The Democratic party is the tail to the populistic kite this year.

The Republicans have no party perfidy and dishonor to hamper them in their victorious campaign.

The dictatorial attitude of Boss Bryan at Kansas City is very suggestive of imperialism.

Hon. Adlai Stevenson was originally a greenbacker. Mix this with 16 to 1, and what will be the product?

Hon. Don. M. Dickinson, of Michigan, predicts "that Bryan will not get within two million as many votes as he did in 1896."

Since the adoption of the gold standard in Japan the curreney of that country has been freed from constant fluctuations in its exchange rate.

We oppose the accumulation of a surplus.—Democratic platform.

The Democratic party has always been a debt creator, even in time of peace.

Every dollar circulated in the United States is what Mr. Bryan calls a 200-cent dollar. This is better than the 50-cent dollar that he wants to give the people.

The war with Spain served to demonstrate something more than the military and naval stength of the United States. It brought to light the vast resources and wealth of this country.

Governor Roosevelt's mother was a Georgian and his uncles served in the Confederate navy. He fought side by side with Southerners in Cuba, and is an emblem of the type that joins North and South.

We condemn the Dingley tariff.—Democratic platform.

Yes. But the Democratic party was not honest enough to come out and openly favor free trade "in the interest of American labor."

Within two years this Republican Administration has realized, in cash or its equivalent, the sum of $124,421,671 on account of the Pacific Railroad indebtedness to the United States Government. More than one-half the money collected was for accrued interest that had not been paid.

A London cable says that "Nobody in England ever speaks of McKinley as anything but an uncompromising champion of American ideas and politics." His renomination was received in England without enthusiasm and with quiet reserve. It was different when Grover Cleveland was nominated to head the Democratic ticket.

We pledge the Democratic party against private monopoly in every form.—Democratic platform.

Then why did the Democratic National Chairman, Senator Jones, and the Democratic leader in the House of Representatives, Hon. Slim Jim Richardson, both propose legislation that would give millions of dollars to the sugar trust?

Subscriptions received from the popular loan issued in connection with our war with Spain amounted to 1,400,000,000 within thirty-one days. This was seven times as much as the amount of bonds offered. It was a very different result from that accomplished under the last Democratic Administration, when our bonds were hawked about the world at high rates of interest.

Miss Jennie Gernand, daughter of Joseph A. Gernand, of Gracehaam, and one of the most highly respected and esteemed ladies of Thurmont, Frederick county, died on the 20th instant, at the residence of her aunt, Mrs. Mary Hospelhorn, with whom she had made her home ever since childhood. She was in her 54th year, and is mourned by a large circle of friends.

Over 300 persons are now living in tents on the Emory Grove camp-ground, where the annual camp-meeting will begin August 13.

A GREAT ADMINISTRATION.

Evading the real issues of the campaign the Democratic newspapers in this locality are cramming their columns with exaggerated stories of the wrong doing of individuals in government employ, chiefly during the war with Spain, when the haste with which an army had to be enlisted, mobilized and supplied with provisions, &c., gave opportunities for fraud, of which some persons took advantage. President McKinley and his administration are charged with the responsibility of every wrongful act committed, and by innuendo, are held to be particeps criminis. The fact that the power of the government has been faithfully employed to ferret out and punish the wrong doers is not even hinted at in the matter. The successful conduct of the war; the great achievements of the army and navy; the renown won for the country as a power unrivalled in resources and in the ability to apply them whenever the occasion may arise; the addition to the country's domain of the splendid Island of Puerto Rico, against which the Democratic party as an organization dare not express disapproval; the acquisition of the Sandwhich Islands, with the commercial advantages accruing thereby, almost equally as satisfactory to the whole country as that of Puerto Rico—these are some great events to the credit of the administration, which the opposition either ignores altogether or treats with supreme indifference, while magnifying every seeming error in the greatest manner, and torturing the Filipino question into a shape not at all warranted by existing conditions.

But, it is not alone in the achievements recited that the administration of President McKinley has been so great as to command the admiration of all the world except the Populistic-Democratic party. In trade and commerce, in manufactures and in the employment of labor, in the development of agriculture, and, in fact, in the promotion of all the material interests of the people, the achievements of this administration have been without a parallel. Coupled with all these things, also, is the combined action of the legislative and executive departments of the government in making statutory the sound money standard for which the Republicans have thus far successfully contended against the coalition of Populists, Democrats and other advocates of a depreciated currency.

How trifling and puerile appear the stories of wrong doing, on the part of individuals, investigated and punished whenever proven, by the government, beside the grand achievements thus epitomized and marking the McKinley administration as one of the greatest in the annals of the country.

THE NEWS FROM CHINA.

The news from China is simply unreliable. Notwithstanding the reports of the wholesale massacre of foreigners at Pekin, including the members of the embassies of the United States and of the European Powers, assurances are given by the leading statesman of that country, Li Hung Chang, that all of them are still safe and under the protection of the Chinese government. A cablegram, ostensibly from Minister Conger, to the government at Washington, and bearing date on the 18th inst., conveyed the information of his safety and that of his associates, but stated that they were in great peril. Other stories to that effect still come out of China, but the news is questionable. These stories are believed by some, doubted by many, and entirely repudiated by others. Li Hung Chang says some of the legations are now on their way from Pekin to Tein Tsin, but he is a wily old diplomat, and what he says must be regarded with grains of allowance. It is believed that the date of Minister Conger's cablegram, even if the substance of the communication were correct, was set forward a long time.

