While mowing during haymaking time Mr. George G. Lambert, of Locust Grove Farm, Sams Creek, disturbed a partridge's nest in which there were nineteen eggs, and taking them from the nest placed them under a setting hen. As a result twelve young partridges were hatched all of which were, when our informant saw them, a few days ago, alive and doing well.

While the wheat crop is generally regarded as excellent this year, it may turn out to be even better than anticipated, as some exceptionally large yields are already reported. Mr. Thos. Turfle has threshed thirty-six bushels to the acre on his farm near this city, and on Mr. Ferd. D. Schaeffer's farm in Cranberry Valley the wheat thus far threshed is said to have yielded forty bushels per acre.

A correspondent of the SENTINEL writes: "The Brick Bethel Sunday School held a unique children's day service on Sunday night last. The service instead of being by the children was for the children. A fine musical program was rendered by members of the church choir. Addresses were made by Rev. B. F. Clarkson, of Linganore; Miss Timanus, of Baltimore, and Prof. W. J. Heapes. The children were present in great numbers and seemed to enjoy the exercises."

M., Sunday. Only immediate relatives were present at the dinner given in their honor. Mr. Williar was a former resident of Frederick county. He is a brother of Mrs. Geiman.

Mrs. Mary E. Davis, of Philadelphia, who is visiting her sister, Mrs. P. H. Lauterback, of Freedom district, was paralyzed on Wednesday and is in a critical condition. She has been unconscious ever since the beginning of the attack. Mrs. Davis is a niece of Mrs. E. J. Rippard, of this city.

One of the numerous parties from this city who spent July 4th picknicking or fishing, visited Double Pike Creek on the occasion and had some excellent sport with the rod and reel. Mr. John H. Cunningham, who was of the party, caught the champion bass of the season, which tipped the scales at 3½ pounds.

Receivers for next week, Misses Eva Ball and Jennie Yingling.

While Mr. Charles Neiner, of Smallwood, aged sixty-nine years, was on his barnfloor during the prevalence of a violent thunderstorm on Thursday evening, the door, which was open, was blown shut and unhinged by the violence of the wind. It fell on Mr. Neiner's right leg and caused a compound fracture of the bone four inches above the knee. Drs. M. L. Bott and J. T. Hering, of this city, were sent for and adjusted the fracture.

Harvest in this county is over and for several days farmers have been marketing new wheat at the patent roller mills of Messrs. Roberts, Roop & Co., and Messrs. N. I. Gorsuch & Son, this city, the first of the crop having been received on Tuesday. The grain is generally of excellent quality. The price per bushel paid for the first deliveries was seventy-two cents. Mr. C. C. Gorsuch informs us that from his inquiries and observations he estimates that the average yield in this county will be about double that of last year.

Dr. George C. Worthington, of Baltimore, recently convicted of performing a criminal operation and sentenced to the penitentiary for a long term, applied to Judge Jones, at Ellicott City, upon a habeas corpus proceeding, to be released on bail, pending an appeal. Harry Allgire, formerly of this county, who is implicated in Dr. Worthington's crime, and is under indictment in Baltimore, has not yet been tried.

The nation's anniversary was observed in this city by a total suspension of business. It was preceded by the firing of explosives on the evening of the third and this was continued throughout the day and evening of the fourth. At night fireworks were displayed at private houses by many citizens. The exhibition of this character at the residence of Mayor Gilbert was probably the most profuse and interesting of the occasion. Many citizens were absent during the day at Pen-Mar, Hagerstown and elsewhere, numbers having spent the day in picknicking in groves or fishing in the streams of the county.

Three trusting business men in Frederick were recently victimized by a stranger, who purchased goods from them for which he paid with checks of the Pullman Car Company, receiving considerable sums in change. From one party he purchased a refrigerator which he ordered shipped to his mother at Mt. Airy. He gave a $35 check in payment, and received $16.25 in change. It is needless to say nobody has called for the refrigerator at Mt. Airy. Two jewelers sold diamonds to the same party, took similar checks in payment, but refuse to tell how much cash the stranger received in the transactions. Of course the checks were bogus.

