1778 JUNE 9 JER[EMIAH] WATKINS TO SAMUEL GALLOWAY

MS.1984

SIDE ONE

Sir/ I will humbly thank you for the loan of 12 or £15, if Mr. Galloway can spare it with convenience — It has not been in my Power to hire any wheat out as yet, and am afraid it will not, till my Corn is laid beforemy House are but indifferent — we have been very dry till this Spell of weather which has occasioned Flax to be low, I shall get the Tob.co fitted as fast as I can, I shall make but little. I have planted no Tob.co the Fly has destroyed me of my forward plants — wheat and Oats are pretty good. pray does Mr. Galloway want an another Beef this Season, and whether they are to be continued feeding — Jam Sir your Hble Serv.t Jer.h Watkins
