makes me suspect there is something or other in the Wind, that has not come to light yet. And ~~than~~ I am afraid when it does make its Appearence, that it will not be very Agreable to either of us — My Suspicions is not grounded upon outward Appearence only, but also on information which I have got from W.L. which is that, W.L. is at this time much indebted in this Town, that to his own knowledge he Owes upwards of £3000 besides the Money that belongs to me. This you will say is enough to alarm me, And I am sure your Ideas can't be very Agreable — I wish with all my ~~Soul~~ heart it was Settled —

29th Novr. 1775

Since the above I have got a sight of the two Wills, but nothing further, and I am afraid shall be obliged to leave the Account without ever seeing of it, this perplexes me a good Deal, as it makes me to suspect the Worst, for it is natural to conclude A man that has every thing fair & clear, would with the least hesitation at a moments warning settle the Account. And be happy in giving Advice for my futer conduct in life, but I am Afraid it will be some time before he Does the former — the latter, he Does not trouble himself about — every moment makes me wish more and more, for your speedy Arrival, As I am certain the sooner You make your Appearence the better — I shall set of for London to Morrow, with W.W. Where I propose, spending the Xmas, And flatter myself it will be a ~~happy~~ one, As the house is quite full — Mr. and Mrs. Dulany & Edd. Price being Arrived, All three of them is confined
