1783 NOV. 18 ANN PEMBERTON TO SAMUEL GALLOWAY

MS. 1994.

SIDE ONE

I have been prevented writing to my Dr Cousin ye several opportunity's having had all kinds of furniture to provide towards housekeeping, that at an extravagant rate, goods are generally very high altho there are four ships just arrived from London full of goods, a great many in the City before,

I find the situation of the house we are in ~~[illegible]~~ very disagreable but think to continue in it till ~~after~~ spring ~~[illegible]~~ I propose removing to the house in Chesnut street my friends are of the opinion that by renting some parts of that Interest my rent may be reduced as low as in any house that would accommodate my family, it now rents for four hundred pounds p^r year p the taxes to the dutch embassador, the Coach house on chesnut street rents seperately for a wine store Saml Pleasants Occupies the stores, wharf in water street for which he pays £120 p^r year, was given lits for 80 very low indeed, ground rents £150 p^r year, I have been thus particular to my Dr Cousin having reason to [illegible]