Notices of the semi-annual dividends of the several national banks of this county will be found in our advertising columns this week, and indicate that these institutions continue to be managed in a very efficient and skillful manner. The first National Bank of New Windsor declares a dividend of 3½ per cent., clear of all taxes; the Farmers and Mechanics National Bank of Westminster, which has heretofore been declaring 3 per cent. semi-annual dividends, now declares a 3½ per cent. dividend, clear of federal, state and county taxes and adds $5,000 to the surplus fund; the First National Bank of Westminster declares a 4½ per cent. dividend, clear of federal and state taxes, and the Union National Bank of Westminster announces a dividend of 5 per cent. on the same basis.

B. F. Crouse, Esq., chairman of the Democratic county central committee of this county and chief clerk in the office of the Comptroller of the Treasury at Annapolis, was elected counsel to the board of school commissioners on Monday last. The situation is a rather anomalous one. Ivan L. Hoff, Esq., is really counsel to the commissioners, having been appointed to the position for one year from August 1st, 1899. He has not been removed and did not resign. Apparently the board now has dual counsel. It is safe to say that Mr. Hoff will not be consulted during the period between this and August 1st concerning any legal question which may arise in relation to the proceedings of the board. His views on certain questions would probably not be acceptable to a majority of the commissioners.

Rev. L. M. Zimmerman, pastor of Christ Lutheran Church, Baltimore, received a cablegram on Wednesday evening from Bremen, announcing the death of his brother, Rev. Adam Henry Zimmerman, who sailed for Europe on the North German Lloyed steamer, Rhein, June 24. In a conversation with the editor of the SENTINEL, shortly before he sailed, Mr. Zimmerman stated that it was his purpose to visit the Paris Exposition and to make an extensive tour of Europe and the British Isles, for health and pleasure. The cablegram to Rev. L. M. Zimmerman stated that his brother was taken ill with stomach trouble the day he landed at Bremen, and, though he was taken to a hospital and everything possible done for his relief, the disease proved fatal. Mr. Zimmerman was a son of the late Henry Zimmerman, near Snydersburg, this county, and a brother of Messrs. D. H. Zimmerman, of Lauver, and Theo. Zimmerman, of this city. He formerly resided here, but for the last ten years had been a citizen of Baltimore. He was a local minisier of the M. E. Church. His wife died during his residence here. He leaves one married daughter. Arrangements will be made to have his remains shipped to Baltimore for interment.

Mr. Jos. D. Brooks, Register of Wills of this county, has purchased the farm of Mr. Jesse D. Powder, near this city, for $3,500.

A correspondent of the SENTINEL says: "Mr. G. W. Grimes, Sr., of Franklin district, has a very fine peach orchard which gives promise of a large crop of fruit. Some of the people of the community, thres years ago, when the orchard was planted, predicted a failure, but Mr. Grimes has demonstrated that Carroll county can produce this much prized frhit, as well as our sister counties. Diversified farming after all is the surest plan."

Messrs. Quick and Allan, of the firm of Hill, Quick & Allan, civil and hydraulic engineers, of Baltimore, are at work surveying the line for the new water works for this city and investigating the power and other matters connected with that enterprise. Mr. Quick is the water engineer of Baltimore. Their survey is preparatory to beginning the work of constructing a reservoir, laying mains and completing the plant.

Mrs. Marion Lloyd Forney died at her home at Union Bridge, on Monday last. Mrs. Forney was a well known teacher in the public schools of this county. She was a lady of marked ability and of decided convictions, and was always fearless in giving expression to her opinions. She took a deep interest in public affairs and was strongly attached to the principles of the Republican party. She was a native of the North, but had resided in this county for many years. Her remains were interred in Mountain View Cemetery, Union Bridge, on Wednesday. Many leading citizens attended her funeral.

