OLD HOMES.

Old homes among the hils! I love their gardens.
Their old rock fences, that our day inherits;
Their doors, 'round which the great trees stand like wardens;
Their paths, down which the shadows march like spirits;
Broad doors and paths that reach bird-haunted gardens.

I see them gray among their ancient acres,
Severe of front, their gables lichen-sprinkled
Like gentle-hearted, solitary Quakers,
Grave and religious, with kind faces wrinkled—
Serene among their memory-hallowed acres.

Their gardens, banked with roses and with lilies—
Those sweet aristocrats of all the flowers—
Where Springtime mints her gold in daffodillies,
And Autumn coins her marigolds in showers,
And all the hours are toilless as the lilies.

I love their orchards where the gray woodpecker
Flits, flashing o'er you, like a winged jewel;
Their woods, whose floors of moss the squirrels checker
With half-hulled nuts; and where, in cool renewal,
The wild brooks laugh, and raps the red woodpecker.

Old homes! old hearts! Upon my soul forever
Their peace and gladness lie like tears and laughter;
Like love they touch me, through the years that sever
With simple faith; like friendship, draw me after
The dreamy patience that is theirs forever.

FLOWER WEDDING PARTY.

A Pretty Entertainment for Young People Recently Given in Virginia.

A very pretty entertainment was given in one of the southern towns of Virginia the other day, says the Atlanta Constitution. It was called "Carolina Rose's Courtship and Wedding," and had somewhat the quality of a fortune telling game. The clever hostess who designed the novelty sent out invitations some two weeks in advance, making the evening a special one for the young people who were acquainted. Each couple was carefully selected and the invitations so read that the persons named came together, the young man as the young girl's escort. After the company was assembled a small pad was distributed to each person accompanied with a white and gold lead pencil tied into a narrow white satin ribbon.

The hostess then called out a number of questions which referred to this singular courtship and wedding in which each answer was the name of some beautiful flower which bloomed at any time of the year and which best suited the question given. Each couple had the privilege of consulting one another as to what was written, providing it was not heard by any other person present.

Following is a list of the questions and successful answers of the story:

The name of the pretty girl the bride-to-be of the wedding?
Carolina Rose.
Is she good looking?
An American beauty.
What advice did her parents give her in choosing a husband?
Marigold.
Did she have many lovers?
Phlox.
Which one did she like best?
(Mr.) Basil.
How did he propose?
Aster.
What did she say?
Sweet William.
What did he call her at that time?
Moss Rosebud.
Whose consent did he have to win?
Poppy.
What hour in the day was set for the wedding?
Four o'clock.
What priests performed the ceremony.
Hazel and Hyacinth.
Who were the bridesmaids?
Violet, Pansy and Lily.
Who was the best man?
Adorus Veenalis.
What did the bride wear on her head?
Orange flowers.
And carry in her hand?
Bridal roses.
Who gave her away?
Her father, Ionquit-Rose.
What decorated the church?
Apple blossoms.
What music was played as she walked up the aisle?
Narcissus.
How did the groom salute the bride?
Tulips.
What did friends say on parting from her?
Forget-me-not.
Where did they make their home?
Cape Jessamine.
The name of their cottage?
Evergreen.

After all the answers were written the cards were gathered up and three judges appointed who decided the best final treatment of the story, awarding the prize to the couple who had made the hit.

It Made All The Difference.

The mother of several sons was walking with her daughter down the street when they saw a boy, his legs coiled round a tree trunk, while his head hung downward some distance from the ground. Had the legs slipped the boy must have fallen and his skull probably split open. Round the tree stood a circle of admiring youths.

"Just look at that dreadful boy!" cried the mother. "Oughtn't he to be taken home and spanked well?"

"Why mother," cried the daughter as they drew nearer, "it's our Tommy! I don't believe there's another boy there brave enough to do that."

"Of course there isn't," returned the mother, joyously; not one of them would have the courage but Tommy. I'm proud of him."

