1767 Samuel Galloway incoming Letters

SIDE ONE

1994

[illegible] Galloway

Dr Sir

my last I enclosed you [illegible] for the Nancy Greyhound Cargo since which nothing have occurred shipping continues in the same dull state as before — we now have a fine season for our corn and the Importation stop in September it is amazing the Quantity brought to this port notwithstanding which it is now at 6s. per 2l. neg. Buckwheat all the ports in France & Flanders have stoped the Exportation should we have a bad Harvest I do not know what will be the consequence however at present we have a good Prospect — Benny is now at London on his vocation he grow a fine youth I believe you and you may without Disapointment Expect him Clever in his Education — I refer you to all my former in which you have the State of your Acts &c all of which I hope Meet your aprobation I have nothing more at Present but always am Respectfully

Sir Your Humble Serv[t]

Wm Tippell