1774 DEC. 25 Thos Ringgold to Samuel Galloway

MS. 1994

SIDE TWO

Right of taxes being collected here. The Tobacco of both Countries certainly is suspended on a Slender Thread which the Caprice of but a few on either Side the Water have much in their power to break. I shall have but little peace of Mind until I know the Temper of the Parliament. You will please write me if Ben gives you any thing new, by your next Letter. — We all join in our warmest best Love & Wishes & I am with great Regard

Dear Sir Yr most affect & obliged

Thos Ringgold
