1784 JUNE 26 JAMES CLERK TO SAMUEL GALLOWAY

MS.1994.

SIDE ONE

London 26th: June 1784

Dear Sir

Accept of my sincere thanks for your kind hospitality & friendship to me during my stay in Maryland, which I shall ever remember with gratitude. permit me to assure you that nothing would give me more pleasure than to be able to render you or any part of your family any essential service: whenever an opportunity may offer, I flatter myself you will oblige me by embracing it.

I arrived at Dover on the 18th Instant after a very pleasant tho' not a very short passage of about 33 days from the Capes, and had the happiness to find my relations here well. —

Drusina tells me he met with a Phaeton, which he sent out to you by Henrick: it belonged to Lord — (I forget his name)
