CORRESPONDENCE
1769

Samuel Galloway Incoming Letter

1990

SIDE ONE

London the 21 of Aug.t 1769

Mr Samuel Galloway & Mr Stephen Steward Dear Sirs

you by Capt.n Young then Furnished you with the sale two Friends &c all of which I hope met your approbation which I have had none of yours — shipping continues same State as before nor are we likely to have any ion for the better can only say what Ever come into my from you I will as I always have do the best for your — a Friend of mine Eminent in the corn Trade would ed to have a Contract for a Cargo or two of Wheat — Price Certain — clear aboard with Freight &c Delivered any Port without the straits Towards England not further to the Eastward in our Channell then Haverdegrace on the Coast of France — nor further to the Northward in the other Channell than Dublin — the ship to call at cork in Ireland for Orders what Port to be Discharged at — that Place being nothing out of the way from America unless should be ordered to Cadiz or Lisbon and then no grate matter — the Detainton at cork will be nothing as Imediately on your advice of any thing being put on Foot Orders would be sent to cork to meet the Ship aquainting them of their Distination — a bill of lading for the cargo must be Dispatched here as fast as Possible to make Insurance from america to Cork the sight of the bill of Lading will be Honour for the bills for the Cargo which you'll make as Long date for as you can not that my Principal is in want of a Fund to answer any bills but to Shew him that a advantage is takin — to have your Reply to this and to give an Answer to your Price set for Such a Contract will Runn of at least 6 months by that time the Speculation may be over should you on the Receipt of this find things Favourable say Wheat cheap and an Easy Freight I say should you on your Own Account

Turn over