The Kind You Have Always Bought

In Use For Over 30 Years

CASTORIA

THE CENTAUR COMPANY, NEW YORK CITY.

An Unlucky Man.

"Never had no luck
Any way," he sighed;
"Fate has kep' me down,
Or, at least, has tried;
Never found a cent,
All I've got I earned;
No such word as luck,
Fur as I'm concerned.

"Never had no help
Anywhere," he said;
"Always had to work
For each bite o' bread!
Never took a chance
That I wasn't caught;
Neven won a bet,
But I've lost a lot!

"Never had no fun
All my life," he cried;
"Wish when I was born
I could just of died!
Bet you when I'm gone
They'll invent some way
Folks can live right on Till the judgment day,
'Cause that there 'ud be Jist my luck!" said he,

—S. E. Kiser.

Household Hints.

A soft cloth dipped in alcohol will clean piano keys.

Whole cloves strewn about the pantry shelves will keep red ants away and are said to abolish moths.

A holland cover that buttons on a mattress, so that it can be easily taken off and washed, saves the real cover wonderfully.

The corks of bottles or jars containing substances which are apt to be very sticky should be dipped in salad oil before being replaced.

New brass and copper kitchen utensils should be be cleaned with salt and vinegar before they are used, to avoid poison from verdigris.

A point to rmember in connection with the laundry of white goods is that to keep them a clear white they should not be washed with linens.

Meat may be kept sweet for many days if it is covered with a muslin which has been wrung out in vinegar. This should be renewed every day.

Never use hard water for washing; if you cannot procure naturally soft water, soften the water by additions of a few drops of ammonia or a little borax.

Marks that have been made on paint with matches can be removed by rubbing first with a slice of lemon, then with whiting and washing with soap and water.

Cheek wrinkles, says a specialist, ought to come very late in life, if at all. They are often carelessly produced by a habit of rumpling a pillow on which one is slpping.

Do not "air" your bread boxes after they have been scrubbed and scalded; dry and close them. Dust frequently carries germs of mold, which grow and contaminate the bread.

Fruit stains on the hands may be removed by rubbing the hands well with lemon juice and then with salt. Oxalic acid, a little added to water, will accomplish the same end.

Bread should never be covered with a cloth when taken from the oven, but laid on the side and allowed to become perfectly cold; then keep in a closely covered tin box without any wrappings.

Cold bread is seldom acceptable as a breakfast dish, and there are so many ways in which it may be served in the form of toasts, that care and thought should be given to the preparation of such dishes.

To take out fresh stains, use turpentine. If the stain is old and dry, scrape the surface with a knife, and apply a little vaseline to soften it; then apply the turpentine. The latter will remove both the paint and the vaseline.

If you wish cheap glassware to present a shining appearance much like highly polished cut glass, wash it first in hot suds, dry it on a linen towl, and wnile it is still warm rub it with tissue paper. Glasses that have been used for milk wash much more easily if they are first rinsed in cold water.

Mrs. Brown—"Our language is full of misnomers. For instance, I met a man once who was a perfect bear, and they called him a 'civil enginer.' Just think of it."

Mrs. Smith—"Yes, but that's not so ridiculous as the man they call a 'teller' in a bank. He won't tell you anything. I asked one the other day how much money my husband had on deposit, and he just laughed at me.

"So you married Algernon, after all." "Yes, I tried to be patient and all that, but I just couldn't bear to have him with me so much."

Wall Paper! Wall Paper!

I wish to call the attention of my friends and the public in general to the fact that I now am ready to show one of the ever exhibited in this county, bought direct from the factory, in full bundle lots, so you get it only from second hands, no two or three profits coming off it. Of course the consumer pays them all. Sam Jones says it takes a pointer pup nine days to get his eyes open. I have known some people to get their's open in fifteen minutes in a wall paper deal. They thought it was two pieces instead of one, and the border they did not understand, &c. That is always their plea. Remember I am the only paper hanger in the county that carries a stock and don't have the expense of running a store, therefore I have no opposition. Is you think I can't save you money, come and see me and bring size of your room, or send size by mail and I will tell you what your job will cost, and send samples and convince you that Gladhill's is the place to save twenty-five cents on a dollar on all Wall Papers.

Finest and Cheapest Lines of

WALL PAPER

Why Not Cure Your Cough or Cold ?

WESTMINSTER, April 10th, 1890.

MR. JOS. B. BOYLE:

Dear Sir:—For many years I have suffered intensely, on taking cold, from a very troublesome cough, for which I have used a number of various remedies, and obtained but TEMPORARY RELIEF. During the past Spring I was again troubled with the same cough, and through a friend was induced to try YOUR Pectoral Syrup, which not only gave almost INSTANT RELIEF, but a PERMANENT CURE. It gives me great pleasure to say that I believe it to be the best remedy I ever used for the purpose for which it is recommended. Hoping that any person afflicted as I was may be fortunate enough to give it a trial, I am, Truly yours,

EDWARD LYNCH.

WANTED.

Having bought the Smallwood Creamery, of Mr. E. B. Arnold, I wish to say to the farmers of the community that I am prepared to handle 10,000 lbs. of Milk daily, and will pay the highest market price therefor, on or before the 15th of each month.

I ask the co-operation of the farmers. I know, from twelve years experience, that I can do you more good than you can have done for your dairy product in any other way. I would be glad to have any of the farmers call to see me to acquaint them with the business. Will furnish cans at wholesale price.
