors and fellow-citizens of all political parties. He is a good man and true, with no mean ability for the proper discharge of the duties of the important office for which he has been nominated.

Mr. Nathan Englar, of the House of Delegates ticket, of Union Bridge district, is a successful business man and merchant at Linwood and has by years of experience demonstrated his ability as a man of affairs. Intelligent, energetic and upright in his dealings, he has gained the unlimited confidence of all who have been brought into business or social relations with him and who know that as a legislator he will never betray their trust.

Mr. Louis E. Shriver, of Myers' district, another of the House of Delegates' candidates, resides at Union Mills, where he was formerly engaged in the business of tanning from which he has now retired. He is a practical and experienced tanner, having gained his knowledge by actual work in the tannery. He is every inch a gentleman, is well known and greatly esteemed about his own home and in this city, is well informed in relation to the interests of the county and State, and possesses just such qualities of general intelligence and business experience and capacity as fit him for the discharge of the duties of a legislator in an efficient manner.

Mr. Charles J. Flater, of Woolery's district, is a resident of Sandyville and is engaged in the huckstering business. He is a man of unusually strong and commendable characteristics and vigorous intellect, capable of weighing important public questions intelligently and of reaching correct conclusions. His character is above reproach and his reputation unsullied by a single stain. He commands the respect and esteem of all who have the pleasure of his acquaintance. He will make a capable and conscientious legislator.

Charles T. Reifsnider, Jr., Esq., the party's candidate for State's Attorney, is the oldest son of Charles T. Reifsnider, Esq., of this city, of which he is a native. He was educated at the University of Virginia, studied law with his father and took a full course at the University of Maryland, School of Law, from which he was graduated with high honor, standing first in his class in some important branches of study. He has been, for some years, the junior partner of the law firm of Reifsnider & Reifsnider and has acquired by actual experience and training such a knowledge of his profession as eminently qualifies him for the efficient discharge of the duties of State's Attorney. He is not excelled, in this respect, by any member of the Westminster bar of his age. His course of life, too, is free from all reproach and his character thoroughly upright, honorable and just.

For Judges of the Orphans' Court it is scarcely necessary to say a word about Judge Wm. Y. Frizell, of Franklin district, where he is an enterprising and successful farmer and business man. Judge Frizzell was renominated by the convention by an almost unanimous vote, a compliment which he well deserved. He is now a member of the court, in the closing year of a four-year term. He was widely known and very popular when he was first a candidate for the place, and his intercourse with the people in his official capacity has demonstrated that he is the "right man in the right place." Capable, upright, quiet, unassuming, and kind, but firm in the discharge of official duty, he commands the respect and kindly regard of every man with whom he comes in contact in public or private life.

Dr. Benjamin G. Franklin of Marston, in New Windsor district, is a practicing physician of large experience. He is a gentleman of unblemished character and enviable reputation, vigorous and cultivated mind and keen intelligence. He has more than once been importuned by the Republicans of Carroll county to accept a nomination for high office, but hitherto declined such overtures. In gaining his consent to permit his name to go before the convention for the Orphans' Court judgeship the Republicans were very fortunate and are to be congratulated on his acceptance of the nomination. No better man than he has ever sat on that bench, either in character or qualifications.

Mr. Marshall G. Shaw, of Uniontown district, the remaining nominee for Judge of the Orphans' Court, like Judge Frizzell, is one of the best known and most highly esteemed citizens of this county. He is a farmer and also conducts an insurance agency which has brought him into contact with the people in every district of this county, by whom he is esteemed as a gentlemen of exceptional worth and character. He has had considerable experience in affairs touching directly the interests of the people of this county, and has discharged every trust with fidelity and intelligence. At this time he is a member of the Board of School Commissioners of the county. He is worthy the highest laudation in connection with the office for which he has been nominated.

For County Commissioner, Mr. Geo. C. Richards, of Hampstead district, deserves no less commendation than the worthiest man on the ticket. A Hampstead gentleman, who has long known him intimately and well, remarked after his nomination: "I will not say that George C. Richards is the best man I know; but I will say that I have never known a better." Mr. Richards was formerly a public school teacher, but is now engaged in farming. He is one of the most intelligent farmers in the county and can bring to the discharge of the duties of the commissioner's office a knowledge of the needs of the property holders and taxpayers of the county not exceeded by any other citizen. His election would be of decided benefit to every man in the county interested in the judicious and efficient management of county affairs.

Mr. Grove J. Shipley, of Woolery's district, the nominee for county treasurer, like all his associates on the ticket, is a thoroughly upright and honorable gentleman. Dr. Silas N. Gorsuch, who placed his name in nomination, in a speech which commanded the respectful attention and approbation of the convention, declared him to be a gentleman of the highest character for probity and integrity and a man thoroughly capable of discharging the duties of the office with efficiency and to the satisfaction of the public. Mr. Shipley has long been a teacher in the public schools of the county, and has served as president of the County Teachers' Association.

Of the veteran J. Wm. Earhart, of Myers' district, who is the nominee of the convention for County Surveyor, it may be said that, while the office has no attractions for him, a worthier candidate for the place could not have been selected. Mr. Earhart has been a Justice of the Peace for many years, and was one of the very few men appointed to that office by Democratic Governors. His Republicanism is pronounced and decided, but his value to the people of his section, as a magistrate, constrained them, regardless of party, to insist upon his appointment time and again. He helps to give strength to the ticket by his character for probity and his efficiency as a public officer.

What is said of the nominees, in the aforegoing, is not merely formal panegyric, but a true and accurate portrayal of their standing in the county and their qualifications for the positions for which they have been nominated.

DEWEY-DYER DAYS.

Men are but children, still.
A soldier and a sword, a drum, a fife,
Hero—destroyers of property and life.
Are these from Cavite or Bunker Hill?
Were homes defended, or seas crossed to kill?
It matters nil, nor, likely, ever will.
They're still adjudged for holidays most fit
By those too good to look on a cock-pit,
For men are children, still.
