n.d. Samuel Galloway incoming letters SIDE ONE 1994

Honoured Sir:

In consequence of the Conversation that took place between you and myself a few days ago at Tulip Hill, I have procured a List of the particular Articles given by Mr Chew to his Daughter and which he has charged her with as part of her Fortune - he has not priced the Articles given, but I suppose that is unnecessary as it will be no difficult Matter to ascertain the Value - I have copied the paper and you may rely on the exactness of the paper inclosed - Henny was entitled by the Will of her Grand mother to a little more than £500 Maryland Currency - the Effects came into the possession of her Father - and must be considered as part of her Estate, tho coming from another Channel - Henny is a good deal indisposed - Capt Fitzhugh and Lady are here - and request me to offer their Compliments - Henny joins me in Love & Compliments - and shall be glad to see you & Mr & Mrs Cheston - the ride would be of Service to you - I am Hon^d Sir. Yr mo^t dut^l Son:

Ben: Galloway.

Ridge

Your Wench Cate is sick and we think she has the Measles