The free delivery system, which went into operation in this city on Thursday, gives general satisfaction to the citizens. The carriers succeeded admirably in locating those to whom they had mail to deliver, and very few mistakes were made. General deliveries are made at 6.30 A. M., 12.15 and 6.30 P. M., and a newspaper delivery between the postoffice and courthouse at 10 A. M., and these hours will be observed until further notice. Of course after carriers become thoroughly familiar with the patrons they will be able to pass over their routes with increased celerity, and the service will become practically perfect.

Children's Day on Deer Park Circuit.

It gives me great pleasure to say that the children's day services at every appointment on Deer Park Circuit have been a complete success, reflecting great credit on those who have borne the burdens and responsibilities at each point in training the children. The collections will run over the assessments, which is a good showing. Now we are looking forward to our Sunday School convention which is to be held at Deer Park Church, July 19. Rev. F. T. Little, D. D., of Baltimore, will preach the convention sermon at 16.30 A. M. Rev. C. M. Cullum and Rev. B. P. Truitt will also be present and take part. Manchester Items.

Standing room at Emanuel Lutheran Church of this place, on Sunday evening last, was at a premium, it having been the occasion of the farewell sermon of Rev. C. M. Eyster. The pulpit and altar surroundings were tastefully decorated with potted plants and flowers that added much to the beauty and pleasure of the occasion. In his review of the 15 years' work he gave this people Mr. Eyster had much to present of the kindness he had received at their hands and of good wishes for their future happiness and prosperity. The following statistics give an exhibit of his work in this charge covering about 150 square miles:

The 124th anniversary of our National Independence was generally observed in our town. In the evening of the 3rd, not only the small boy with his firecracker and colored light was upon the streets, but the most powerful explosives tried the nerves of the strongest until a late hour and scarcely had time told the hour of midnight, ere a large company was on the march with horns, bells and drums and made the welkin ring to their hearts' content. About 8.30 A. M., a large company left for Shaffer's dam to have a good time, but the early shower drove them to the house of Mr. John Shaffer, nearby, where they were hospitably received and the house thrown open to 60 or more persons. Ice cream and bananas were much enjoyed during the stay. The sky clearing they drove to the woods and enjoyed a dinner in a company of 70. Bathing, fishing and general fun made it a pleasant day. Those present from a distance were: Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Houck and children, Gardiner and Helen, Mr. and Mrs. Robson, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Motter, Mrs. Dr. Ed. Shower, Miss Lottie Saylor and Miss Blizzard, Mrs. Frey and sons, of Baltimore; Mr. and Mrs. A. H. Wentz and son George, of Westminster; Mr. Ed. Shaffer and children, Mary and Willie, of Melrose. Children's Day at Freedom.

Wesley Chapel M. E. Church held its annual children's day on Sunday, July 1st. The ancient building is so constructed that the decorations always show off to marked advantage, and this year was no exception to the rule. The church was admired by all in the immense congregation, which thronged the aisles, gallery and every other available place, for hearing and seeing.

Notwithstanding the fact that sickness in the family of those who heretofore had been most prominent in the work of training the children, and arranging the music for the day had prevented them from taking part, thereby putting double work on those who "took up the burden," the program was well rendered and heartily enjoyed by all, as was attested by a larger audience at night than in the morning. The night service is a feature of the day at Freedom, and the different parts seemed to go with more smoothness than in the morning.

The committee takes this means of publicly acknowledging how much they are indebted to the assistance of Messrs. A. and H. W. Streaker, of Berret, who, with the addition of the celebrated tenor voice of Mr. Ambrose Streaker and the clarionet to help swell the sweet sounds, (as well as the help of a good bass voice in special parts) of Mr. Harry Streaker, was the crowning touch of all the other attractions. Miss Elsie Bennett was organist, Miss E. Bennett and Mr. Q. Ruby violinists and Mr. H. Streaker clarionetist. This report would be unjust without a word of praise to Misses L. Becker and E. Selby and Mrs. T. Jones, who by their untiring efforts in training the children made the success of the day assured.