Washing the Face.

From the N. Y. Tribune.

The story is told of a young wonan who was afflicted with blackheads visiting a physician in search of a remedy for the disfigurement, and being politely and candidly told to wash her face thoroughly in plenty of hot water and soap and keep it clean. Not every physician is frank enough to tell his patient the true cause of "blackheads" or the failure of the fine sebaceous glands of the face to do their work and cast out impurities from the skin. When for any reason whatsoever these oil glands are clogged, what is popularly known as "blackheads" appear. This is simply a collection of impurities in the mouth of the gland, which it has not force enough to throw off. These "blackheads" appear often on the nose and in the space between the eyes because the sebaceous glands are very abundant in these places. The only remedy for "blackheads" is to stimulate the glands to do their work by washing the face with plenty of hot water, using just as hot water as one can bear. Use pure white Castile soap to assist in the stimulating and cleansing process. Large "blackheads" must often be pressed out, and if there is any irritation a little cold cream should be used. This cold cream is made of almond oil, and not lard or mutton tallow, as most of the cold cream of commerce are made. Coarse animal fats, like lard or mutton tallow, clog up the glands themselves and produce "blackheads." Steaming the face by laying cloths wrung out in water as hot as you can bear it helps to clear the skin from impurities.

A person afflicted with "blackheads" and pimples, which are the legitimate result of "blackheads," has scientifically a "dirty face," no matter how many times it has been washed in a conventional manner. Sponges and all wash cloths should be scalded frequently and hung out in the sun to become thoroughly dried after being used.

Where to put Postage Stamps.

Because of carelessness or lack of knowledge as to the proper place to affix a postage stamp, the postal authorities are caused much trouble. Indeed, the matter has assumed such great proportions as to necessitate the issuance of a warning bulletin, as follows: "The proper place for a postage stamp on mail matter is the upper right hand corner of the address side. This facilitates cancellation and distribution, and insures prompt and proper treatment throughout the service. Stamps placed elsewhere are liable to be overlooked, and the matter mistreated as unpaid, or otherwise, and perhaps delayed in dispatch; therefore, unless impracticable, stamps should be affixed on the 'face' of all mail matter."

"Intellect doesn't amount to anything.

"What do you mean, Minerva?"

"The most intellectual woman in the world can be squelched in three seconds by a dressmaker."

TRUSTEES' SALE OF TWO SMALL FARMS AND TWO WOOD LOTS

In Manchester District, in Carroll County, Md.

By virtue of a decree of the Circuit Court for Carroll County, sitting as a Court of Equity, passed in cause No. 3790, equity, on the 11th day of May, 1900, in which cause, Mary S. Barnhart and others are plaintiffs, and Mary C. Stephen and others are defendants, the undersigned trustees appointed by said decree will offer at Public Sale, on the Home Farm of the late George Stephan, deceased, on Wednesday, the 8th day of August, 1900, at 2 o'clock, P. M., all of the following real estate situated in Manchester district, in Carroll county, Md., of which the said George Stephan died seized and possessed:

1st. The Home Farm of said George Stephan, containing

63¾ ACRES OF LAND, more or less.

This farm lies along the Westminster and Manchester County Road, adjoining the lands of George W. Brown, John T. Brown and others. About 8 or 9 acres of this farm is in good Timber, and the balance is all arable, and in a high state of cultivation. A good bearing Orchard is on it, and the improvements consist of a Dwelling House, Bank Barn, Wagon Shed, dairy, and all necessary outbuildings. It has plenty of Water. This is one of the best small farms in Manchester district, and its convenient location as to churches, stores, schools, &c., makes this an excellent opportunity for any one desiring to purchase a farm of its size.

2nd. At the same time and place will be offered for sale, the small property upon which the said George Stephan resided at the time of his death. It contains and the improvements consist of a frame Dwelling House, small Bank Barn, and the outbuildings necessary for a place of its size. All of the buildings are nearly new, and the land is fertile and kind. It also lies along the said Westminster and Manchester Road, adjoining the lands of Adolphus Ebaugh and others.

