1773 MARCH 22 JEREM[IA]H WATKINS TO SAMUEL GALLOWAY

MS. 1994

SIDE ONE

Sir/ If its not inconvenient, Please to order Some Salt up in the Boat, for our People, when I wrote to you last for Salt, the fellow was disapointed at the yard, they are very often without any to make use of — you may depend on my dispatching the Vessel as soon as possible, and hope you send the Vessel back, for the Remainder of the Corn As Soon As I deliver the first load, As you told me you had rather have it Soon than not. and will be much more convenient for me. —

Monday 22. March 1773 — I am yours to Command

Jerem.h Watkins
