ALBERT A. BLAKENEY, of Baltimore County.

ELECTION—TUESDAY, NOVEMBER 6TH, 1900.

The Democrats have nominated Hon. Joshua Frederick Cockey Talbott, of Baltimore county, as their candidate for Congress in the Second district. This nomination was a foregone conclusion, and the convention, which met at Havre de Grace on Tuesday, made it by acclamation. Mr. Talbott, however, was not the choice of the delegates from Carroll county. They simply acquiesced in the inevitable.

The Republicans of the Fourth district of Maryland, composed of wards in the western section of Baltimore, nominated Mr. Charles R. Schirm, as their candidate for Congress, on Tuesday evening. Mr. Schirm is a native of Baltimore and is thirty-six years old. In early life he served an apprenticeship as an iron molder, but afterward worked his way through college, studied law and was admitted to the bar four years ago. He has been a member of the Maryland legislature.

The balance of trade in favor of this country during the three years ended June 30, 1900, was $1,688,000,000—about five times greater than in all its previous history. As there is a clear connection between effect and cause, it is not difficult to account for this remarkable exhibit. The Republican policies of sound money and the protection of home industries are largely entitled to the credit of this era of unsurpassed prosperity. Unless the American people have gone daft they are not prepared to exchange this solid and substantial advantage for the twin will-o'-the-wisps, free trade and free silver, represented by the coalition of Populism and so-called Democracy in the person of Wm. Jennings Bryan.

No decisive news from China has been received yet, but it is believed, from the latest reports, that the allies have reached Pekin. A cablegram from Hongkong, via Vienna, reports the city taken, but the report is of doubtful authenticity. An undated cablegram from Minister Conger was received in Washington on Thursday. It conveys the important information that the American cipher code is safe. There had been fears that the Chinese had gotten possession of this. Mr. Conger adds that since July 17 there has been daily rifle fire on the legations and with it frequent desperate attacks. He says that practically all the foreign property in Pekin has been destroyed.

Fire destroyed six dwellings, and ten barns, stables and warehouses in Hanover, Pa., on Sunday morning, causing a loss of between forty and fifty thousand dollars' worth of property, including the handsome new Obold Hotel, in the stable of which the conflagration originated. The principal losses were sustained by the hotel, the Tanger Hardware Company and the Shriver livery stables. About one-half the loss was covered by insurance. With the aid of the McSherrystown Fire Company, which hastened to the scene as soon as the magnitude of the fire became known, the progress of the flames was arrested after a desperate effort and the whole eastern portion of the town saved from destruction. It is thought the fire was caused by crap shooters in the Obold Hotel stables.

The members of the convention of the National Hay Association, which was in session in Baltimore the early days of this week, were taken on an excursion to Annapolis, on the steamer Louise, on Wednesday. They visited the Naval Academy and State House, and at the latter point were welcomed to the Capital of Maryland, in an address, by Dr. J. W. Hering, of this city, Comptroller of the Treasury.

Collis P. Huntington, of New York, died suddenly in the Adirondacks, on Monday. Mr. Huntington's wealth is variously estimated at thirty to fifty millions of dollars. He was a native of Connecticut. In early life he peddled clocks in Virginia. He was about seventy-nine years old.

STATE CAMP, P. O. S. OF A.

The fifth annual convention of the State Camp of Maryland, Patriotic Order Sons of America, was held at Chestertown on Tuesday and Wednesday of this week. The event was of peculiar interest to residents of this county, which contains nearly one-third the whole membership of the State. Eleven of the forty camps in the State are located in the county and have 750 members. The total membership in the State is about 2600. W. R. McCardell, of Gaithers, was vice-president of the State Camp last year; P. B. Englar, of Taneytown, secretary; J. W. Sullivan, Sykesville, trustee; Harry E. Otto, of Middleburg, and Wm. F. Fowble, of Morgan, district presidents. Dr. Luther Kemp, of Uniontown, is a past State president. Most of them were in attendance at the State convention.

The delegates to the convention from the camps in this county were: Taneytown, Chas. E. H. Shriner, Wm. F. Clingan, Wm. W. Witherow; Westminster, S. P. Weaver; Pleasant Valley, Dr. C. M. Brown, John F. Utermahlen; Middleburg, Reuben F. Staub; Tyrone, Levi D. Maus, Jr.; Winfield, Prof. W. J. Heapes, David Cover, F. A. Baile; Gist, John R. Bennett, C. W. Allen; Sykesville, A. A. Forthman, Eli T. Frizell; Day, F. T. Buckingham, C. A. Mullinix; Harney, Wm. F. Null; Keysville, Orestes R. Koontz.

The following officers were elected for the ensuing year at the first day's morning session: C. Hervey Pardee, president; R. M. Farring, vice-president; William E. Valliant, master of forms; P. B. Englar, secretary; James W. Lidard, treasurer; C. M. Newkirk, conductor; F. A. Baile, inspector; Frank Creswell, guard; Harry E. Otto, John M. South and W. H. Good, trustees.

At the evening session, among those who spoke was Prof. Wm. J. Heapes, who delivered an address on "Our Heritage."

The officers elect were installed at Wednesday morning's session, by Past State President, Dr. Luther Kemp, of Uniontown.

The following appointments were made: State Chaplain, Harry E. Otto, of Carroll county; State Assistant Secretary, John J. Stump, Cumberland; law committee, J. A. Clarkson and B. H. Bittle, Baltimore.

Arrangements were made for pushing organization work during the coming year. It was arranged that the State Executive Committee shall meet in Baltimore on Tuesday next to outline plans of work for the furtherance of the objects of the organization. This committee is constituted as follows: State President, C. H. Pardee, Baltimore; R. M. Faring, State Vice-President, Anne Arundel county; William E. Valliant, State Master at Arms, Queen Anne's; P. B. Englar, State Secretary, Carroll; J. W. Lidard, State Treasurer, Baltimore.

The State Camp adjourned to meet in Baltimore on the second Tuesday in August, 1901,