15½ ACRES OF LAND, more or less,

3rd. At the same time and place will be offered a Wood Lot of

3 3-16 ACRES OF LAND, more or less,

lying along the said Westminster and Manchester road, and directly opposite the said "Home Farm." The Timber on it is good, and when cleared it will make a fine building lot.

4th. At the same time and place will be offered the Wood Lot of

4⅛ ACRES OF LAND, more or less,

that the said George Stephan obtained from Peter L. Ritter, trustee, in the year 1883. It lies on the Manchester road, adjoining the lands of Christopher Hunt and others. It is good White Oak Timber.

A plat of the Home Farm will be exhibited on day of sale.

TERMS OF SALE.—One third of the purchase money, cash, on the day of sale or the ratification thereof, and the residue in two equal payments, one in one year, and the other in two years, the credit payments to be secured by the notes of the purchaser or purchasers, with approved security, bearing interest from the day of sale.

Wall Paper! Wall Paper!
I wish to call the attention of my friends and the public in general to the fact that I now am ready to show one of the Finest and Cheapest Lines of WALL PAPER
ever exhibited in this county, bought direct from the factory, in full bundle lots, so you get it only from second hands, no two or three profits coming off it. Of course the consumer pays them all. Sam Jones says it takes a pointer pup nine days to get his eyes open. I have known some people to get their's open in fifteen minutes in a wall paper deal. They thought it was two pieces instead of one, and the border they did not understand, &c. That is always their plea. Remember I am the only paper hanger in the county that carries a stock and don't have the expense of running a store, therefore I have no opposition. Is you think I can't save you money, come and see me and bring size of your room, or send size by mail and I will tell you what your job will cost, and send samples and convince you that Gladhill's is the place to save twenty-five cents on a dollar on all Wall Papers.

REMOVAL OF
Matthews & Myers,
To the NEW STORE, No. 80 East Main St.,
recently purchased by them, where they will carry on a Wall Paper, Paper Hanging and WINDOW SHADE BUSINESS.
We are under no expense and are prepared to work at the so-called cheap Paper Hangers price to the high priced Baltimore dealers.
Don't let us be reprezented as having a big rent and lots of other expenses to collect from our customers, as that is out of the question now.
We can sell and Hang Wall Paper with any of them. We have on hand a big lot of 50 cent Window Shades at 25 cents per piece, to close them out. Get them while they last. Give us a call.
MATTHEWS & MYERS,
80 E. Main St., opposite Theo. Derr & Son's Carpet and Furniture Store, Westminster.

Why Not Cure Your Cough or Cold?
WESTMINSTER, April 10th, 1890.
MR. JOS. B. BOYLE:
Dear Sir:—For many years I have suffered intensely, on taking cold, from a very troublesome cough, for which I have used a number of various remedies, and obtained but TEMPORARY RELIEF. During the past Spring I was again troubled with the same cough, and through a friend was induced to try YOUR Pectoral Syrup, which not only gave almost INSTANT RELIEF, but a PERMANENT CURE. It gives me great pleasure to say that I believe it to be the best remedy I ever used for the purpose for which it is recommended. Hoping that any person afflicted as I was may be fortunate enough to give it a trial, I am, Truly yours,
EDWARD LYNCH.
For Sale by all Druggists and Merchants in the Country. PRICE 25 CENTS. feb-24-4t

WANTED.

Having bought the Smallwood Creamery, of Mr. E. B. Arnold, I wish to say to the farmers of the community that I am prepared to handle 10,000 lbs. of Milk daily, and will pay the highest market price therefor, on or before the 15th of each month.

I ask the co-operation of the farmers. I know, from twelve years experience, that I can do you more good than you can have done for your dairy product in any other way. I would be glad to have any of the farmers call to see me to acquaint them with the business. Will furnish cans at wholesale price.
