I would not omit letting my dear Papa hear from us, altho there has not any thing new occurd since we parted, nor have I any thing to relate but that we are all well, I am much better then when I left home, for which I think my self indebted to laying at anchor in our passage over. my Sister got a Letter from Mr R— last night he has some thoughts of returning by Philadelphia, I hope Mrs Ogle will be pleasd with her reception, tho from Mrs Dulanys account I fear she will not.

please to pay my Aunt Mifflin for some things she got for me some time ago and get the favor of her to send me white Silk enough to line a large cloak and Bloand lace to trim it. Mr Cheston desires his Comps. please to give my best love to my Aunts

I am your Dutiful Daughter. A Cheston
