CORRESPONDENCE
1769

Samuel Galloway Incoming Letters 1994

SIDE TWO

Repelled the House of Commons. the next Election is fixed for the 15th of April next when Capt Luttrell will oppose him but will come off I am afraid no better than Mr B. F. he gives up a seat in Parliament on purpose to oppose thes sublime admirer and encourager of Liberty. Alas so great is the desire of tumult. Captain Tipple has sold the Ship [illegible] what you set her at. and Capt Young comes back in one Capt Buchanan. I shall return to Eton in a very short time where I shall with the utmost diligence pursue my studies hoping to answer the full expectation of the kindest of Parents. I must now conclude with begging my Compliments to all friends and Love to my Sisters and Brothers. believe me Dr Papa

Yr ever Dutiful Son

Benjamin Galloway.