Dear Sir Benedict May 29th 1767

I am sorry to find since my return here that my Neighbour Mr. G. Maxwell hath got the Start of us in engaging Mr. Ringgolds Corn. he tells me he agreed at Annapolis last Week to Charter the Sloop & Ms — & send the Corn to Madeira on their joint account — this is a great Bankr to our plan I know not how what can be done with the Stephen, however we must be on the Lookout for some Business for her by the time she hath got clear of her wines & gets cleaned. she is very foul. both Bottom & upper works — I have seen nothing as yet of your little Schooner — if she appears before the Stephen leaves the River your Wines shall be delivered to her agreeable to your order — I sent your 2d Bill of Sea by Capt.