There is a strong probability that many foreigners, missionaries and probably native christians have been massacred. Cablegrams from London, yesterday, say:

There is an unconfirmed Chinese report that sixty Protestant and Catholic missionaries have been massacred in Ki Yuan Fu and the vicinity.

The Shanghai correspondent of the Daily Mail, describing the masssere at Mukden, says:

"The bishop had armed 200 converts to defend the cathedral, and a body of Chinese troops had been sent to defend the converts, but the soldiers were leagued with the Boxers. While the Christians were holding a service, believing themselves safe under the protection of the troops, the signal was given, and soldiers and Boxers surrounded and set fire to the church, putting the escaping worshipers to the sword. The bishop was captured and taken to the viceroy's yamen, where he was diabolically tortured and decapitated. His head now hangs in front of the yamen.

The Hong Kong correspondent of the Daily Express wires as follows under yesterday's date:

"An Italian priest has just arrived here from Hen Sien Fu, in Southern Hu An where the Italian bishop and three priests have been massacred after revolting torture. This took place on July 4. Six hundred converts were massacred, after the women had been subjected to hideous brutalities. Six other priests fled to the hills, where they were probably killed. The priest who escaped had a perilous journey to Hong Kong. He hid in a coffin on board a river boat for seventeen days.

One of the most disastrous rainstorms that ever visited York county, Pa., occurred on Monday afternoon. Loss of life and damage that will amount to many thousands of dollars resulted. The greatest damage was done near Glenville, where there was a cloudburst. Streams rose with the greatest rapidity, overflowing their banks and carrying bridges, small buildings and fences away in their path. The flood swept for 10 miles over an area several miles in width, washing out cornfields to a depth of five feet in some places. Henry A. Frey, aged about 35 years, residing near Blooming Grove, was killed in the doorway of his flourmill by a stroke of lightning. The tracks of the Western Maryland railroad for a distance of three miles were entirely under water and the evening express was delayed for an hour until the water subsided.

The new Memorial Protestant Episcopal Church of the Prince of Peace, the cornerstone of which was laid in Gettysburg, Pa., 12 years ago, was used for the first time on Wednesday. In the tower of the church are about 200 stones placed there in memory of dead soldiers, many of whom lost their lives in the battle of Gettysburg. Around the walls of the auditorium there are also tablets erected in memory of the heroes of the Civil War. This was the principal object in building the church. Consecration of the church has been postponed until fall, but services will hereafter be held regularly in the new building.

THE LUTHERAN REUNION.

Rain interfered very greatly with the Lutheran reunion at Pen-Mar, on Thursday, and only about 3,000 persons were present.

The speaking took place in the dancing pavilion. Music was furnished by the Reunion Choir, of York, Pa., Prof. Ralph Heuter leader. The choir was composed of 15 voices. Zeigler's Pen-Mar Orchestra rendered instrumental music. The hymn "America" was sung by the audience. Luther's battle-hymn "Ein Feste Burg" was also sung.

The committee decided to hold the next reunion at Pen-Mar on the fourth Thursday in July, 1901. They also decided to invite the Reformed and Presbyterian Reunion Associations to join with them in asking the Western Maryland Railroad Company to build at Pen-Mar Park a commodious building to be used by the speakers on the occasions of the reunions. The building which has been used for this purpose is small and the sides are open, so that it could not be used today on account of the rain.

IS IT RIGHT
FOR AN EDITOR TO RECOMMEND PATENT MEDICINES?

From Sylvan Valley News, Brevrad, N. C.

It may be a question whether the editor of a newspaper has the right to publicly recommend any of the various proprietary medicines which flood the market, yet as a preventive of suffering we feel it a duty to say a good word for Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy. We have known and used this medicine in our family for twenty years and have always found it reliable. In many cases a dose of this remedy would save hours of suffering while a physician is awaited. We do not believe in depending implicitly on any medicine for a cure, but we do believe that if a bottle of Chamberlain's Diarrhoea Remedy were kept on hand and administered at the inception of an attack much suffering might be avoided and in very many cases the presence of a physician would not be required. At least this has been our experience during the past twenty years. For sale by W. Scott Zepp, druggist, Westminster, Md.

Choice Celery Plants, White Plume, Boston Market, Giant Pascal, New Victory and Golden Self-bleaching Varieties, 15 cents per hundred at 141 West Main St., Westminster, Md. Orders filled by mail or express. J. A. Weigand.

Great consternation was felt by the friends of M. A. Hogarty of Lexington, Ky., when they saw he was turning yellow. His skin slowly changed color, also his eyes and he suffered terribly. His malady was Yellow Jaundice. He was treated by the best doctors, but without benefit. Then he was advised to try Electric Bitters, the wonderful Stomach and Liver remedy, and he writes: "After taking two bottles I was wholly cured." A trial proves its matchless merit for all Stomach, Liver and Kidney troubles. Only 50c. Sold by all druggists.

Tear dimmed eyes shall gaze in vain.
We shall hear her voice no never,
Never bid her good bye again.
Forget thee! 'Tis a bitter word,
I would it were unsaid;
Forgetfulness is not of life,
But with the silent dead.
