1775 NOV. 2 BEN[JAMIN] GALLOWAY TO SAMUEL GALLOWAY

MS. 1994

SIDE TWO

with so much provision as may be necessary for their immediate Use - this must be looked upon merely as a prudential measure and not construed into an inclination to give any aid to them - Mr Ringgold is arrived from the Westward - seems determined with the approbation of his Mother to remove his Family immediately to Hagers Town where he informs me, he has taken a House - if Henry should remain well - I propose to go to Frederick Court - Mrs Mr. Chew are averse to Henry's crossing the Bay, so have abandoned all thoughts of it - shall be glad to hear from you - I am Sir

You affectionate and dutyfull Son
Ben Galloway
