1781 JUNE 18 JAMES CHESTON TO SAMUEL GALLOWAY MS.1994

SIDE ONE

Dear Sir Bristol ~~June~~ 10.th 1781

You will doubtless be not a little surprised at finding I am still here, after being led to expect by the Letter, which in all probability has reached you out of the Many I have wrote since I landed in England, that by this time I was well on my way home again — The Business which brought me from Maryland, has very unexpectedly kept me till this time, altho' closer attention could not possibly have been paid to it — At present it is upon the Way here & closing fast in 3 or 4 days I Expect the necessary Accounts & papers will be ready to put into an Attorneys hands, to prepare the proper probits & other things Wanting to Make what has been done binding upon all parties & to enable me when Opportunity offers, of settling the affairs of my late partnership on your side of the Water — As soon as that is done, I shall look out for the best Opportunity for settling off on my Return — How it is to be or which Route I am to take, I am — to the full, as much
